ECONOMY'S ODD AND END

AND REMNANT SALE

HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY to gratify your desire, and get a good substantial article at the price you can afford. A fancy rocker or two will live up to that old parlor suite wonderfully, and the ones we shall include in this sale are worthy a better name than shall eclipse all previous efforts. Past experience has taught us that it is a "good thing," and has also suggested a means of "pushing it along" to the mutual benefit of the public and ourselves. We find by a careful review of the transactions of the past year that we have sold more goods at sacrifice prices than ever before. This fact explains another of greater importance to us, namely: "The space formerly occupied by so-called ODDS AND ENDS (which were perhaps finished a little too dark, or a little too light, or possibly slightly damaged), has abundantly paid for the amount lost on the original article. Hence the resolve that every article in our vast establishment not strictly up to date must make room for fresh, new, spring goods. You have been thinking you would like a new sideboard or perchance a hall rack; you do not want a cheap one, and feel that you cannot afford a good one.
