NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

Mrs. Phillip Marks remained with Towanda relatives after the funeral of their child, and Mr. Marks has caused the removal of their household goods from the rooms they occupied to the rear of his store. The home is virtually broken up by the death of their only child, and they are the subjects of the tenderest sympathy.

A life size figure of a fireman in dress parade uniform occupies the window at Campbell's barber shop. It was gotten up to advertise the coming concert of Trison Hose company. For the benefit of numerous inquirers, and others who may be interested, we will state that duplicate remonstrances, protesting against the repeal of the billiard law, directed to the senate and house of representatives, have been drawn up in legal form and printed, ready for signatures. Anyone may obtain them free of charge by addressing E. W. Lewis, Tunkhannock. An accompanying letter of instructions goes with them. It would be better for interested parties to obtain these blanks than to trust to drawing one up for themselves. These petitions are merely for the qualified voters to sign. The Tunkhannock Women's Christian Temperance union is also getting one up for the ladies, particulars concerning which may be obtained from Mrs. Theodore Streeter, Tunkhannock.

Francis, an adopted son of Charles McCrossen, of Doolittle Hill, while playing in the barn a few days since, fell about four feet and struck the back of his neck across a manger, inflicting such injuries that he died therefrom. He was about 12 years old, and was reputed to be bright, kindhearted lad. A local Sunday school association will be held at West Auburn, Feb. 22. Adelbert Harford was brought into court yesterday morning and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and undergo imprisonment at the eastern penitentiary at Philadelphia for a term of one year and six months at separate and solitary confinement at labor. Judge Dunham, in addressing him before passing sentence, gave him some very excellent counsel. He told the prisoner that his own personal feelings would prompt him to make the sentence as light as possible, but reminded him that public safety required that the laws be enforced and justice meted out. He called his attention to the fact that the fatal deed was done when his mind was clouded and judgment perverted by drink, and advised him when he should once more be a free man to abstain from further indulgence of that sort, when he might become a useful member of society.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hight were called to Wilkes-Barre yesterday to attend the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Vanosey. The Lehigh Valley now runs a sleeping car from Rochester to New York. J. Allen, at Mesoppen. The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. A special session of court will be held Feb. 21, at which several cases for argument will be presented. The returns from the congressional election will be inspected at that time, also.

ARCHIBALD. The Young Men's Literary and Social club observed its fourth anniversary by holding a grand banquet and social on Monday evening, which was undoubtedly the most enjoyable and fashionable affair of its nature ever held in this borough. The guests of the club, numbering about 100, assembled in the club rooms early in the evening and proceeded in a body to Father Mathew hall, where, for a few hours, they danced to the merry music of Hayes' orchestra. The hall was very beautifully decorated, and the charming costumes of the ladies, the tasteful appearance of the gentlemen and the entrancing music made a scene of beauty and pleasure rarely witnessed in these parts. Never before was there, in this borough, such a large assemblage of the youth and beauty of the valley. The grand march began at 9 o'clock, and at 11 the guests repaired to the banquet hall of the Valley House, where they enjoyed a most delicious and well-prepared menu provided by Proprietor W. H. Ball. Hayes' orchestra of 100 pieces, seated in a bower in the rear of the hall, discoursed their sweetest music during the progress of the feast. At its conclusion T. J. Swift, who was toastmaster, arose and, after briefly and aptly stating the purpose of the banquet, introduced the president of the club, W. T. Cummings. Mr. Cummings very appropriately outlined the purposes for which the club was organized, dwelt upon its accomplishments in the past and its prospects for the future. T. P. Moran ably responded to the toast, "Our Country," and told how and why we should love it. P. J. Kiddy spoke of "The Ladies" in a happy vein and gave advice to his fellows which they would do well to heed. T. W. Lotus paid a high compliment to "Our Public Schools." He spoke flatteringly of the work that had been done and the even greater good it is possible for them to do. B. M. Mitchell responded to the toast "Our Flag," and showed that he possessed oratorical powers of a rare order. His address was one of the features of the evening. J. A. Foote spoke briefly and entertainingly on "Music," and P. A. Pughlin spoke of "The Press." After the banquet the guests returned to the hall where the dancing resumed. Pleasant hours moving in the graceful measures of the dances. The affair was admirably conducted throughout and reflects much credit on the club and particularly on the energetic young men who manage it. While the previous annual socials of the club have always been great successes, that of Monday evening far eclipsed any of them, and will be long remembered by those who had the good fortune to be present. Among the guests from out of town were: Misses Mary Reedy, Nellie Curran, Tossie Mabee, May Moran, May and Jessie McGoldrick, Fannie Magee, Jessie Cavanagh, Jennie Gavin and Annie McKelvie, of Scranton.

The following were nominated: For burgess, S. J. Mathison; auditors, John Pritchard and Thomas C. Edwards; assessor, John Penman; justice of the peace, Richard Pettigrew; high constable, Benjamin Waugh; school director from Second ward, T. D. Evans.

FOREST CITY. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fleming, Miss Eva McLaughlin, Miss Lizzie McLaughlin, Ed. Edward Taylor, John Matey, F. Cunningham, and Oliver Coyle witnessed "A Trip to Chincotau" at the Grand Opera House, in Carbondale, Monday evening. J. T. Evans and John Evans, of Chincotau, were in the borough yesterday. The revivals this week are being held in the Methodist church, Monday evening, Rev. J. R. Egan, of the Baptist church, preached, choosing for his text Luke xiv. 18. "And they all with one consent began to make excuse," subject, "The Excuses." In the course of his remarks the speaker said: "This good man spoken of in the parable was under no obligations to give this supper. The supper is a type of the marriage supper of the Lamb, and those who refuse to come show their ingratitude to the one who invited them. An excuse is something manufactured for the occasion." The Second ward Democrats will hold their caucus tomorrow evening at the election return room in the basement of the Fleming House at 8 o'clock for the purpose of transacting such business as may properly come before it. The First ward Democrat voters will meet in McDonald's hall at 7:30 o'clock to nominate borough officers to be chosen in the February election.

DIPHTHERIA. Too many homes bear this fear-inspiring placard, denoting the prevalence of that most insidious and dreaded of all diseases--Diphtheria. It is to-day a recognized fact among the best practitioners that nine out of ten cases formerly considered hopeless may be brought to a happy termination by the use of that great original raw food product, Bovinine. This great blood-generating, life-maintaining, strength-developing and flesh-producing product of lean, raw meat, contains the greatest amount of life-preserving qualities in the least possible bulk of any preparation known. In cases of Diphtheria, Bovinine has special advantages. In this disease, as in all others, the rapidity with which it is assimilated gives to it a preference over all other foods, passing, as it does, into the system immediately, without causing the digestive organs to perform any labor. And considering the fact that the lesions in the throat prevent the swallowing of solid food, it becomes an absolute necessity. In the worst cases, where even liquids cannot be taken by the mouth, Bovinine by being used as an injection. Above all, Bovinine is in itself a germicide, and in all such diseases as Diphtheria, caused by microbes, it not only performs its greatest mission of maintaining life, but antitoxes the existing bacilli. Bovinine has done wonders in thousands of cases of Diphtheria. When your doctor uses it you may cease to worry, and be assured of a speedy recovery. To neglect its use may mean years of remorse in the feeling that some loved one might still be with you if everything possible had been done. Bovinine is sold by all Druggists.

Miss Maggie Leary, of Scranton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Thompson, of Belmont street. T. J. Thomas is around again after a brief illness.
