Large Number Attended the Evangelistic Services Which Were Conducted in the First Welsh Baptist Church-Officers of Benevolent Union Installed.

Despite the rainy weather last even ing a large number attended the evan-gelistic services which were conducted in the First Welsh Baptist church. The singing was well rendered and many prayers were offered. Rev. W. S. Jones the pastor, preached, choosing for his subject "Missions, Foreign and Home." He referred to the conversion of the Jews, Mahammedans and heathens, and urged that missions be better supported in the churches. The meeting was a very interesting one.

Judge Archbald and Stenographer H. H. Coston returned to the city yesterday afterioon. At a previous meeting of the judges a motion was made to quash the pro-

This point was argued and 1.00 a decision was made that the petition was sufficient. 1.00 The contestant and respondent were directed to file bills of particulars be-12e fore March 4, when the judges will decting of the Board of Trade Tonight Stormy Session of the Lackawanna Township Conferrees-Other Notes. The South Side board of trade will neet this evening and there is promised an interesting session. The committee on streets and highway improvements will make a report and it is understood that the report will recommend to South Side councilmen the necessity of keeping the streets in better repair and influence legislation for the construcion of a sewer system. The committee on manufactures has some interesting suggestions to make concerning the se curing of new industries for the South What will be apt to claim the major portion of the members' attention will be the subject of the consolidation of the different boards of the city. In regard to the carpet factory it seems that there is every possibility that the peo-ple behind it are very anxious to locate in the South Side, and all they ask is a little encouragement. There will be much business done because no meeting has been held in about four months and matters of interest have been allowed to accumulate.

Scranton Athletic Club Officers.

There was a very interesting meet-ing of the Scranton Athletic club held its rooms in Germania hall last night. Officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year, and for president of the club a close battle was waged for the honor between Charles G. Rosar, of Cedar avenue, and Fred C. Erhardt. Rosar won by the score of 55 to 0 votes. For the office of treasurer the fight was between Common Councilman Robert Robinson, of the Eleventh ward, and William Koch, proprietor of the Wide Awake Cigar store, Mr. Robinson was elected by the vote of 54 to 42 The balloting was spirited and, although the respective friends of the candidates did all in their power to elect their ohoice, still, when the smoke cleared away, there was no ill-feeling or bitterness, and the club starts out under bright auspices for a successful year. A list of the new officers is as follows: President, Charles G. Rosar; vice-president, Albert F. Westpfahl; treasurer, Councilman Robert Robinson; recording secretary, Emil Bonn; financial secretary, Peter Neuls; captain, George Wirth; trustee, H. J. Spruks; physical director, P. J. Murphy

Officers Apportioned. A meeting of the Democratic confer es of Lackawanna township was held last night at John J. Coyne's hall, Minooka. MASTER PLUMBERS UNITE

Plumbing Merchants of Scranton Organized Last Night.

OFFICERS WHO WERE ELECTED The Object of the Association Is the Social and Business Welfare of the Members and Also for the Purpose of Advancing Sanitary Plumbing. At a meeting last night in the rooms of the Builders' exchange in the Jermyn building, 421 Lackawanna avenue, an association of all the master plumbers of the city was organized and officers were elected to serve until next May, when a regular set of officers will be elected to serve for one year.

The purpose of the organization is mutual social benefit and business welfare of its members. Another and perhaps dominant impulse in bringing the plumbing merchants together in an organized way is to advance the standard of sanitary work. They believe that plumbing properly done is not less than a fine art and is not a trade, and by getting their heads together and learning the latest, newest and most improved methods in plumbing it will prove of valuable public interest.

> Idea Met with Favor. About a month ago the intention of bringing the master plumbers of Scranton together was first formed. When the subject became thoroughly understood, there was not a single master plumber in the city who did not favor such an organization. Scarcely a city of any importance in the union is without a master plumbers' organization There is a national association known is the National Association of Master Plumbers of the United States. Its of ficers are: President, John Mitchell, of New York; vice-president, L. B. Cross of Kansas City: financial and recording secretary, H. J. Patterson, of New York; and treasurer, William C. Goodwin, of Milwaukee, Wis. There are no salaried officers connected with either the national or local associations, but there are very strong sentiments of fraternal friendships. Officers Selected Last Night.

The officers of the Scranton associaion elected last night are: President, H. J. Gunster; vice-president, Thomas Mullen; secretary, John J. Gorman, treasurer, John J. Howley, The national association is made up of about 15,000 master plumbers of the United States, and there are branches of it in thirty-six states of the union.

The movement was fanned into being in this city by the active interest of James F. Traynor, president of the association of Wilmington, Del. He came to Scranton on Wednesday and circu lated among the plumbing merchants. They were all enthusiastically in favor of organizing and every man who had not a pressing business engagement promised to attend the meeting last night. There were only a few who did not attend, but they were there in sentiment. William Stephens, a prominent member of the Wilkes-Barre assoclation was also present and with Mr Traynor explained the purposes of the ssociation fully.

The next meeting of the association will be held at the call of the secretary. The national convention will be held at Philadelphia some time in June.

'rom Pearson's Weekly. Every few weeks someone announces nimself as the victim of the 1,000,000 ostage stamp hoax. It is firmly beleved by many people that if 1,000,000 stamps are collected and forwarded to omeone a bed will be provided for an it valid foov in some hospital, or a home for an orphan will be secured, or large amount of money will be paid. Churches have been the special victims, and there is hardly a city in England, the United States, Australia, India, or any other country that has not had several church members, begging, borrowing and helping themselves to postage stamps in order to make a million that will go to clothe and feed some orphan.

The swindle originated in the brain of a postage stamp collector at Stettin, Germany. He desired to get a vast collection to sort out and sell again, and hit upon this plan to set the whole civilized world at work for him gratis.

LARGEST OF MONOLITHS.

It Was Recently Placed in Position at West Point. The largest monolith ever quarried and finished in this country has recently een put in position at West Point, where it is erected to the memory of the regular soldiers who perished in the rebellon. The main shaft is a single piece of white granite, 41% feet long, i feet 6 inches diameter at the base and 5 feet 2½ inches diameter at the top, and weighing 184,000 pounds. It was pollshed at the quarry at Stony Creek, Conn., and was taken from there to the site at West Point on two eight-wheeled platform cars, each 38 feet 6 inche

The manner in which the shaft was transported over temporary tracks and finally erected on the pedestal prepared for it is full of interest. To avoid danger of the stone breaking by its own weight, it was crated for shipment in four 14-inch square timbers, which were trussed in pairs, to form essentially vertical Howe trusses.

people by announcing that an orphan would be cared for in the Syrian Orphan home for every 1,000,000 stamps sent to him

This worked well, and the next dodge vas the starting of a mythical mission in China the holy sisters of which were said to have agreed for every 1,000,000 stamps sent to them to save from the jaws of the crocodiles of the Yellow river at least one Chinese baby, and then educate and Christianize it.

The stamps were to be sent, not to Jerusalem or China, but to Munich or Stettin. The last claim on the sympathy of the world that has been made by this German is that for 1.000,000 stamps a home for an old lady or an old gentleman will be provided in one of the new homes-one in London, an other in New York and a third in Cincinnati.

For 500,000 stamps a bed will be endowed in a hospital, and for 100,000 a home will be found for an orphan for one year. It is estimated that the Stettin man has collected over 100,000,000 stamps in the United Kingdom alone. It is a clever dodge to get something for nothing.
