was terrible and it was only by the us hot application that he could obtain any rest at night. I sent him a box of Dr. Potter's Rheumatle Pills and after taking them, he is able to walk without his canes and can carry a pall of water in each hand from the well to the stable. The pain has all left him and last week he drove to see me, a distance of forty miles. He also had what the doctors pronounced a cancer on his face, which had been re-moved, leaving a hard lump. The pain in that was unbearable, but since taking the pills the pain has all left that, too, and he feels as well as ever. I regard his cure ar miraculous as he is seventy-five years old Anyone may learn the truth of this state
