BAKER'S TERRIBLE CRIME. Charged with Outraging His Eleven-Year

Old Daughter. Great excitement was caused in Mayfield yesterday when the news was spread that N. G. Baker, a well known resident in that town, was arrested upon the charge of outraging his 11year-old daughter.

Baker was brought before Justice of the Peace Sullivan and denied the offense, but sufficient evidence was tendered Justice Sullivan to warrant him committing Baker to the county jail upon the charge. The accused was lodged in fall last evening.

BOARD HAS AWAKENED.

South Side Industry Boomers Hold a Lively Meeting During Which They Denounce a Number of Alleged Public Abuses.

There was a meeting of the South Side board of trade last night, and it was very interesting while it lasted. The principal matter which engaged attention came up for discussion after the report from the committee on streets and highways was heard. C. G. Boland is the chairman of this committee, and he said there is nothing new, unless it is the fact that the streets are still on the surface of the earth. Considering the fact that councilmen have so shamefully neglected the repair of the highways, it is a matter of congratulation that they have not sunk in shame below the level. Treasurer Michael Miller thought that more than half of the blame for the wretched condition of the streets ought to be laid at the door of the Scranton Traction company. The ordinance, he said, which granted the company a franchise permitting the laying of its tracks, specifically provided that both rails should be planked on each side. It was a shame to let the company lay a "T" rail at all; but when that permission was given on unpaved streets, it was a little consolation that the ralls would have to be planked.

For a time the company lived up to this provision of the ordinance, but at the present time, along the entire South Side line, there is not a single foot of planking except at the intersec tion of streets. Mr. Miller laid all the blame for this neglect of the street car company upon the newspapers of the city and the councilmen.

Free Passon Denounced. He claimed that, inasmuch as they accepted free passes, they are muzzled, if not absolutely subsidized. These sentiments were shared by Chairman John Scheuer, C. G. Boland and M. P. Judge. The latter made a motion in retary O'Toole to write to WILLIAMS& MCANULTY the city clerks of cities where trolley lines are operated, and ask for information concerning the privileges the respective councils accord to their stree car companies. Mr. Judge preceded his motion with the remark that Scranton is undoubtedly the most corpora tion-ridden city in the United States. Speaking further on street improve ment another discussion became gen eral when Secretary O'Toole introduced for consideration the action of common council in draughting an ordinance for the regulation of the width of wagon tires. Mr. Boland spoke at length on this subject, and so did the other members, but no action was taken.

Let Consolidation Alone Mr. Boland advised the board to let the consolidation question severely alone; because, he had spoken to a number of the prominent members of the central board and all of them agreed that the idea was not a feasible one. Accordingly the consolidation question was lowered into an untimely sepulcher. No member of the special sewers and drains committee was present and therefore no report was received. The chair continued the committee and a report is looked for at the next meeting. Grocer Ambrose Herz, of Prospect avenue, paid up his dues and then resigned, or rather the secretary performed that favor at Mr. Herz's instance. The reason he assigned for his resignation was that the majority of the board is in favor of sewers for the South Side, and he is not. Since he could not twist the majority to suit his views, he decided to resign. Mr Boland thought that it would be too bad to lose such a public-spirited member and he moved that the chairman be appointed a committee of one to dissuade Mr. Herz from his purpose

A bill of $25 for the secretary's salary for a half-year was approved. Treasurer Miller announced the receipts of "the meeting as $28, and the bare quorum put on their coats and left for Five Hundred Persons Guessed on th Number of Seeds in the Pumpkin. Some Coming Attractions.

Notes of the Exhibit.

Yesterday at the Food Exposition might very properly be termed a prize day and so popular were the baking und guessing contests that next week will probably see many more of them. The attendance during the afternoon and evening was larger than on any previous day.

in the bread baking contest for prizes given by the Weston Mill com-pany for loaves baked from their Snow White flour, the judges, Miss A. W. Cross, Mrs. A. L. Buckley and Mrs. J. C. Koons made the following awards: Mrs. R. J. Hughes, $10; Mrs. George Davis, $5; Mrs. J. M. Davis, $2; Miss Drinkey, $1; Mrs. Alex. Turnbull, $1. The many loaves of bread entered will today be distributed among the city's charitable institutions. H. Jacoby, of Emmet street, won the prize of a box of samples valued at $15 and contributed by the exhibitors for the best guess of the number of seeds in the pumpkin at the door, There were 339 seeds, and Mr. Jacoby's guess was 347. Other close guesses were: Nell Gardner, 1648 Dixon avenue, 330 Mrs. U. G. Conrad, 428 Mulberry, 329 Myron Kasson had to have his fling and guessed "78 and a little one." The 500 guesses registered from 20 to 17,000. Notice given by the Baker company that its contest for the best baked chocolate cake with icing made from Premium chocolate would be postponed. did not prevent a large number of entries. The booth felt obliged to award the prizes and will next week inaugurate another contest. Last night's first prize of $5 was awarded to 'No. 22" and the second prize of $2.50 to "No. 21."

Art of Cooking Fish.

The art of fish cookery, the prepara-tion of delectable sauces and some fints about the chemical comhints position of the finny tribe were de scribed by Miss Cross in her afternoon cookery lecture. She said that chemical analyses have not warranted the theory that fish is a brain food and that fishermen and others who eat large quantities of fish are not conspicuous for their brain power. Phosphorous is present in small quantities in the flesh of fish, which makes it im-perative that it should not be handled with an iron fork.

The distinction between fish of a white flesh and others with a colored tint is due to the fact that in one the oil is confined to the liver and in the other the oil is distributed.

In boiling fish Miss Cross recom mended that the fish be placed in cheese cloth, as by this means it can be lifted without breaking. It should be boiled for fifteen minutes for every pound; a little salt in the water improves the flavor.

W. W. WESTON INDICTED.

He Went from Honesdale to New York t Answer the Charges Brought Agains Him-Held in $5,000 Bail.

William W. Weston, of Honesdale was indicted by the grand jury of New York four times yesterday for aiding and abetting the alteration on certain notes which were signed by H. E. Sim mons and a merchant in New York He was brought before Recorder Gof and held in $5,000 ball. William Brook field, chairman of the Republican coun ty committee, went on his bond and h was released.

The story of the case is complicated even as modern business transaction go. It grew out of an effort made to take advantage of the new tariff b speculating on whiskey before the Wilson bill became a law. The complainant was H. E. Simmons, a wealth New York contractor, who lives in New Jersey.

Simmons Signed the Notes.

At the time in question he was some what short of ready money to carry wealthy man, a man of schemes as well, proposed the whisky deal. He induced Simmons to sign four notes of $6,000 each to be used for the purpose of purchasing the spirits.

It is alleged that the dates on the notes were changed and that they were not used for the purposes which they were given but were hawked about town and sold for 25 cents on the dol-
