

PENN CLOTHING AND SHOE HOUSE

NEVER IN FIFTY YEARS

Well may you say it—that never before in half a century have such prices been heard of. And we hope circumstances will never again make such ruthless reductions necessary as go into effect when we open

THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 3, 1895, AT NINE O'CLOCK.

A brief explanation: We prepared for an immense fall and winter trade. Filled our building to overflowing with durable and magnificent goods. We had a good trade, but not as good as anticipated. The result is a larger stock on hand than we ever had at this season of the year.

It Must Be Reduced and Goods Will Be Slaughtered Unmercifully

Every garment in the house has a separate tag, which bears the great reduction price, some of which are marked down to less than 50c. on the dollar. Nothing will prevent us from slaughtering every winter wearable we have in the house. Today starts the greatest sale ever attempted in this region, viz., The Penn Clothing and Shoe House.

Passing Events of the Day on the West Side of the City Noted.

EXCITEMENT ON MAIN AVENUE

Caused by a Runaway—Cutter Reduced to Kindling Wood—Union Services to Be Held in the Churches—Accident in Diamond Mine.

An exciting runaway occurred yesterday afternoon on South Main avenue. Walter Jones, of Washburn street, and Morgan Jenkins, a companion, hired a horse and cutter from Undertaker William Price and went out for a ride. They visited Taylor and were coming home by way of Main avenue. When they had reached the residence of John Hall the cutter runners became lodged in the car track, and as the young men endeavored to turn out of the way of a passing car the sleigh overturned, throwing them out into the snow. The horse became frightened and dashed up the avenue, soon converting the once handsome cutter into splinters of flying wood. The horse kept up the mad race, dashing through the business portion of the West Side, but fortunately injuring no one. The animals were hanging to his back. The animal was captured at length in Providence, after a run of three miles, and brought unharmed and weary to Price's livery. The young men gathered the pieces of the cutter together and settled for the damage.

Union Services. Union services will be conducted on every evening of next week in some one of the West Side churches. The West Side Ministers' association have decided upon the meetings, and they will be held as follows: Monday evening, at the Jackson Street Baptist church, theme, "Humiliation and Thanksgiving;" Tuesday evening, in the Plymouth Congregational church, theme, "The Church Universal;" Wednesday evening, at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church on the subject, "Nations and Their Rulers;" Thursday evening at the First Welsh Baptist church, theme, "Missions, Foreign and Home;" Friday evening at the Scranton Street Baptist church on the subject, "Families and Schools." The local pastors will deliver the sermons. The meetings will be made free to all and be of the revival and thanksgiving nature. The attendances will undoubtedly be large.

Timbering Gave Away. On Monday morning the timbering in the top of the Diamond mine, which had become weakened with age, fell in. The location is near the fan wheel where the miners are let down into the workings. The shive wheel was thrown out of place by the fall. The mine was idle when the fall occurred. If there had been any men about at the time, or had the wheel been hoisting the carriage, it would have probably done serious injury. The damage is being repaired.

Singers Are Entertained. The male members of the Jackson Street Baptist church were entertained last evening at the home of Choir Leader William B. Owen on North Lincoln avenue. A very enjoyable time was the result. During the evening solos and duets were rendered by the singers. Mr. Owen entertained his guests in a most pleasant manner. Those present were: George Nichols, Eldridge Dougherty, Thomas Howell, Harry Davies, Roy Williams, Eddie Watkins, William Thomas and Emerson Owen.

Brief Notes of Interest. Miss Viola Evans, of South Main avenue, is visiting friends in Parsons. Mrs. Joseph Lambert, of Keiser avenue, is convalescing after a severe illness. John McNiff, of Everett avenue, is suffering from an injury received in the Hampton mine. St. Brendan council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute, will hold a social in Mear's hall on Jan. 11. Edward Hughes, of Division street, left yesterday afternoon for Bloomsburg, to enter the State Normal school. Miss Gertrude Freeman, of Bellevue, returned to the Bloomsburg State Normal school yesterday to resume her studies. Miss Mame Morgan, of Jackson street, returned to her studies at the Bloomsburg State Normal school last evening. Thomas Jones, of Clifford, returned home yesterday from a visit with his cousin, George Daniels, on North Hyde Park avenue. A stereopticon exhibition will be held on Jan. 11 in the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the church members. Palmer Williams, of South Main avenue, left yesterday to resume his studies at Bucknell university, after a visit with his parents. Misses Lulu James, Jennie Lewis, Martha Vaughn, Lizzie A. Evans, Jennie Daniels, and Nettie Elias have returned to this side, after a visit with friends in West Pittston. About twenty sleigh loads of young people passed through the West Side on their way up and down the valley last evening. They were very merry. Many sleigh loads left the West Side for other points. A. L. Ramee, a student at the Mount Airy Theological seminary, Philadelphia, has resumed his studies, after an extended visit among friends here. During his stay, Mr. Ramee acceptably filled the pulpit of St. Mark's Lutheran church.

The West Side Central Republican club elected the following officers on Tuesday evening. President, W. S. Mars; vice president, John Lowry; marshal, Henry Greenwood; recording secretary, Henry D. Thoney; financial secretary, Harry Shortt; treasurer, M. G. Dimmick.

A Voluntary Statement. Mrs. Elizabeth Nolan, of 269 State street, Auburn, N. Y., says: For the past seven years I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism and rheumatic gout. My ankles, feet, wrists and hands were swollen to an enormous size, and I was unable to bend a joint of them. I was compelled to crawl on my hands and knees. A great part of the time I was confined to my bed, unable to help myself in the least. I had the best medical attendance, but obtained only temporary relief. One day a gentleman calling upon some business, seeing my helpless condition, said: "If you will get some of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills, I think they will cure you."

I did not have much faith, but I was in such a helpless condition, could scarcely move about, could not close my hands at all, got up and down stairs sideways, that I thought I would try the pills. Accordingly, I got two boxes of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills, and after taking them three days, the pain all left me and has never returned even in the dampest weather. Of course I was encouraged and kept on taking them, and am entirely cured. I have now taken six boxes, and can do all my own household work without the least pain. The swelling is all gone, can move my joints naturally and feel as well as ever I did. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills, and will gladly see any one who will call at my house, 269 State street, and verify the truth of this statement. I heartily recommend Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills to all who suffer from rheumatism. They are a radical cure for rheumatism, inflammatory rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, both acute and chronic, and all diseases depending upon and having their origin in the uric diathesis. Price, $1.00 a box. For sale by Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail, Scranton, Pa.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

No One to Claim the Remains of Frank Penyak.

RELATIVES DO NOT WANT THEM

Story Concerning the Marriage of Miss Bahr and Eugene Tannier Was Withdrawn—New Feed Wire For the South Side Lines.

The remains of Frank Penyak, the Greek who was struck and killed by the north bound 9 p. m. Delaware and Hudson passenger train New Year's night, lie yet at the morgue in Undertaker Miller's establishment on Cedar avenue. The man has a brother-in-law living in Johnson's Patch, Dunmore, but he will have nothing to do with incurring any expense toward giving the dead man's burial.

Penyak boarded at Johnson's Patch with his brother-in-law and was down to Majernyk's hall on Hickory street to a ball. He wandered on the railroad crossing and there met his death. Patrolman Schmidt instructed Undertaker Miller to remove the body and now Mr. Miller is in a quandary, since the man's relatives have not been humane enough to look after the funeral. Penyak worked as a laborer in Johnson's mine and wages amounting to $15 are due his account. Unless the undertaker is relieved of the body by this afternoon, he intends to ship it to Philadelphia as a subject for the dissecting table. Penyak was about 35 years of age and has a wife and three children in the old country.

Coroner Kelley empaneled a jury yesterday to inquire into circumstances attending the death of Penyak. Penyak was walking the track about 9 o'clock on Tuesday night when the out-bound train struck him. The jurors were Charles E. Daniels, Thomas Feeney, Thomas Stanton, Martin Bird, E. J. White and James Harriy and will meet this morning at the coroner's office on Lackawanna avenue to receive further evidence.

Story Was Meantly False. The South Side column of yesterday's Tribune contained an article stating that Miss Minnie A. Bahr, of Maple street, and Eugene Tannier, of Pittston avenue, had been married in Binghamton on New Year's Day. A Tribune reporter was led to believe from certain representations that the story was substantially true, but it developed subsequently that not the least bit of truth was in the story. The families of the young couple are highly respected and most estimable people and the young couple themselves are also very well thought of. There was no intention on the part of The Tribune to do an injustice, and with cheerfulness this correction is made. Miss Bahr was visiting her uncle in Carbondale on that day and she was accompanied by two of her lady friends. That circumstance is probably responsible for the story concerning her marriage which gained circulation through the efforts of some person none too scrupulous about the truth.

August the Favorite. It Distanced June for Honors as the Month of Brides. During the year 1894 1,341 applications for marriage licenses were made to Clerk of the Courts Thomas. Only one case was refused, the requests refused, making the total number of licenses granted 1,342. The greatest number was granted in August, and the least in March. The number of licenses granted by months is as follows: January, 131; February, 78; March, 82; April, 102; May, 165; June, 139; July, 112; August, 138; September, 129; October, 127; November, 121; December, 107.
