WARD POLITICS ARE BOOMING

Hon. Thomas B. Reed Declines an Invita tion to Lecture Before the West Side Republican League - A Wedding Anniversary-Personal Notes.

The councilmanic fight in the Fifteenth ward is waxing hot and the candidates are working hard for the privilege of representing the ward in common council. The primarie will be held this afternoon between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock in the various polling districts. Thomas Watkins and Eben P. Davies have withdrawn and the only remaining candidates for councll are Joseph Oliver, T. Ellsworth Davies, the present incumbent, and John Fowler; Mr. Davies is anxious to return for another term.

His principal opponent, Joseph Oliver, is an old resident of the ward and a very capable man. For the office of alderman, Enoch Harris, and the present incumbent, T. T. Morgan, and Daniel Moses are candidates. The office has been very acceptably filled by the venerable alderman for years and although his opponents are working strenuously to effect a change, Mr. Morgan is in the fight to stay. His opponents, Messrs. Moses and Harris, are respected residents of the ward and have a large number of friends who will do their best for them.

Entertainment and Social.

A most delightful entertainment and social was conducted in St. Paul's arm ory on West Lackawanna avenue last evening by St. Paul's Tourist club. The room and stage were nicely decorated with flags and bunting and looked very attractive. The programme opened with a piano solo by Miss Julia Me-Guigan, and was followed by a vocal solo by Edward Kelly, Masters Mc-Nulty and Evans gave a vocal duett won great applause. P. J. Walsh followed with an artistic sand fig. Miss Rose Conway, a planist of ability, rendered a solo on this favorite instrument, and an excellent exhibition of club swinging was given by Frank McDonough, M. J. Ketrick and James Judge rendered excellent vocal solos and instrumental selections were renedered by the Carlucci Banjo and Mandolin club. Mr. Rollly rendered a

The feature of the evening was a double clog by McDonough and Walsh, A piano solo was given by Miss Cavanaugh, after which the entertainment closed. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing.

Mr. Reed Cannot Come.

At a recent meeting the Republican league of the West Side decided to ask Hon, Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, to give a lecture in this city. Although It was known that Mr. Reed had many engagements, it was thought that a date could be secured. Many will no doubt be sorry to learn that Mr. Reed cannot come. The following communication which was received by the secretary, Charles E. Daniels, explains it-House of Representative:

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16, 1895, Mr. Charles E. Daniels;

Dear Sir-I am very much obliged for your kind invitation to give a lecture in the city of Scranton, and regret to have to decline the same, as my engagements are such for several months to come, that I cannot make the one you ask. Very sin-T. B. REED.

Resignation of Organist Reynolds. It was announced yesterday that Frank B. Reynolds, who had so long officiated as organist in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, had resigned. During Mr. Reynolds' stay in the church he won many friends. He is an excellent player and fully met all the requirements of church work. NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

People Are Very Much Interested in the Agitation for a Sewer.

Death of Mrs. Mary Bohan at Her Home in Minooka-Caucuses That Are to Be Held Tonight-John Brown Injured.

People on this side of the Roaring brook are more interested in the sewer question than in politics, and the cost of the Seventeenth sewer district which embraces the Twelfth Nine teenth and Twentieth wards, is worrying them a good deal. The ordinance providing for the construction of sewers in this district passed two readings Thursday night in select council, and it specifies that the aggregate cost shall not exceed $36,000.

The route of the proposed sewer is as follows: Beginning at the junction of the Lackawanna river and Stafford Meadow brook, along Stafford Meadow brook to Remington avenue, to Locust street, to Cedar avenue, to Maple street o Pittston avenue, to Front street; also along Alder street from Pittston avenue to Prospect avenue, to River street also along Willow street, from Pittston avenue to Stone avenue; also a storm overflow along Willow street from Pittston avenue to Roaring brook also along Cedar avenue to Locus street, to lot 9, block 18 in the Eleventh ward to Stafford Meadow brook; also a storm overflow for a short distance at Remington avenue and Stafford Meadow brook.

Death of a Minooka Woman.

Mrs. Mary Bohan, of Main street Minooka, died yesterday morning after a week's illness. Her death was a surprise to the community as her illness was not regarded dangerous. She was the widow of Thomas Bohan, who served as a private in the late civil war and died a little more than a year ago. Three children are left parentless-Agnes, 18 years old; William, 16 and Alice, 14. Mrs. Bohan was a kind hearted woman and was well thought of by her neighbors. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Joseph's church. Interment will be made in Minooka Catholic emetery.

Caucus Tonight.

This evening the fur will fly at the Democratic caucus in the Twentieth ward. There will be only two candidates for council, Peter Haggerty and Mark Cahilla. Thomas J. Coyne has already filed his nomination papers, and Michael McCarry, the other post sible candidate, has withdrawn in favor of Mr. Coyne and will swing his influence to accomplish his election.

In the Eleventh ward the Republicans will hold their caucus to nominate a candidate for council, Charles W. Stone of Maple street, is the only aspirant for the honor.

In the Nineteenth ward the Republi can caucus will be held at Storrs' hall and a lively time is sure to be there, as three or four are anxious for the nomi nation for council.

Action in Police Court Regarding Those

Caught in the Dimler Place. Further developments were made in the Coburn-Dimler case in yesterday morning's police court. The prisoners who were arrested in Mrs. Dimler's house of ill fame at 320 Raymond court were arranged before Alderman Fuller. the names given being William Cohurn Maggie Dimler, Annie Moore, Annie Anthony and Frank Aser. Mrs. Maggie Coburn, who swore out the informa tion, appeared, and after evidence was given the alderman fined Annie Moor-$25, or to be committed to the next quar ter aessions in $500 bail.

The same fine was imposed on Maggi-Dimler and Annie Anthony. William Coburn was fined $50, or to be held in $500 to appear at court. Asor denies the charge so strenuously that the alderman remanded him for a further hearing at 5 o'clock last evening, when he was discharged. During the day Mrs. Coburn swor information before Alderman Wright against her husband upon a charge of adultery with the prisoner Dimler. He appeared before the alderman and was held in $500 to appear at court, but during the day Mrs. Coburn relented and withdrew her charge.

She also made an effort to have the fine imposed on her husband in police court paid, but was unsuccessful.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

This evening "The White Squadron" will be the attraction at the Academy of Music. In the third act the "con gress of the navies" is assembled. Here the artist has had wide scope and has improved his opportunities. magnificent cruisers are seen in all their beauty and grandeur. Every detall is complete. The other scenes have not been neglected, and the skill of the artist is seen in every act. In the fourth act, which pictures the Parahiba, a monastery is presented, sur rounded by tropical shrubbery amid hilly descents. The company, which is headed by the well-known actor, W. A. Whitecar, is a most capable one.

A. Y. Pearson's melodramatic production, "Land of the Midnight Sun," will be presented at the Academy of Music Monday night, Jan. 21. The play was fashioned by Edwin Barbour. the author of several successful dramas of the latter day school. Mr. Barbour gives credit to Hall Cain's story, "The Bondman," for many of the incidents and characters found in his play. It is the story of two sons of the same father by dif ferent mothers. The lawful son, born in Iceland, swears to kill his father for cruel treatment of his mother and also his half brother. The plot is considerably involved, the scenes occurring in North Carolina and Iceland. brothers fall in love with the same woman, although unknown to each other, and she marries the illegitimate The brothers meet in Iceland. Jason, the legitimate son, is made gov ernor by the king of Denmark. He pardons his younger brother, who with his wife, returns to America.

Mrs. Cora Urquhart Potter and Kyrle Bellew will appear at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening in their latest and greatest success, "Charlotte Corday," a tragic drama of life during the reign of terror in France. Mrs. Potter assumes the title role, and Mr. ellew the role of the great tyrant Marat. In regard to Mrs. Potter's impersonation of the exacting role of Charlotte Corday, the Chicago Evening Post says: "She has the external if not the internal attributes of the Charlotte of our imagination, unlike the actual as our fancy doubtless portrays her. She looks Charlotte Corday even if she does not simulate the at sorbing sense of passionate duty which moved the slayer of Marat. In the studie of David posing for the picture of Judith and Holofernes in the bril liant robes of the orient, vacillating be tween the duty of the poseuse and the mission of death to which she was selfdedicated, Mrs. Potter stands out a stage picture of engrossed interest, brilliant in color, stately in posture, a veritable study in purple and crimson and Nemesis." . . .

"The Little Tottoon," a comic opera written by D. G. Johns, will be presented at the Academy of Music Jan. 24 by the following cast:

Pidro, a villain......Thomas C. Williams Vilo, Parlo, tramps, T. J. Johns, Jenkin C. Thomas Marinda (the Little Tottoon) daugister of Piardo.......Miss Julia Allen Sponzella, a dairy maid.

Miss Lidia Sailor Quita, village maid.....Mrs. D. G. Johns Sylvina, servant.....Miss Marie Gilgallon

Vanita, daughter of Piardo, Miss Sarah Raine Chorus of Villagers.
D. G. Johns.......Manager and Director
There is a pretty story by the opera which is set to tuneful music that is at times brilliant. The opera is interpreted in an excellent manner by the artists mentioned above, and will no doubt draw a large audience to the Academy next Thursday night.

J. S. Sanford, the new manager of the Frothingham theater, arrived in the city from New York last evening. Mr. Sanford is a manager of wide excperi ence, having been connected with the 'Bostonians," the Rhea company and other well known combinations.

A Just and True Statement.

Auburn, N. Y., Mar. 25, 1894. My father, J. S. Mills, of Shortsville, N. Y., was thrown from a wagon thirteen years ago and had his hip dislocated. A short time after, rheumatism set in, and it is only with the aid of two canes that he has been able to walk since. The pain was terrible and it was only by the use of hot application that he could obtain any rest at night. I sent him a box of Dr Potter's Rheumatic Pills and after taking them, he is able to walk without his canes and can carry a pail of water in each hand from the well to the stable. The pain has all left him and last week he drove to see me, a distance of forty miles. He also had what the doctors pronounced a cancer on his face, which had been re-moved, leaving a hard lump. The pain in that was unbearable, but since taking the pills the pain has all left that, too, and he feels as well as ever. I regard his cure as miraculous as he is seventy-five years old. Anyone may learn the truth of this state ment by either calling or writing. C. E. Mills, 75 Fulton street. Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills are a rad-

During the year 1894 the total num ber of citizens naturalized in Lacka wanna county was 1,489. To those who have been present during naturaliza-tion court and studied the features of the new citizens it may be a matter of surprise to know that of this number only three were Hungarians and thirtysix natives of Poland. It has been th general impression that large numbers of Hungarians and Polanders were nat uralized during the year, but the official figures obtained from the alien dockets in the clerk of the courts' and prothonotary's offices would seem to efute the popular impression.

During the last year the English born residents of the county manifested a reater fondness for swearing allegiance to the Stars and Stripes than any other class of people. Up to a few years ago many Englishmen refrained from becoming naturalized and many sarcastic comments were nurled against them in consequence. This diffident on the part of the erstwhile subjects of Queen Victoria has departed and they low manifest a desire to become en titled to all the privileges of American citizens which is surpassed by none.

During the year 1894 the number of Englishmen naturalized in the county was 307 and next in point of numbers came the sturdy sons of Austria, of whom 292 were raised to the dignity of citizens of the United States.
