NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

The ice has moved out of the river and the probabilities of a dangerous ice jam this season are small. The court sitting upon the judicial contest at Laporte adjourned until March 4, after directing the plaintiffs in the case to prepare specifications of charges. In the original complaint it was alleged that illegal votes had been cast in nearly every precinct in the district. It will be in order now for the complainants to specify the nature of the irregularities.

Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend, of Scranton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kresky yesterday. The report of the superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school for the year 1894 shows a total enrollment of 385 names. The average attendance was 193, and the collections were $1,100. The school is self-supporting in every way, adds a new book to the library each Sunday in the year, and last year gave $170.20 to missions. S. Judson Stark is the efficient superintendent, and to him, aided by an interested corps of able teachers, is the success of the school due.

Judge E. M. Dunham will make his debut on Monday by assuming his position on the bench at court here. His office at the court house has been fitted up with new furniture, carpets, etc. The third arrest in the Waterman murder case was made by Detective W. H. Richmond at an early hour yesterday morning, when he brought in Burton Pratt, of Nicholson, one of Waterman's companions on the night of the murder. Pratt was housed in jail and will be given a hearing before Judge Kutz at 3 p. m. today.

Excelsior Charles S. Knapp, of Skinner's Eddy, was in town yesterday. He reports the smallpox scare, as nearly abated up there, as the effectual quarantining of the patient prevented its spread. On complaint of Philip Marks, a clothing dealer, Detective W. H. Richmond was arrested yesterday in the charge of passing worthless checks. Richmond had frequently purchased clothing at the store and given much larger checks than his purchases amounted to, receiving the balance in cash. The checks were always honored at the Pittston bank, upon which they were drawn, and hence his credit was good. When word was returned from the bank that the last check sent in was protested, Mr. Marks sought out the young man and extracted a promise from him that he would fix it up. Failing to do so, however, he was arrested. It is not believed that he intended it as a swindle, as it is intimated that he had been drawing upon his wife's funds, who suddenly cut off the stream without his knowledge.

Hon. Nelson Lee is reported no better, and his recovery is a matter of serious question. Several young ladies are canvassing the town with the hope of disposing of tickets enough to warrant a course of university extension lectures. It is supposed to arrange with Homer B. Sprague, of Columbia college, formerly president of Cornell university, to deliver a series of lectures on Shakespeare some time in February, and the price of course tickets is $1.50.

AVOCA. Preaching in Langcliffe Presbyterian church tomorrow at 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2 p. m.; Junior Endeavor society at 3 p. m.; Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 6.15 p. m.; preaching at 7 p. m. The Citizens' caucus held in Emmett hall on Wednesday night, was largely attended. Michael Whalen was chosen chairman; L. J. Baxter, secretary; John Conboy and Edward Gibbons, Jr., clerks; J. J. Dougherty and Andrew O'Malley, tellers. The following nominations were made: Burgess, Patrick Boylan; councilmen, L. E. O'Brien and M. P. Noon; school directors, Edward Gibbons, Sr., and John Moran; high constable, A. B. Curley; constable, Edward Murphy; assessor, M. J. Ryan; judges of election, north district, Michael McAndrew, south district, Thomas McHugh; inspectors, north district, William O'Malley, south district, James Ryan; register assessor, north district, Anthony Haley, south district, James Clifford. Mrs. Frank Shales, who has been spending several days with her parents at Duryea, returned home yesterday.

NEW MILFORD. The "poverty dance" at the opera house last evening, under the management of Professor Hanrahan, of Binghamton, was an enjoyable event. About sixty couples participated, and the costumes worn by many of them will be "kept in stock" to ornament the cornfields early in the springtime. Prizes were given to Miss Cecelia Boyle and Master Charles Brown for the superior styles of "dilapidatedness" displayed in their wardrobes. Many other suits were ideals of picturesqueness personified, but lack of writing fluid prevents our detailed panorama. It was a great surprise to us to see the great change in the modus operandi of terpsichorean since our juvenile days, when we used to hog it down on the corner and swing and hug our "honey" till she had to go outside to let her lungs refill. But now everybody was as graceful with their little skips and kicks as the typical fauns of yore, having completely annihilated the beloved little jig of our boyhood days. But with all the improvement in grace, time, and variety of dance, for the life of us we could not discover the slightest advancement in the mode of squeezing. And we were glad of it. The old way still has a warm corner in our ancient anatomy which the corduroy road of time ever keeps in view, and we object to any change. When the great clock in the church tower tolled it was midnight, and our appetite was aroused, the dancing was discontinued and the auctioneered climbed the stage and commenced the sale of eggs. Of course we thought this was a queer bill of fare for a dance, but the other menu better, and bid them in at the rate of 40 cents per egg. Later on we found out that the young ladies names were marked on the variety of hen fruit, and the young man who was lucky of unlicky enough to get an egg with a name on it. It had the privilege of taking the afore-said young lady to lunch. It seemed an extraordinary undertaking to get a "feller" to shell out, so we donned our outdoor paraphernalia and shuffled home, where the bill of fare, never fluctuates and the diners never get chronic dyspepsia from gormandizing beyond the dictations of nature. Edward Phinney, of Pittston, formerly of this place, is seriously ill. Leo DeWitt is on the sick list. Jerome DeWitt, of Binghamton, is in town. The sleighing is vamoosing. Union prayer meetings are being held nightly this week in the various churches. It is now definitely stated that New Milford has the most dilapidated apology for a pot on the hills of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western. Jackson people are going to have a "bean bake" next Wednesday evening at Robert's hall, that place. The Boston people who are expected to start business in the vacant tannery, at this place, are booked to be here next week. Samuel Vail, of Havana, N. Y., was calling on friends in town this week. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western pay day yesterday. Myron French post, No. 512, will hold its annual camp fire at Robert's hall, Jackson, Wednesday evening, Jan. 16. The Jackson Cornet band will furnish music. Horace Seymour, of Binghamton, is visiting his parents in town.

CARBONDALE. Miss Jennie Grinnell, of Forest City, is the guest of Carbondale relatives. Howard Johns, of Forest City, was a visitor in this city yesterday. Dr. Pike, of Dundaff, was in this city on business yesterday. Miss Lucy Joslin is seriously ill at her home on Wyoming street. Secretary A. P. Trautwein, of the board of trade, went to New York on Thursday evening to meet the proprietors of the silk weaving, spinning and dyeing works and steel bobbin factory, who want to locate their works in Carbondale. When Mr. Trautwein left this city $17,500 of the amount had been subscribed; $30,000 is the sum necessary to be raised to bring the concern to this place. Mr. Trautwein left with the understanding that if $20,000 was subscribed by noon yesterday that it would be sufficient to rest assured that the remainder could be raised without a doubt, and that he should be telegraphed at once and he would close the deal, but instead of $20,000 being subscribed, the sum reached over $22,000 by noon, and a telegram was at once sent to Mr. Trautwein, and it is now almost a positive fact that Carbondale will have the factory. Patrick Garvey, the man who was taken to the station house on Thursday threatening to take his own life, exhibited no sign of mental aberration yesterday, and it is thought he was simply driven to desperation by his low financial condition. He was taken to the poor house last evening. Oscar Wonnacott played his cornet in Grinnell's orchestra in Waymart last evening at an entertainment given in that place. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilcox expect to return to their home in Nineveh, N. Y., on Monday, after a several days' visit with friends and relatives in this city. Harold, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thompson, of No. 12 Oak avenue, died on Thursday of diphtheria. The remains were interred in Maplewood cemetery yesterday. Miss Charlotte Giles, of Lincoln avenue, is Miss Flo Allen's guest at Forest City. Delaware and Hudson Gravity railroad and shop hands were paid in this city yesterday; the steam road employees will be paid today.

ARCHBALD. Through the kindness of Mrs. Hackley, widow of the late Colonel C. B. Hackley, of Tarrytown, N. Y., the Presbyterian congregation of this place has received the lot on North Main street adjoining the residence of Hon. M. M. Gilroy. On this lot the congregation will build a parsonage within a few months. The lot is one of the most valuable on the street, and is well adapted to the use that will be made of it. The late Colonel Hackley was largely interested in coal lands in this neighborhood and always took a friendly interest in the welfare of the congregation. The present donation is one of kindness by which he and his family have come endeared to the Presbyterian congregation. A slight fire occurred in the dwelling house of James Wright, on Hill street, yesterday afternoon. The flames were put out before great danger was done. Mrs. F. J. O'Boyle and Mrs. T. J. Healey called on friends in Scranton yesterday afternoon. The congregation of the Presbyterian church is making great preparations for the bazaar in aid of the parsonage building fund, which will be held next month. There seems to be a lack of interest in political matters this year that is hardly in keeping with the reputation of Archbald as a public spirited place. Although the election is little more than a month distant there does not appear to be anywhere near the interest shown that was shown a year ago. This year we elect two councilmen, unless the court should decree the election of more, three school directors, three assessors, three constables and an auditor. We may also be allowed to vote for a justice of the peace. No candidates, in addition to those already named, have been announced within the past week.

MINOOKA. The No. 3 school was closed yesterday owing to a lack of fuel to keep the stoves going. The Greenwood mines will be idle today. The following are the newly elected officers of the O'Connell council, Young Men's Institute, which were installed Thursday evening: President, Peter F. Cusick; first vice-president, T. J. Coyne; second vice-president, M. J. Carroll; recording secretary, Thomas Connell; corresponding secretary, H. J. Casey; financial secretary, M. J. Egan; marshal, John J. Coyne; inside sentinel, A. J. O'Hara; outside sentinel, P. J. O'Neil; librarian and janitor, P. W. Carney. Some of the politicians who were not satisfied with Thursday's conference are clamoring to have a citizens' ticket. Patrick Conaboy returned yesterday from New York accompanied by his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Conaboy will reside here permanently. Peter Higgins returned yesterday from Port Griffith, where he had been visiting friends the past week. Patrick Quinn is after the supervisors in the Southwest district. Pat is an advocate of good roads. The St. Joseph Total Abstinence and Benevolent society will hold a regular meeting tomorrow afternoon. The following members will represent the St. Joseph Total Abstinence and Benevolent society at the quarterly convention Sunday: P. F. Cusick, Frank Donnelly, R. J. Lavelle, John Kearney and M. J. McCree. The Young Men's Institute Dramatic company rehearsed last evening at their rooms on Willow street. The company intends to produce "Among the Breakers" on Jan. 28.

ELMHURST. Mrs. Robinson is very sick. Her son, Dr. Robinson, of the Baltimore Medical college, was telegraphed for and arrived Thursday night. The Ladies' Aid society of the Independent Baptist church will give an oyster supper in Bowman's hall next Monday evening, Jan. 4. Last night our postoffice, kept by J. Knickerbocker, a veteran of the late war, was broken open. The catch of the lock was piled off by a carpenter's chisel. A thorough search was made for valuables, but the burglars did not secure any plunder.

BURDACK BLOOD BITTERS CURES BAD BLOOD. CURES BAD BLOOD. CURES BAD BLOOD. Purifies The BLOOD. I have been suffering ten years with Erysipelas. Have taken doctors' medicines but patient medicines of most all kinds have done me no good. I finally tried up my mind to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I have used four bottles of B. B. B. and think myself entirely cured. Service, Beaver Co., Pa.

PRICEBURG. The fair will re-open this evening. An excellent entertainment has been arranged for the occasion. The boulevard is in a poor condition and should be fixed as soon as possible, as people going to and from the depots have to wade over their shoes in water. Edward Mullin had his leg injured yesterday. A pile of iron pipes fell on him. John Perkins, of Hyde Park, visited friends here yesterday. The politicians of this place are busy making a ticket for the coming election which promises to be interesting.

OLYPHANT. A minstrel troupe held the boards at the New Opera house last evening before a fair sized audience. The artists of burnt cork gave a very creditable performance. A party of ladies and gentlemen of this place explored No. 2 mines Wednesday evening accompanied by Charles Beatty and James O'Malley. A number of flashlight views were taken in different parts of the mines. F. B. Ferguson was a visitor in Scranton last evening. Service will be held in the Young Men's Christian union tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. R. Ellis will deliver a brief address on "Ropes." Miss Jennie Ferguson is spending a few days in Duryea the guest of Mrs. W. J. Brown. Miss Katie Saitry, who has been visiting Mrs. Antony Finerty, has returned to her home in Scranton. Miss Alice Lavelle, of Scranton, is the guest of Mrs. Ellen Murphy, of Dundore street. Regular services in the Blakely Baptist church tomorrow morning and evening. Rev. J. R. Ellis will occupy the pulpit. A team of horses in charge of a young son of S. M. Calendar while standing at the depot became frightened at a passing engine, dashed down Lackawanna street across the bridge to Blakely and came to an abrupt stop by running into a tree near the Lackawanna Coal company store. The carriage was totally demolished. The boy narrowly escaped serious injury.

MISS JENNIE GRINNELL, of Forest City, is the guest of Carbondale relatives. Howard Johns, of Forest City, was a visitor in this city yesterday. Mr. Paul M. Weber. All Run Down Always Tired, Sleepless and Without Appetite Blood Vitalized and Strength Renewed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"For a couple of years, I was subject to feeling anything but good. I always felt tired, I could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not seem to benefit me any. I Did Not Have Any Ambition to go around or work in fact was not able to do a good day's work. I happened to pick up a circular embracing advertisements and testimonials for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after reading I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. I have taken five bottles and must say that I have derived wonderful benefit from it and Feel Like a New Man. I would recommend it to all sufferers and would urge them not to hesitate but to decide at once to take Hood's Sarsaparilla." PAUL M. WEBER, 1112 North Tenth Street, Reading, Pennsylvania. Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient, yet easy in action. Sold by all druggists. 25c.

ECONOMY'S ODD AND END REMNANT SALE HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY to gratify your desire, and get a good substantial article at the price you can afford. A fancy rocker or two will live up that old parlor suite wonderfully, and the ones we include in this sale are worth a better name than ODDS AND ENDS but our conscience tells us "they are the products of '94," so into the sale they go. Lace curtains, portieres, shades, carpets and remnants of carpets must all be weeded out. A strip of carpet at a trifling cost will save you dollars in preserving carpets that are yet good, and a great many of the remnants will cover the whole floor of that small room on which you have so long wanted a carpet, and cost no more than straw matting. We feel sure that the numerous wonderful bargains we shall offer will reward a careful examination. shall eclipse all previous efforts. Past experience has taught us that it is a "good thing," and has also suggested a means of "pushing it along" to the mutual benefit of the public and ourselves. We find by a careful review of the transactions of the past year that we have sold more goods at sacrifice prices than ever before. This fact explains another of greater importance to us, namely: The space formerly occupied by so-called ODDS AND ENDS (which were perhaps finished a little too dark, or a little too light, or possibly slightly damaged), has abundantly paid for the amount lost on the original article. Hence the resolve that every article in our vast establishment not strictly up to date must make room for fresh, new, spring goods. You have been thinking you would like a new sideboard or perchance a hall rack; you do not want a cheap one, and feel that you cannot afford a good one. See Our Show Windows. LADIES, DON'T OVERLOOK our store when you are out for bargains, for here is a chance to get them at your own price. Having bought at sheriff's sale the bankrupt stock of the Hyde Park Clothing Store, and having disposed of a great amount of the goods, we are now ready to sell the remainder at a Great Sacrifice. No old stock-worn clothing, but new, clean goods. The firm had only been in business two months when they were sold out by the sheriff. We had the cash and secured the stock.
