The Affair Results from a Quarrel Which Brought About the Discharge of the Advance Agent-Other Live Pittston Topics.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, Pa., Jan. 22.-A shooting affray took place this morning at 9.15 in front of the postoffice, on Water street, in which W. R. or Obediah Ward, business manager of the Kittle Rhodes Comedy company, was made the victim. Manager Ward and his advance agent, Gilbert Ely, failed to agree on some of their business transactions, so Ely appealed to Miss Rhodes and stated that either Ward or himself must leave Miss Rhodes released the company. Ely, who surrendered all keys, tickets, etc., in his possession. All was apparently satisfactory until the time above mentioned, when Ely. upon meeting Ward coming from the postoffice, drew a revolver and fired directly at his victim's heart. Ward received the bullet, of 38-calibre, in the left shoulder. He was assisted to his room in the Valley House and Doctors McFadden and ical skill, making his condition as comfortable as possible. Ely gave himself up and was taken into custody by County Detective Isaac Eckert, who took him before Justice Gibbons.

Squire Gibbons committed Ely to the county fail to await the result of Ward's injuries. At 5.30 p. m. Ward was testing comfortable and fears of serious re sults are not entertained. The bullet has not as yet been extracted.

Notwithstanding the shooting Miss Rhodes and her corps of artists will continue the show every evening this week, as neither Ward or Ely were in

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Kittle Rhodes at Music Hall last evening. Not even standing room could be found. Sleighing Accident.

Miss Burke and Miss Gallegher, accompanied by their pupils of the Junetion school, would have enjoyed a pleasant sleighride to Scranton last night had it not have been for an accident which befell their team on their return. As they neared Phenix colliery at Duryea the sleigh came in contact a sudden halt. The leading team, being of a flery disposition, sprang forward, breaking the whippletrees and jurking the driver, Mr. Jones, from the not able to control the team, which separted, one following the course of the main road and to the stable, the other pursuing the course of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad to the bridge crossing the river. When attempting to cross it stepped between the ties and injured itself so that it had to be shot. The team was the property of Liverman Fritzpatrick, who is mourning the loss of a valuable

Foreman Thomas R. Lovering, of Greenwood, will be nominated by the Republicans of the Southwest district for the office of school director. There is scarcely any necessity to say anyhing about Mr. Lovering's manliness and uprightness. He is a liberal, sensible, progressive and capable citizen, and whatever trust he is delegated to fulfill will be done with ability and carefulness. His election would place on the Lackawanna school board a man who would most creditably represent his constituents.

THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION

House-The Urgent Deficiency Bill Agreed To.

By the United Press.

Washington, Jan. 22.-The Hawalian Mr. Gray, occupied the position of de tration, and Mr. Lodge that of its prosecutor. The latter senator was plain and outspoken in advocacy of the annexation of the islands, declaring that he disliked to see the American flag pulled down where it had been once run up, or an American foot go back

Mr. Lodge disclaimed the idea of any motive to condemn the administration. The administration, he said, stood condemned in the Hawaiian matter by the general opinion of the American people t had a sufficient load to carry aleady. Still less had he any desire to make political capital out of the question. There was no occasion for that. But matters were in such condition that the United States ought to take a positive position, ought to take some affirmative action. The present condition of affairs seemed to be in the highest degree discreditable to the govern nent of the United States.

Mr. Gray said that it was pretty hard for the president to shape his ction so as to meet the approval of senators on the other side. "If the president," he added facetiously stands up, he is too long; and if he its down, he is too short" (laughter). The president, Mr. Gray declared. would have been derelict if he had not taken the opportunity to tell the Havalian Royalist committee absolutely that they must expect no aid or encouragement from him. That had become ecessary by reason of what had been aid in the senate, in the country and brough the press, as to the president's views in the matter of Hawali.

Hawley took occasion to correct the mpression that in yesterday's debate he thad charged the president with "conspiring" with Royalist Hawaiian onspirators. What he intended to convey, he said, was that the president had conferred" with them.
