Cards are out announcing the marriage of Patrick O'Toole and Maggie Loftis. Now that we cannot be annexed, why not form a borough and have our own councilmen, police, fire companies, etc. Two streets cars collided on Main street Sunday morning. Fortunately, nobody was injured.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TUNKHANNOCK.

John Wilsey, who underwent a severe surgical operation Saturday night at the hands of Drs. Durnsife, of this place, and Guthrie, of Wilkes-Barre, is getting along finely.

Jenkins Brunnes and Miss Alice Streeter are both students at Wyoming seminary this winter.

N. H. Mack started for Waynesboro yesterday morning.

Loman Bardwell and Otis Carr took the Buffalo express last night for Tempe, Ariz., where they purpose making their future home.

Editor P. C. McKee, of Towanda, was making social calls here yesterday.

Carl Rhinehart, who has been a sufferer for a long time with accumulations in the pleural sac, went to the Wilkes-Barre hospital and had an operation performed. Reports from him are of an encouraging nature.

Two daughters of Joseph Ellsworth, of Vose, carried a hot iron to bed with them a few nights since as a foot warmer. The iron set fire to the bedclothes, and when the father woke up and went on a tour of investigation some time in the night, he discovered it just in time to save the house and probably the lives of the unconscious girls. One of them remarked that it was the first time she had had warm feet this winter.

Irwin Wheelock, of Eatonville, received a telegram Saturday night stating that his brother, Gordon, who lived at Mountain Ranch, Cal., was dead. No particulars were given, but it is presumed that his death was due to accident. He was a miner of gold quartz, and had been in California since 1880. His brother Daniel is at Pike City, that state, and will care for his remains. It is not probable that they will be brought east for burial. He was 62 years of age and unmarried.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Hiller went to Carbonide yesterday.

It now develops that the burning of the Meshopeng flouring mill was doubtless the work of fire bugs. George Bond, the miller, went through the mill and inspected everything as usual before the locking up for the night. When he broke in the door after the alarm of fire a trap door was raised that he had left shut. A man was reported as seen running in the opposite direction from the mill about the time the alarm was given, but in the darkness and confusion he was not identified.

J. A. DeWitt, of Falls, spent Sunday at Sheriff Knapp's.

County Auditors L. L. Travis, W. U. Shaw and J. L. Tiffany are at their work.

One lone jury commissioner was the only county officer to take the oath of office yesterday. He was Horace Baker, of Meshopeng.

Mrs. C. W. Hoffa returned to Du-shore yesterday.

L. Hilkoewich and family spent Sunday in Scranton.

Two cases of varioloid at Skinner's Eddy are already reported, and there is reason to fear that the trouble may become widespread, as the man who first contracted the disease was not quarantined until he had visited nearly every business place in town.

Mrs. W. F. Streeter, of Benizette, Pa., is visiting friends in this section. She came east to attend the funeral of her brother, Fred, of Wilkes-Barre.

An east bound freight train struck a broken car directly opposite this station Sunday and sixteen cars were derailed. The track was blocked for some time, and the wrecking crews at Coxtan and Towanda were both called into requisition.

ARCHBALD.

Mrs. Hugh Marley, an aged resident of this borough, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Coolican, of North Main street, on Sunday morning. She had been ailing for some time, but it was not generally known that her illness was of an alarming nature, and the announcement of her death was received with surprise and regret. Mrs. Marley was among the oldest residents of this borough, having come here with her husband more than forty years ago. She was the mother of Mrs. James Coolican, Mrs. James Gligallion, and Mrs. John Carroll, of this borough, and Mrs. T. F. McDonough and Mrs. M. J. Walsh, of Scranton. Her funeral takes place at 10 o'clock this morning. A high mass of requiem will be sung in St. Thomas' church. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Marley was widely known and universally esteemed. She was possessed of a kind and sympathetic nature, was faithful in the discharge of her religious duties, and was in every way a model of uprightness. Her death will be deplored by all who came in contact with her during her long and well-spent life.

Miss Mary Quinlan, one of the leading teachers of our public schools, was received as a nun into the convent of the Immaculate Heart, at Carbonado, on Sunday afternoon. Few outside of Miss Quinlan's relatives knew of her intentions until a day or two before her departure, and this announcement of her retreat will be to many in the borough a surprise. For several years Miss Quinlan had charge of the primary department in the graded school building, and it is but just to her to say that her conduct of that department has never been surpassed. Her work was always marked by a conscientious devotion to duty and tireless zeal and energy. Being possessed of these qualities to an extraordinary degree, there can be no doubt whatever of her success in her new vocation. She leaves the world with the good will and best wishes of all who knew her. The pupils of the primary schools called on her to bid her good-bye on Saturday. She was accompanied to the convent by her brother, Rev. P. F. Quinlan, of Scranton.

Word was received here yesterday that George Hamlin, at one time a resident of this borough, was killed in a railroad accident near Syracuse on Saturday. Mr. Hamlin was married to Miss Georgiana Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Myers, of Main street. W. H. Myers has gone to Syracuse to make arrangements for Mr. Hamlin's funeral.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday morning the Riverside hotel, on the plank road, in the southern end of the town, was destroyed by fire. An alarm was sounded at 4:30 o'clock, to which Archbald and Peckville hose companies responded. The fire had gained considerable headway, for the hydrants near the hotel not being in fit condition, the firemen were practically helpless. Nothing was saved. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $7,000. The fire is said to have been caused by a defective furnace flue. It was stated during the morning that a man had been burned to death in the building, but, fortunately, this proved untrue.

ODD AND END

shall eclipse all previous efforts. Past experience has taught us that it is a "good thing," and has also suggested a means of "pushing it along" to the mutual benefit of the public and ourselves. We find by a careful review of the transactions of the past year that we have sold more goods at sacrifice prices than ever before. This fact explains another of greater importance to us, namely: The space formerly occupied by so-called to gratify your desire, and get a good substantial article at the price you can afford: A fancy rocker or two will live up to that old parlor suite wonderfully, and the ones we shall include in this sale are worthy a better name than but our conscience tells us "they are the products of '94," so into the sale they go.

Lace curtains, portieres, shades, carpets and remnants of carpets must all be weeded out. A strip of carpet at a trifling cost will save you dollars in preserving carpets that are yet good, and a great many of the remnants will cover the whole floor of that small room on which you have so long wanted a carpet, and cost no more than straw matting. We feel sure that the numerous wonderful bargains we shall offer will reward a careful examination.

(which were perhaps finished a little too dark, or a little too light, or possibly slightly damaged), has abundantly paid for the amount lost on the original article. Hence the resolve that every article in our vast establishment not strictly up to date must make room for fresh, new, spring goods.
