ECONOMY'S ODD AND END AND REMNANT SALE

HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY to gratify your desire, and get a good substantial article at the price you can afford. A fancy rocker or two will live up to that old parlor suite wonderfully, and the ones we shall include in this sale are worthy a better name than ODDS AND ENDS but our conscience tells us "they are the products of '94," so into the sale they go. Lace curtains, portieres, shades, carpets and remnants of carpets must all be weeded out. A strip of carpet at a trifling cost will save you dollars in preserving carpets that are yet good, and a great many of the remnants will cover the whole floor of that small room on which you have so long wanted a carpet, and cost no more than straw matting. We feel sure that the numerous wonderful bargains we shall offer will reward a careful examination.
