An Evening Party.

A very pleasant affair was a surprise party which was tendered to David Samuel at his home on Bellevue street on Monday evening. The occasion was to honor Mr. Samuel's sixty-first birth day and the evening was enjoyably spent. After many hours of music and games, the guests partook of refreshments, and on departing wished Mr Samuels, who is an old resident of Bellevue, many happy returns of the day. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward James, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sumuel, Edward James, Mr. and Mrs. David Samuel, William R. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roberts, John Jones and Mrs. Rees Morgan, of Nicholson. Mr. Samuel was presented with an umbrella and muttler from his Sunday school class and received a valuable token from the members of his family.

Will Honor St. David.

The members of Robert Morris lodge Order of American True Ivorites, will hold a banquet on the evening of March 1. It being the anniversary of the Welsh Patron saint, David.
