Yesterday morning a horse owned by A. D. Blackington, of this borough, upset a cutter at the corner of Washington and Spruce streets, Scranton, and jumped over the railing around the Mears site. Officers Coleman and Mohr prevented the horse from running farther.

The funeral of Peter Burschel will be held at 2401 North Main avenue, Scranton, Friday, Jan. 11, at 2 o'clock. Interment in Dunmore cemetery. Mr. Burschel was aged 78 years. He had lived in Dunmore nearly all his life. He was formerly connected with large business enterprises in this town.

WAWERLY. Rev. S. S. Kennedy is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

William D. Spencer is a visitor to his sister, Mrs. Henry Chambers, at Buffalo, N. Y.

Mailcarrier Thomas C. Kenney is convalescing after a very severe attack of illness.

The greatest religious revival ever held here is going on at the present time. Rev. A. Bergen Browe, of the Baptist church, in conjunction with Rev. F. H. Person, of the Methodist Episcopal church, secured the services of the Rev. C. C. Luther, who is known far and wide as one of the ablest pulpits orators, and is now preaching to very large congregations every night.

A public installation of the newly elected officers of George Fell post, No. 367, Grand Army of the Republic, took place last Saturday night at M. W. Bliss' hall.

The Ladies' circle of George Fell post, No. 57, also had installation of officers last Saturday night. Mrs. Julia P. Shale, of Philadelphia, president of the circle of the department of Pennsylvania, assisted by Second Vice president Mrs. Charles Baker, of Honesdale, and Third Vice-president Mrs. M. D. Roche, of Scranton, performed the ceremonies and inspected the circle. After the installation the members and invited guests, to the number of 129, sat down to an elegant repast, and also enjoyed the following intellectual treat: A duet by Miss Ruth Perry and Helena Courtwright; recitation, "Battle of Gettysburg," May Courtwright; solo, "Long, Long, Weary Day," by Miss Blanche Kennedy; song, "Uncle Sam's Fiddle," by Cornelia Uriah Ridgeway, of Glenwood. A male quartette, led by Rev. C. C. Luther, rendered some fine songs at the installation and at the banquet. Rev. A. Bergen Browe delivered a very appropriate address for the occasion.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Mythic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by Matthews Bros., Druggists, Scranton.

ARCHBALD. The funeral of the late Mrs. Hugh Manley, who died last Sunday morning, took place on Tuesday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Collican, of North Main street. The remains rested in the parlor, where many of the friends of the deceased called to look upon her for the last time. At 10 o'clock the procession moved to St. Thomas' church, where a high mass of requiem was sung. The services, which were of a very impressive nature, were conducted by Rev. Dr. Lucas. At the close of the mass Rev. Dr. Lucas preached an effective sermon from the text, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." He spoke at length of the long and upright life of the deceased, and referred in fitting terms to the piety and earnestness that characterized her. She was devoted to her family, faithful to her religious duties and sought in a humble way to follow in the footsteps of her Divine Master. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were John McAnwick, John J. Barrett, James H. and P. J. Swift and Frank and James Gillespie, all except one, nephews of the deceased. The funeral which was one of the largest that has taken place here in a long time was attended by people from all parts of the valley, the deceased having been widely known.

Mrs. Gildea, wife of Justice of the Peace T. J. Gildea, is very ill.

Mrs. McLoughlin, of Hill street, mother of Frank McLoughlin and Mrs. John Naron, is dangerously ill.

The employees of the Delaware and Hudson company were paid yesterday.

Mrs. Patrick Lane, of Cemetery street, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

A regular session of the school board was held on Monday evening, all the members being present except Mr. Myers, who was unavoidably absent.

A large crowd had been attracted to the meeting because it was believed a successor to Miss Quinlan would be chosen. There were seven applications. Action was postponed to a later meeting.

HONESDALE.

A host of children enjoyed the festivities prepared for them in the Sunday school room of Grace church on Tuesday evening. At 6 o'clock the room was filled with the rollicking, laughing scholars. Tables in the center of the room were filled up with good things.

They were soon emptied, however, much to the satisfaction of the scholars. Shortly after 7 the scholars were formed in line and marched to the Opera house, where another treat was waiting. First to appear upon the stage was Homer Greene, who, in his charming way, announced the cantata, "Santa Claus on Time," and gave a delightful synopsis of the plot. The curtain arose and a band of young girls in red gowns and red hoods seemed to flutter down upon the stage, continually singing in their own entrancing ways. Mina Fraley and Sophie Russell were the soloists, in verse and song, and were ably assisted by several others of this gay troupe. It was Christmas eve and the children were waiting for Santa. Faith Holden, a little tot, sang her doll to sleep and fell asleep herself, when the fairies appeared.

Mina Fraley, in red, danced a pretty solo, and was followed by the other girls drawing a golden cart on which was seated the Fairy King, Harold Rowland.

This little troupe, in their gaudy garments, presented one of the prettiest pictures of the cantata. The king left his message from Santa on the lap of the sleeping child. Then all disappeared.

One of the catchy little parts was the marching upon the stage of small boys in appropriate costume representing the various trades, the butcher and baker and candle stick maker, the musician, in the personage of Paderewski (Genas Russell) the New York policeman, of the Lexow stamp, (Roland Schuman) the darkey waiter, (one boy), foot-black, blacksmith, etc.

The soldier boys, a well drilled troupe, executed pretty and correct movements without any prompting.

Two little waifs of the city, Yashti and Zola, (the Youngs sisters) sang a duet, and last, but not least, the real Santa Claus appeared and distributed his presents.

The antics of Koyno (William Heft) and the solo of his worthy assistant clown (Charles Truscott) were among the prominent and loudly applauded features.

The entertainment was as fine a one of its class as has ever been seen in Honesdale.

Much credit for his fine production is due to Mrs. T. J. Ham, Miss Antonette Ball, Miss Florence Ham, Mrs. G. M. Gemming and Mrs. H. T. Dolmetsch, who presided at the piano.

Mrs. E. M. Banks, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Gardner, returned home today.

PECKVILLE.

D. R. Bassell has moved his family here from New York state, in the home that he has purchased of Marshal Croft, on Maple street.

The Young People's society of the Methodist Episcopal church elected their officers last Monday evening, as follows: President, Miss Myra Oak; first vice-president, Mrs. C. C. White; second vice-president, Robert Lintern; third vice-president, Miss Alice Tutill; secretary, C. C. White; assistant secretary, Herbert Frear; treasurer, Herbert McCormick.

Miss E. E. Leach, of Providence, called on friends in town last Tuesday. John C. Craig died last Monday night at 12 o'clock of dropsy, aged 71 years. He has resided in this borough thirty-seven years. A wife and eight children survive him, Arthur, Mynor, Edward, Charles, Robert, Roy, Bessie, and Mrs. John W. Sampson, of Dickson. The funeral services will be held from his residence this afternoon at 2:30, and will be conducted by a former pastor, Rev. C. H. Fitzwilliams, of Shamokin. Interment will be made in Union cemetery.

Dr. J. W. Beck, has been appointed board of health doctor here.

Mrs. Charles Jenkins, who has been seriously ill, is speedily recovering.

Rev. Anna Shaw, of Philadelphia, will give a temperance lecture in the Methodist Episcopal church next Monday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance union. Admission free.

Mrs. A. E. Compton died at her home on Hickory street last Tuesday night, aged 20 years. A husband and two children are left to mourn her loss. The remains will be taken tomorrow morning to Madisonville for interment.

George, the 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, died yesterday of croup.

Mrs. Henry Rivenburg, of Clifford, is visiting at the home of Mrs. David E. Stearns.

Scarlet fever in a very malignant form is becoming almost epidemic in Peckville and the adjacent settlements. There are at present upwards of twenty cases.

Dr. Watson, whose condition has been thought critical, is showing slight signs of improvement, and hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

CARBONDALE.

Last evening occurred the installation of officers of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Yesterday morning the remains of the late W. Lewis were inaverted in Brookside cemetery. This was the second interment in the new ground.

William Loomis, of Scranton, spent last evening with relatives in this city.

Scott Whipple, formerly clerk in the old American House, has accepted a position at the Wall street hotel.

Born--Yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Powderly, a son.

The Women's Christian Temperance union will meet at the First Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon.

The city hospital was the recipient yesterday morning of a fine large invalid chair, the generous gift of Edward Clarkson.

Miss Jeanette McMillan, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, of Church street, returned to her duties in New York city yesterday morning.

FOREST CITY.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector James C. Rooney, of West Auburn, was in this place on his official visit yesterday.

Miss Lena Bennett has returned from a week's visit with her parents at Clifford.

Frank, the 7-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Taylor, was buried yesterday in the Hillside cemetery. Es- Chief-of-Police Thomas D. Jones and wife and son, Albert E., of Plymouth, parents of Mrs. Taylor, were present.

Mrs. Alfred Williams, of Plymouth, a sister of Mrs. Taylor, was also present.

The poisoning case which was published in Tuesday's Tribune, in which Mrs. Kossman was the principal, will have to be tried in Wayne county. Upon investigation it was proved that Kossman's home is just across the Wayne county side. Officer Jones was sent to Montrose to secure the release of the fair prisoner. This was accomplished and the officer with his charge arrived in Forest City Tuesday evening.

Mr. Kossman was waiting at the station to forgive his wife and to let the past be forgotten. Mrs. Kossman was sorry for her action and promised never to attempt to take his life again and to be a faithful and loving better half.

Now all dwell in harmony and peace. The "Police Inspector" will be the attraction at the Opera house next Saturday evening.

Nerves and Blood

Strengthened and Purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Scrofula Humor and Distress in the Stomach Cured.

The following testimonial comes from Mr. D. Sterling Mitzel of Wintertown, Pa., who conducts a printing office and collecting agency and is the youngest justice of the peace in the state: "C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful health-restorer, nerve strengthener and blood purifier. For the last four or five years I have been troubled with humor and scrofula in the blood, breaking out all over my body, which caused itching and kept me from rest at night. I was also, at the same time, troubled with a Sour Stomach, which was anything but pleasant. I could not even take a swallow of water but what I suffered from distress and acidity. I did not enjoy a good meal until after I commenced to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. I could see the good effects after the first few doses. I continued to use the medicine until now I have taken five bottles and feel entirely cured." D. STERLING MITZEL, Justice of Peace, Wintertown, Pa.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the liver and bowels. 25c.
