GOOD WORK ACCOMPLISHED. What the Annual Report of St. Joseph's

Society Shows.
'The new officers of the St. Joseph's society were elected on Jan.-9 and the statement of accounts for the past year showed a balance in hand of $1,301.03 The secretary, Mrs. P. J. Horan, presented an interesting report in which it was stated that 121 children were admitted to the home during the year. After reviewing the work of the year, Mrs. Horan says:

"The society has recently issued a large number of membership cards, hoping with our bishop's approval to establish an honorary membership which will embrace the whole diocese. We earnestly appeal to our distant friends for their co-operation in this work. We know that many will plead their own poor, and quote the oft re-peated adage that "Charity begins at ome," but let it be borne in mind that in assisting us they are doing their own work, for does not St. Joseph's Home open its arms to the forlorn little applicant from the most remote parish in the diocese?"

The secretary also pays a tribute to the Catholics and Protestants who had so liberally supported the institution and made the following remarks with regard to the House of the Good Shep-"This institution endeavors to be self-supporting, and when we consider the large number of women, irrespective of creed or nationality, which is being shelteredhere and strengthened toward of 5 eggs; fill in the greased timbale cups better lives by efficient training in long with the mixture; poach in an oven for 30 neglected morals, and those womanly minutes. Fish timbale may be made by better lives by efficient training in long industries so conducive to virtue and happiness as wordly people, we marvel at the herculean task to which this noble order has set itself. The philanthropic dady interested in the elevation of erring woman may assist in a noble work, and serve well her own interests by sending a share of her sew ing to this house, which in its exquisitely wrought needlework is without a rival in Scranton."

WILL ENTER A PROTEST.

Don't Want Building and Loan Associa tion Stock Taxed.

A meeting was held in the office of Attorneys Watson and Zimmerman last night which had for its purpose the for the past eight years as a watch- framing of a petition to be presented to the present state legislature to protest against taxing the stock of buildand has resided in this city for the ing and loan associations, a recommendation to that effect having been civil war broke out Mr. Shafer enlisted made by the state tax commissioner, The building associations represented served in the army for three years. He at last night's meeting were the Ger-

> A temporary organization wasformed and Attorney R. A. Zimmerman was chosen chairman, and Martin C. Judge, of Taylor, secretary. Attorney Zimmerman explained that the purpose of the organization was to draft a set of rsolutions and a petition that would be presented to every stockholder in the county for his signature; the resolutions and the petition would be sent to the present legislature asking that the recommendation of the tax commissioners shall be disregarded.

A motion was made to have the chair. man communicate with Senator J. C. Vaughan, reuqesting a copy of the proposed bill providing for this tax. The meeting then adjourned till Tuesday Jan. 22, at 7.30 p. m. at Watson & Zimmerman's office.

MANY COMPLICATIONS.

They Have Arisen Out of the Business Affairs of Late Contractor Ferguson. Another development was witnessed esterday in clearing intricacles which relled the contract of the late John Ferguson for constructing the Harrion avenue sewer. Shortly before his death Mr. Ferguson was sued by number of Italians for wages due. Peter Rooney, an alleged partner, accepted ervice of the summons, and at the hearing proved that he was but a fore-

At Mr. Ferguson's death, matters were found to be very complicated, and yesterday some startling facts were disclosed, when Peter Rooney, the trusted foreman, was arrested at Wilkes-Barre on a charge of embezzling $1,300, being the amount of an order given by Mr. Ferguson to Hunt & Coniell, which, it is claimed, Rooney appropriated to his own use. Rooney was held in $2,500 ball by Alderman Perkins, of Wilkes-Barre.

Edward Boyle, a workman, was also arrested upon the charge of forgery and held in $1,000 ball by Alderman Perkins. Yesterday morning John McAndrew, another workman was arrested upon a charge of forgery, the warrant being is sued by Alderman Fitzsimmons, of this ity. He entered ball.

TWELVE YEARS IS ENOUGH.

After That Age Is Reached Political Parties Should Die, Says Mr. Wheeler. Editor E. J. Wheeler, of the New fork Voice, America's banner Prohibition organ, delivered an address last night in Conservatory hall to a good sized audience. His subject was "Politics," and the tenor of his address was on the influence of the gin-mills at election time. One of Horace Greeley's bits of sound wisdom, the lecturer said, was his statement regarding political parties, that twelve years was and ought to be long enough for any party to exist, after that it should die and be replaced by a party of new ideas and suited to the growing needs of the government. Such party is the Prohibition party. W. C. Weeden sang with splendid effect the ballad, "Dare to Say No." A notto at the entrance printed in glaring type read, "The Saloon Can Not Exist Without Boys,"

COLBURN SAID NAY.

Then His Wife Caused Mrs. Dimler's

House to Be Raided. Mrs. Willfam Colburn yesterday swore information against her husband and Maggle Dimler, upon a charge of keeping a house of ill-fame in Raymond court. Lieutenant Davies, assisted by Officers Evans, Coleman and Peters, visited the house, 320 Raymond court, at 8 o'clock last evening and arrested William Colburn, Maggie Dlmler, William Acer, Minnie Brown, and another young woman.

An unsavory romance is connected connected with the arrest, as Colburn alleges that his wife eloped to Canada with a boarder, and he, in a spirit of revenge, went to reside with Maggle Dimler. His wife, upon her return, desired him to return to her, but he declined, hence the arrest. The five prisoners will be given a hearing this morn-

Miss Cross Gave Some Excellent Recipes Yesterday Afternoon.

PRIZES FOR CAKES TONIGHT

Boxes of Caramels for Lady Visitors Prizes for Good Biscuit Makers-Tomorrow Afternoon for the Secool Children.

At the food exposition yesterday there was a fair attendance, but today and tomorrow will probably witness a larger patronage, from the fact that several special features are announced. The largest audience of women during the exposition yesterday afternoon listened to Miss Cross tecture on entrees. The result warrants the observaition that if there are "conceits" in bonnets and "fancies" in men's cravats. both "conceits" and "fancies" can be used to describe the dainty mid-meal courses prepared by Miss Cross. The dishes she described and demonstrated are new, and though exceedingly dellcate they are simple and easily cooked.

The recipes are as follows: Timbale of Chicken-Cook 1 pint o bread crumbs with 1 gill of milk, add ½ pound of white uncooked chicken meat chopped fine, a teaspoonful of salt, a grain of red pepper and the well beaten whites taking the white fish for the outside and filling in the center with shrimps or lob-ster. The sauce is made with 1 table-spoonful of butter and 1 tablespoonful of flour, to which is added \(^1_2\) pint of milk; bring to the boiling point, season with salt and pepper and add \(^1_2\) can of mush-

Stand away for a few ours in a cool place before using.

Miss Cross will lecture on "Deserts" today, and will prepare rice a la imperatrice, compote of pineapple, pudding a la grande belle with sunshine sauce, baked bananas, Tomorrow afternoon's lecture will be the last one. The subject is "Family Breakfasts," which will include coffee, omelettes meats, potatoes and many simple dishes suitable for breakfast.

At 8.30 o'clocg tonight will be an counced the winners of the $5 and $2.50 offered by W. H. Baker & Co. fffr the cake with the best leing made from Premium chocolate. Cakes will be received until 4 o'clock this afternoon. During this evening each woman visitor will be presented with a box of

NOTES OF THE EXHIBIT.

School children will be admitted to norrow afternoon for 10 cents. M. J. Kelly drew a handsome cutclass water bottle from the Press club booth last night.

Handsome prizes are offered by the Marshall Kennedy Milling company for the first and second best biscuits made from their Camellia Self Raising flour. Entries close at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

A double cooker is given away each night at the Pettljohn breakfast food booth to the purchaser drawing the lucky number. The person last night was Mrs. F. W. Mason, 116 South Main avenue. The music of the Royal Hungarian orchestra is the most satisfactory yet heard at the exhibition. Among today's selections will be the following: "Tann-hauser," Carmen," "Valse Espagn-ole," "Golf Polka," "Love's Affecton," and "Arge D'Amours." A medical booth is quite a new thing at a food exhibit, but in the present in stance it is very much in evidence and is popular. Among the articles offered "Vichefizz," a medicinal and effervescent nerve drink, and "Junket," a delightful medicinal dessert: The Vichefizz Chemical company, of Philadelphia, represented at the exposition by Miss Fritz, is distributing 50,000 samples of their product in the city. Vichefizz is a pleasant and safe substitute for different compounds of bromine. Every day Miss Fritz gives away hundreds of samples in their booth, besides that which is distributed by agents throughout the city. No more appropriate gift could be suggested for a sick friend than some of Bensdorp's Royal Dutch cocoa or chocolate. It is claimed that it is the very essence of nutrition, from the fact that the fats and starches are removed by hydraulic pressure from the bean. The product can be sampled at the booth, where it is sold in quantities from one-fourth pound to any amount. The occupants of the "Germea" booth are kept busy preparing samples and selling the quick cooking cereal, which can be made into mush, health bread, griddle cakes, fritters, gems, fried baby food, pudding, wafers cookies, johnny cake, tea biscuit, breakfast cake, waffles, muffins and scones It is California wheat with the skin and starch removed.

Another Chocolate Cake Contest, This evening the W. H. Baker & Co booth will have another chocolate cake contest, the entries for which close to day at 6 o'clock. Already it is expected that upwards of eighty cakes will be entered, and that the contest will be a most interesting one. The best one receives $5 and the second best $2.50. The cakes will be cut up and distributed to the audience on Saturday even-ing, when the winners will be an-
