VESPERS WILL NOT MOVE.

W. Browning's Speeches and Professor Louise Lange's Points of Order Went for Naught.

Meetings of the Vesper Literary so clety generally are of an interesting nature, but last evening's was peculiarly so. The meeting opened in the usual peacable manner and instead of discussing the interesting and edifying topic arranged for the evening one of the members made a proposition that the society should hold their meetings at the Albright library instead of the church parlor in the Penn Avenue Baptist church, which is at their exclusive use. The society has met in the parlor for fourteen years and some of the conservative members stood aghast at the proposal.

E. S. Williams, builder, was moved almost to tears by the bold movement and pathelically entreated that they should continue to vegetate in the old and hallowed spot. Ex-Councilman Browning made twenty-three speeches in favor of the change and was several imes called to order by Chairman H. S. Smith. Professor Louise Lange was also strongly in favor of moving and made so many points of order that the chairman wearily remarked: "Professor, sit down; this is the 154th point of order you have raised. I can't ount any further." After an hour's wordy warfare the motion was tabled by the chairman's vote. The society decided to hold a public entertainment at an early date. WORK OF EVANGELISTS.

City Pastors Are Divided in Their Opinions us to the Good They Accomplish. The Armenian Meeting-

A discussion of unusual interest was held at the monthly meeting of the City Pastor's union at the Young Men's Christian association yesterday morning. Rev. N. F. Stahl presided, and Rev. M. D. Fuller acted as secretary. Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, read a paper on "Evangelistic Work," in which he claimed that the work generally had a tendency to cause the church to drift away from its safe and well-established moorings. The order of evangelists was spreading like frogs in Egypt of old, and now they are everywhere. Some of them were tainted with socialism and others were weak on the atonement and they roderough-shod over plantings of years of work. There was also the question of expense; some of them received in three or four months more than many ministers received in a year. The results of their work were frequently unsatisfactory when converts were ceived into the church. Every Presbytery, conference and association should control its own evangelists and secure a genuine revival by personal work, as this meant more for the evangelization of the people than any other agency.

The Evangelists Defended. Rev. J. W. Williams, in defending the work of the evangelists, delivered a spirited address and charged Dr. Floyd with being too severe in his criticism. The work done in his church was helpful and lasting, and although the evangelist frequently had faults, he believed the church. Rev. F. A. Dony made a few remarks to the point, among others citing that evangelists were often the Star Social club will be held at Germeans of awakening pastors to a sense of their duties. Rev. Dr. McLeod said that he would say "Amen" to every sentence in Dr. Floyd's address. The evangelist, he thought, oftentimes made people dissatisfied with their pastors and at the same time supplied people with but wind and fury. He questioned whether one evangelist that had recently visited the city could ever undo the harm that he had done in Scranton. It was communism pure and simple. Rev. D. C. Hughes and Rev. John Davy continued the discussion.

Dr. McLeod referred to the proclamation of Mayor Connell recommending the holding of a public meeting to denounce the Armenian massacres. A meeting will be held on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Elm Park church. and a committee comprising Rev. D. C. Hughes, Rev. W. H. Pearce and Rev. James McLeod were appointed to make the neccessary arrangements. Bishop O'Hara had been invited to send a representative on behalf of the Roman Catholic church.

Mr. Chittenden Coming. Dr. Dean referred to a proposed visit by Mr. Crittenden, founder of the Florence Crittenden missions, and Rev. Mr. Underwood, for the purpose of conducting a series of evangelistic meetings in the city. Consideration of the matter was deferred. Rev. N. F. Stahl will read a paper at the next meeting.

NORTH END NOTES.

Bernard Davis, of Oak street, anounces himself as a candidate for the office of Alderman of the Second ward. Miss Cora Griffin, of William street, has returned to Mansfield, where she esumes her studies in the State Normal school.

The monthly husiness meeting of the Christian Endeavor society and King's Daughters, of the Green Ridge Presbyerian church, will be held tonight. Council No. 2, Sons of Columbia, will hold their first annual entertainment in St. Mary's hall tonight. It will consist of selections by local talent, and will be followed by a social. Mrs. Thomas Lynott, of Market street, and Mrs. John Reagen, of Brick avenue, are confined to their homes as the result of the shock they received in the street car collision last Saturday afternoon. The funeral of Henry Kennedy, of Brick avenue, will take place this morning. The service will take place at 10 o'clock in the Holy Rosary church, and interment will be made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Rev. T. W. Jones, D. D., of Philadelphia, district superintendent of the American Home Missionary society, is on his official tour through this valley. He spent Sunday and part of yes-terday in this part of the city, and preached in the Puritan Congregational church on Sunday evening on the subject, "The Seven Churches of Asia."

TOO MUCH CORNER LOAFING

Police Will Be Requested to Give It Their Attention-New Officers of the Century Hose Company Are Installed-Funeral of A. B. Farnham, Notwithstanding the strictness with which the police officers of this side deal with the tramping fraternity and the frequent raids made upon these gentry at their quarters adjacent to the Lackswanna Iron and Steel company's cinder dump, they seem to come around made a haul and were rewarded in rounding up four wanderers. They were given a hearing in police court and remanded to the custody of Street Commissioner Kirst, who makes use of them in cleaning the snow from the crosswalks.

Annoyed by Lonfers. If there is one thing that is more leserving of being rooted out and is ot much less aggravating than the tramp nuisance, it is the most annoying and disgusting practice of corner loafing that abounds to a great extent on the South Side. There are several places that are evesores to the traveler. for between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock each evening it is often difficult to pass certain points without being insulted and hustled off the sidewalk by the fellows who indulge in the habit of oating. Three particular hangouts, at the corner of Pittston avenue and Fig street, are the most annoying. At the first named place Barber John Zang conducts a place of business, and he has determined to complain to the

to the loafing habit.

New Officers of Century Hose Company The officers of Century Hose company, No. 10, who will serve for the current year, were installed last night and are as follows: President, S. Spruks; vice president, George Fassold; treasurer. Edwin Frable, recording secretary, Emil Bonn; financial secretary, I. A. Miller, jr.; foreman, Jacob Hafner; trustee, Casmer Hartman. A vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers for the capable and conscientious manner in which they discharged their trusts. Addresses were made by sev eral of the members and an enjoyable evening was spent socially after the ousiness meeting adjourned.

Charles Gelbert, the popular young athlete of this city, returned yesterday to the University of Pennsylvania, where he is a student in the pharmaceutical department. Mr. Gelbert spent his Christmas vacation with his parents on South Washington avenue. Every preparation is being made by the officers of St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society for the reception of the delegates who will attend the eighth quarterly convention of the Second district of the Scranton Diocesan union next Sunday. The convention will be called to order at 2 p. m. by J. C. Gallagher, president of the district, and a business meeting, lasting until 7 o'clock, will be followed by a supper and then an entertainment beginning at 8 o'clock.

The funeral of the late A. B. Farnham, of Cedar avenue, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. L. Santee, of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, conducted services at the house and the remains were then borne to Forest Home cemetery, at Taylor, where interment was made. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances, including many of Mr. Farnham's associates at the car shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

J. M. Manchester has been relieved from jury duty. John Moran, of the new shop, has returned to work after a severe attack of George Pain, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western brakeman, is progressing favorably from the result of his accident on Saturday morning. Mr. Pain fell off a box car near the Lackawanna avenue crossing and his arm was dislocated.

Many friends have fendered their con-blence with the family of A. B. Farnham, late of Cedar avenue, who died on Friday. Mr. Farpham was for many years employed in the saw shop of the Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western company and was flighty respected.

The machine shops of the Delaware, Luckawanna and Western company can boast of a number of clever checker players. The noon hour games are the center of great interest and several have discussed the question of forming a checker club as a feature of association work. A series of competition games in the rooms would attract quite an absorbing interest. Thomas Wilson is just the man to organize such a club; he is an ardent admirer of the game and David McKenna, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western pattern shop, is one of the best skaters in the city. He and Ernest Dolph, of the Traders' bank, astracted considerable attention on the Driving park rink in executing many difficult figures.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

The attraction at the Frothingham on Tuesday and Wednesday is Whallen & Murtell's "South Before the War," and Pickaniany band. The bill of fare is a series of sketches in which are introduced plantation scenes in all their pleturesque details. "Slavery Days" is the keynote of the whole show. "Un-der the Southern Sun," by Charles again. Early yesterday morning Lieu-tenant Zang and a squad of officers character, is one of the strongest pieces character, is one of the strongest piece of the lot. The Buckingham, Eclipse and the original Twilight quartettes sing songs. There is a host of buck and wing dancers, campmeeting shouters etc. Many specialties are introduced. There will be a matinee on Wednesday afternoon.

Lew Dockstaders' minstrels, a de cidedly worthy company of comedians singers and dancers will appear at the Academy of Music next Friday night in a programme of unusual excellence Lew Dockstader heads the list of fur makers and he is himself worth going miles to hear. The lovers of a good minstrel entertainment may rest as sured that a splendid treat is in store for them.

"A Widow Hunt," the play in which Wilfred Clarke, the eminent American comedian will be seen at the Frothingham on the evening of Friday, Jan. 11 Birch street, Pittston avenue and Maple street, and Pittston avenue and play, but is world famous. Its title role, that of Major Wellington De-Boots, which Mr. Clarke enacts, ranks with Paul Pry, Doctor Pangloss and Bob Acres. In no other comedy has police and see if a stop cannot be put Mr. Clarke achieved so much success Saturday night Mr. Clarke and company will be seen in "Tit for Tat."

As the title indicates, it deals with life at the nation's capitol. The play is a drama of the most refined character. The heart chords of the auditor is touched with the gentle hand of genlus, and when the curtain is rung down on the last act a lesson beautiful in its simplicity has been taught. Such plays are an honor to our American stage, and go far toward advancing the power and importance of the drama. So says the San Francisco Examiner of 'O'Neill, Washington, D. C.," written by Daniel L. Hart, of Wilkes-Barre and to be presented at the Academy of Music on Monday evening next by Daniel Sully and his excellent com pany.

WANT TO AID ONE ANOTHER ity Teachers Take Steps to Form a Benevolent Organization. There is a movement afoot among the public school teachers of this city to establish a benevolent fund or association along the lines of similar organizations in the large cities. Yesterday afternoon about a score of teachers met by invitation in Liberty hall, where Professor George Howell presided and Professor M. J. Donohue officiated at a session which planned the preliminaries for bringing the proposed association to a definite issue. Yesterday's gathering listened to a reading by Miss Lees, of No. 3 school, of an article concerning the work in Philadelphia and Boston. After a brief discussion a committee was appointed on a "plan of organization" which will benext meeting gather formation it can and report with recom mendations. The committee is composed of Miss Lees, of No. 3, and Miss Greenstead and Professor Stone, of No. 33 Monday, Jan. 21, at 4 o'clock, in Liberty hall, was the time and place decided upon for the next meeting.

Informally was discussed the idea of conducting a teachers' fair to procure funds for establishing the proposed association. Such a plan has resulted in great success in New York.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Dr. David Kennedy, Dear Sir-I am 60 years old and generally played out, or so I thought up to two weeks ago, when I commenced to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

For years I have suffered with inflammation of the bladder and kidneys, and have gradually grown worse and expect-ed at any time that passing urine by nature's effort would cease. Besides cor stant pain in the kidneys and bladder I have had rheumatic pain in every muscle and joint, and have often remarked that and joint, and have often remarked that there was not a man living that had suffered as much as I had, but I must say I had not for a single day in five years felt as well in every way as I do now. Have improved daily since I began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. About a week ago I gave a man afflicted with bladder trouble, part of a bottle of Favorite Remedy, and he said to me today: "That is a great medicine; I am better al-"That is a great medicine; I am better already," and he drove eight miles to a druggist to get a bottle.
