Doubt-Meeting on Jan. 15.

The officers of the Scranton Base Ball association have come to the conclusion that they will not hear from Manager Hanlon until after the meeting of the State league at Pottsville on Jan. 15. There is a strong belief in base ball circles that the state organization will not weather that meeting, and in that event Mr. Hanlon will manage the Scranton club. H. H. Diddlebock has not yet given up the State league. He still believes himself the central figure notwithstanding what occurred a few months ago when Hanlon was elected president, secretary and treasurer, and Diddlebock thrown out in the cold. The latter issued a call for a meeting of the State league at the Hotel Hanover in Philadelphia Monday, but only B. F. Zerr, of Reading, responded, and the proposed meeting had to be aban-About the same time John J. Hanlon, of Hazleton; William Sharzig, of Philadelphia; Martin Swift, of Carbondale; John Smith, of Pottsville, and John Milligan, of Allentown, held a conference at the Windsor House, just around the corner from the Hotel Hanover. Hanlon signed Sharzig to manage the Hazleton team, which was about the only business transacted.

The Outlook Is Bright. After the conference was over Hanlon, so the Philadelphia Record says, declared that the outlook for the com-ing season was very bright; that there would be ten clubs in the State league, and that each would put up a guarantee of $500. The league has secured protection under the national agreement. Further business of the league was postponed until Jan. 15, on which date meeting is scheduled to take place at Pottsville.

It is expected that here will be a big hitch when it comes to putting up the $500 guarantee. Very few of the clubs that are included in the State league troduce a programme of interesting and funny features. Lew Dockstader, circuit will be willing to post that sum as an earnest of their desire to remain in the league during the season. It is on this guarantee rock that the organization may split.

President W. L. Betts, of the local ssociation, yesterday received a letter from Walter Burnham, of Somerville, Mass., who wants to manage the Scranton club. He has had an extended experience as manager of aggregations of diamond stars. Peter Sweeney, of San Francisco, who played with Binghamton last season until that club disentitled "Everybody's Friend," and is by Stirling Coyne. Felix Featherly was intended to be the leading characbanded and finished the season with Alientown, has sent his ultimatum to Mr. Betts. He will play at second or short for $182.50 per month, and is also to receive transportation from 'Frisco to Scranton. Peter will not be with us.

Coyne re-wrote the play and developed the character, and Mr. Clarke captured The Players Reserved The Players Reserved. Clark, of last season's Hazleton club is the only man who has yet signed a Scranton contract. He will cover first base. The men reserved are Johnson, center field; Delaney and Quarles, pitchers; Patchen and Rogers, catchers; Whitehead, third base. There is every reason to believe that these men will all wear Scranton uniforms next season although a National league club is said to be casting covetous eyes on Delaney and Whitehead. An effort is being made to secure Nichols, formerly of Louisville, for the third pitcher, and Pickett, of last season's Troy club, will probably play second base and captain the club. Samuel Mills, of last season's Indianapolis club, and C. M. Smith, who played with Pittsburg, Louisville, and other teams, are also applicants for the position. Nothing definite has been deelded upon with regard to short stop left and right field.

President Betts says that the club will have a manager within ten days and then the positions will be at once
