The silk spool works will shut down or a short period next week. While some of the employes were endeavoring to thaw out frozen water pipes in the basement of Paul Billings Sons' hardawre store yesterday morning, fire was accidentally com-municated with some coils of rope, akum and other materials near by, and a lively little conflagration was started. An alarm brought the fire department out promptly, but their sercices were not needed, as the fire was soon extinguished. Beyond destroying few pounds of rope and filling the establishment with smoke, no damage en-

Another oil boom is reported a Sharpetown, near Jenningsville, in the western portion of the county. All the land in that section not already covered by lease is being secured, and further operations in the boring line may be expected another season. It is said that Scranton men are at the bot-

An Irishman employed by the Lehigh Valley as track walker, became sick and sat around the hotel for some time, and when he finally consulted a doctor the physician nformed him that he had either varioold or smallpox-probably the latter. Doors are barricaded now and social calls are suspended indefinitely.

The new large flouring and saw mills f the Meshoppen Milling company at Meshoppen were destroyed by fire at a late hour Wednesday night. The plant was one of the largest and best anywhere in this section, and was erected only a few years since at a cost of $27,000. It is said that there was only $1,000 insurance upon it, as it was owned by a stock company and some of the members objected to the high rates demanded by the insurance companies The fire caught in the upper portion of the building, and the greater part of the grain and stuff on the lower floor was removed, but the loss, aside from the building, will be heavy, which falls upon Gregory & Overfield, who were operating the mill this year. The origin of the fire is unknown.
