

EIGHT PAGES--56 COLUMNS.

SCRANTON, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 10, 1895.

TWO CENTS A COPY.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES

Busiest Day Ever Known at the Harrisburg Capitol.

LACKAWANNA WELL PLACED

The Hustling Young Members from This Vicinity Are Chosen for Important Work--Representatives Farr, Connel and O'Malley Recognized.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Harrisburg, Jan. 9.--Today's session of the house was one of the busiest ever known. In addition to the announcement of the committees, a whole raft of bills accumulated during recess, was started on its voyage through the legislative breakers and shoals.

The Lackawanna members were placed as follows: Farr, chairman of education, and member of each of the following committees: City passenger railways, labor and industry, legislative apportionment and printing; Connel, constitutional reform, federal relations, public buildings and ways and means; Grover, banks, iron and coal, legislative apportionment and military; and O'Malley, geological surveys, judiciary general, mines and mining and printing.

Other Committee Assignments. Tiffany of Wyoming goes on the legislative apportionment, pensions, public health and rearmament and reform committees; Wilson of Carbon on banks, libraries, manufactures and mines and mining; Schwartz of Monroe on agriculture, commerce, education, iron and coal, geological survey, and Kipp of Pike on educational affairs, judiciary general, legislative apportionment municipal corporations, public buildings and rearmament and reform.

Curtis of Wayne, in addition to his chairmanship, goes on the agriculture, counties and townships, insurance and public health committees, while Underwood serves on fish and game, geological survey, labor and industry, and military. Both the Susquehanna members go on the committee on education, and on the geological survey committee, but Millard serves on the agriculture and vice and immorality committees, while his colleague, Lynus W. Moore, goes on the legislative apportionment and library committees.

Luzerne and Bradford Places. Greiner of Luzerne will initiate his legislative career as a member of the following committees: Federal relations, iron and coal, labor and industry and mines and mining, Rutledge, of the Fifth district, also a new member, will serve on city passenger railways, legislative apportionment, pensions, public health and rearmament, iron and coal, and on the Third, the Sixth, will go on the congressional apportionment, corporations, insurance, iron and coal, and on the railroad committees. Harvey, of the Second, goes on the agriculture, corporations, education, library, and municipal corporations committees. Reese, of the Third, is a member of these committees: Election, geological surveys, labor and industry, legislative apportionment, iron and coal, mines and mining; and Jeffrey, in addition to his chairmanship, on these committees: Appropriations, iron and coal, judicial apportionment, and vice and immorality.

The Bradford members fared as follows: Kinser, on appropriations, city passenger railways, geological survey, labor and industry and vice and immorality; Newman, in addition to his chairmanship, on fish and game, judiciary local, libraries, manufactures and public buildings; and Frank N. Moore, on the committee to compare bills, rearmament and reform, vice and immorality, and ways and means. The appointments are generally commended as strong, although it is pointed out that on mines and mining a stronger representation could have been secured. The omission of Lackawanna representation from the appropriations, corporations and railroad committees was also noticed by the Lackawanna delegation. A coincidence which causes merriment among the Scranton members is the presence of two Luzerne members on the vice and immorality committee, which has no Lackawanna representative. The appointment of Representative O'Malley to the judiciary general committee is regarded by his friends as a high compliment inasmuch as only the best lawyers, as a rule, are admitted to this committee, assignments to which are much sought after.

"Slide" McGinnis, the ex-base ball umpire, through the influence of Senator Vaughan, has just been notified of his appointment to a place in the pasting and folding department of the senate.

Things Get Down to Business. House went with a rush in the house at tonight's session, as soon as the committee appointments were out of the way. Nearly a hundred bills were introduced in as many minutes. John R. Farr came to the front smilingly with his compulsory education bill; Mr. Underwood, of Wayne, introduced a bill to pay for the printing and distribution of the forestry commission's report, and Mr. Moore, of Bradford, three bills, one to provide for the erection of line fences, one to prevent the spread of tuberculosis among domestic animals and one to prohibit buying, selling or exporting certain kinds of game and fish. The senate was in session only forty-five minutes, and did nothing except to receive bills. Among the more important house bills introduced were these by: Mr. McDonald, Allegheny--Making an appropriation of $30,000 to the Western

TARRED AND FEATHERED.

Religious Differences Give Rise to a Disgraceful Affair in Indiana.

By the United Press. Evansville, Ind., Jan. 9.--Word has been received that Connelton, in Perry county, is disturbed over a whitecapping that occurred there last Sunday night. The trouble grew out of the attentions of a farmer named Talgop to Maggie O'Neill, the daughter of a farmer living near Talgop's farm.

Talgop is a Protestant and O'Neill a Catholic, and the difference in religion was a decided objection to the union in the eyes of O'Neill. He objected to the young folks keeping company and ordered Talgop to stay away from his farm, but the latter failed to heed the warning.

LUMBER DEALERS MEET.

Steps Looking to Important Legislation Are Taken by State Association.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 9.--The State Lumber Dealers' association met in this city yesterday at the board of trade rooms and decided to appoint a committee to cooperate with a Philadelphia committee in the formation of an insurance association for the benefit of lumbermen. The claim was made that the premiums charged by the present companies are exorbitant. A bill was drafted to be presented to the legislature to give the privilege of a lien under existing laws a lumberman supplying timber for construction has no redress through a lien. The semi-annual meeting will be held at Scranton in July.

S. H. Sturtevant, of Wilkes-Barre, was chosen president of the association; O. M. Brandow, of Wilkes-Barre, vice president; T. J. Snowden, Scranton, secretary and treasurer; S. H. Keck, Allentown; George F. Lantz, Reading; W. M. James Steelton; J. W. Craig, Chambersburg; W. Z. Zener, Lancaster; and M. Willard, Philadelphia, directors.

ARCHIE GORDON DEAD.

He Was a Brilliant Newspaper Man and Dramatist.

By the United Press. Stapleton, S. I., Jan. 9.--Archie Gordon, the well-known newspaper man and dramatic critic, died at his home on Hatfield place, Port Richmond, this morning. Mr. Gordon had been suffering from Bright's disease for the past two years, and about a month ago he was stricken with paralysis. He had been barely clinging to life ever since.

Archie Gordon was of English and Scotch parentage, and was born in Ceylon, India, forty-six years ago. When he was a boy he came to America and took up journalism. He has been connected with the Chicago Tribune, the New York World, the New York Sun, the New York Herald, the Brooklyn Eagle and at the time of his death was connected with the Times. He was a successful newspaper dramatist. His play, "Trixie," which he wrote for Maggie Mitchell, brought money and fame to both Mr. Gordon and Miss Mitchell. Three years ago "The Ugly Ducklings" was presented by Mrs. Leslie Carter at the Broadway theatre. "Is Marriage a Failure," his comedy, "Is Marriage a Failure," his Robson, had a very successful run.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED.

Interesting Evidence Brought Out at Yesterday's Hearing.

By the United Press. Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 9.--Notwithstanding the victory of Steward Hartman in the almshouse appointment, the county auditors today resumed their investigation into the almshouse scandal. Grant Goodman, of the wholesale firm of Goodman Bros., of Philadelphia, Pottsville and Mahanoy City, testified that during 1894 boxes of oranges and apples and barrels of sweet potatoes were purchased for the almshouse. Peaches at $1.50 a basket were delivered at Poor Director Day's house and were paid for by an order from the almshouse on the county treasurer.

QUIET AT ST. JOHNS.

Yesterday's Rioters Under Arrest Are Said to Be Hard Characters.

By the United Press. St. Johns, N. F., Jan. 9.--The city is quiet today. No further disturbance has occurred, although a mob surrounded the court where the arrested rioters were remanded for a further hearing. Upon investigation it is found that only one of the four prisoners is a native of St. Johns, and is a boy. The others belong to a fishing settlement on Trinity Bay, and are said to be hard characters. They will be severely dealt with, as it is now believed that their original intention was to loot the savings bank.

DEATH OF A MARKSMAN.

Thomas Albert, of Sixteenth Regiment, Found with a Bullet in His Heart.

By the United Press. Bradford, Pa., Jan. 9.--Thomas Albert, a member of Company C, Sixteenth regiment, National Guard, Pennsylvania, was found this morning near the rifle range on Bennett brook with a bullet in his heart. It is not known whether it is an accident or not. Albert was one of the best marksmen in the National guard, and had a reputation throughout the state.

FLASHED FROM THE WIRES.

For a $5,000 shortage, due to gambling, ex-City Treasurer Dick, of Ellsworth, Tex., is under arrest.

In a fit of temper, Mrs. John Little, of Atkinson, N. H., drove her husband away and committed suicide. The third trial of the suit of W. R. Laidlaw, for $50,000 damages against Russell Sage, began in New York. After two months, A. L. Walsh, of St. Louis, confined for carrying burglars' tools, was connected with a $10,000 burglary, and confessed.

C. F. WARWICK NOMINATED

The Talented Solicitor Will Be Mayor of Philadelphia.

BOIES PENROSE TURNED DOWN

Enthusiasm of His Followers Failed to Hypnotize the Convention--Attorney Graham Creates an Uproar--Penrose Delegates Object.

By the United Press.

Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--City Solicitor Charles F. Warwick was this morning nominated for mayor of Philadelphia by the republican majority convention which met in Music Hall. The delegates were unusually uproarious, and the followers of State Senator Boies Penrose, who, at almost the last moment was given the go-by by the party leaders, stuck to him to the end. So pronounced were the Penrose people, who comprised about one-third of the delegates, that they refused to make the nomination of Mr. Warwick unanimous. The vote was: Warwick, 684; Penrose, 233; ex-City Treasurer George D. McCreary, 1.

VENGEANCE OF A HUSBAND

Attacks an Insurance Agent with Brass Knuckles.

M'PHERSON'S NARROW ESCAPE

Samuel V. Newell Travels Two Thousand Miles for the Purpose of Thrashing the Destroyer of His Domestic Happiness--No Arrests Made.

By the United Press.

Norristown, Pa., Jan. 9.--Samuel V. Newell, of Central City, Col., ex-senator from that state, made an assault with brass knuckles on E. S. McPherson, agent for the Northwestern Life Insurance company, located here, with their main office at Milwaukee, this afternoon. Newell claims that McPherson has been criminally intimate with his wife. McPherson has been corresponding with Mrs. S. McPherson, the past two years. He formerly resided at Central City and was befriended by Newell, who is a well known politician. The latter managed to get hold of several letters and discovered the intimacy that existed between the two.

IMPRISED IN A MINE.

Two Miners Caught in a Breast at Pottsville--Rescue Party Working Heroically for Their Release.

By the United Press.

Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 9.--A heavy fall of coal in Richardson colliery at Glen Carbon last evening imprisoned two miners, Charles Dietzel and Adam Burk, in one of the breasts. About twenty-five men worked vigorously all night and removed about 1,000 tons of coal, but the unfortunate men have not yet been reached. This morning the rescuers were relieved by a fresh relay of workers. The voice of one of the imprisoned men could be heard at times during the night. It is believed one of the men is crushed beneath the mass of coal and is dead. The survivor, it was believed this morning, is Dietzel, although his voice was not discernible.

CHARGES OF GROSS CRUELTY.

Strong Accusations Made Against George McDonald by His Wife.

By the United Press.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 9.--The most sensational divorce case that Racine county has had for many years has been instituted by Mrs. George McDonald, wife of a wealthy man of Burlington. In her complaint she alleges that she had suffered wrongs at the hands of her husband for twenty years past. She said that he horsewhipped her when she was sick in bed, beat her because she allowed her little children to say their prayers, burned her Bible and clothes so that she could not attend church, pounded her until she was black and blue, threw her out of bed when she was sick. She said that was not half the truth and she did not want to tell the rest. The case will be tried at the next term of circuit court.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM.

The Johnsbury Bank Clerk's Death May Be Murder.

By the United Press.

Johnsbury, Pa., Jan. 9.--On Nov. 23, 1894, Henry Peoples, a clerk in the Johnsbury bank, was found dead in his room. It was supposed at the time that he had committed suicide, although no reason could be assigned for such an act. People did not entirely believe the story of the suicide, and hinted at murder.

FRICK MAY BE BLACKBAILED.

Possibility That Carnegie's Manager Cannot Go Into the Union League.

By the United Press.

New York, Jan. 9.--The proposal of Henry C. Frick, Mr. Carnegie's manager, for membership in the Union League club, is causing some stir in the club, and it was rumored today that when he comes up for election next Thursday night an effort will be made to blackball him.

NO HOPE OF FINDING LENZ.

British Consul at Tabriz Can Get No Trace of the Cypriot.

By the United Press.

East Liverpool, O., Jan. 9.--J. J. Perdigon, of this city, has received a long letter from Joseph Tatarian, president of the Imperial Bank of Persia, at Tabriz, under date of Nov. 24, saying that an investigation along the entire route taken by Bicyclist Frank Lenz, through Persia and Turkey, fails to reveal any clue to his whereabouts. A letter from Cecil G. Wood, consul at Tabriz, stated that he has given up all hope of finding Lenz, although he will continue the investigation.

ONE MORE BODY FOUND.

The Ninth Recovered from the Delavan House Ruins.

By the United Press.

Albany, Jan. 9.--One more body, the skeleton of which is almost complete, was found in Delavan House ruins this morning. At the spot where the three bodies, two of which were discovered last night, were taken from two watches, with chains attached, and a pair of opera glasses, were recovered this morning. One of the bodies was a gold one with the initials "S. D. M."

Always Looks at the Wrong Door.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN

The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS

Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published.

FINLEY'S SPECIALS IN DRESS GOODS CLOSING PRICES. See in Show Window SUITS AT $3.25 $4.95 $ 5.50 5.75 7.75 7.85 9.50 9.90 10.00 ALL Extraordinary Value And No Duplicates. FINLEY'S 610 and 612 Lackawanna Ave. H. A. KINGSBURY AGENT FOR CHAS. A. SCHIEREN & CO.'S LEATHER BELTING THE VERY BEST. 813 SPRUCE ST., SCRANTON, PA. LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES. HONEST SHOES.

MR. QUAY ON CORPORATIONS Thinks Names and Salaries of Employees Should Be Published. REFERENCE TO DAVID MARTIN The Senator from Pennsylvania Believes That Servants of Corporations Should Wear the Dollar Mark Upon Their Foreheads. By the United Press. Washington, Jan. 9.--In connection with the report of the urgent deficiency bill in the senate today an inquiry was made by Mr. Quay whether the bill contained any provision providing for the publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in connection with the income tax. He was informed by Mr. Cockrell that there was no change or amendment to that effect recommended by the committee on appropriations. "Would it not be well," said Mr. Quay, "to compel a publication of the names and salaries of corporation employes in the reports made under the income tax? A gentleman who is very high in regard to this respect in the city of Philadelphia (a Republican national committee man) stated within the last thirty-six hours to a member of the other house and to a judicial officer of the city of Philadelphia as a reason why he could not preserve pledged faith in regard to an important nomination there, that he was under a heavy salary from a great corporation, and was compelled to do what that corporation wished, and not what he himself desired and felt he ought to do. The amendment which I suggest is pertinent simply in this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men fairly and openly with the dollar mark of the corporation upon their foreheads." Mr. Martin Retieced. Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--The Republican national committee man to whom Mr. Quay referred in the senate today said in regard to this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men fairly and openly with the dollar mark of the corporation upon their foreheads." Mr. Martin Retieced. Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--The Republican national committee man to whom Mr. Quay referred in the senate today said in regard to this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men fairly and openly with the dollar mark of the corporation upon their foreheads." Mr. Martin Retieced. Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--The Republican national committee man to whom Mr. Quay referred in the senate today said in regard to this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men fairly and openly with the dollar mark of the corporation upon their foreheads." Mr. Martin Retieced. Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--The Republican national committee man to whom Mr. Quay referred in the senate today said in regard to this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men fairly and openly with the dollar mark of the corporation upon their foreheads." Mr. Martin Retieced. Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--The Republican national committee man to whom Mr. Quay referred in the senate today said in regard to this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men fairly and openly with the dollar mark of the corporation upon their foreheads." Mr. Martin Retieced. Philadelphia, Jan. 9.--The Republican national committee man to whom Mr. Quay referred in the senate today said in regard to this respect that men in such a position, with high power for good or evil, ought not to be permitted to masquerade as acting in the interest of the public or in the interest of any party, when in reality they are serving these great corporations. They ought to go about and meet their fellow men