

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT. SPECIAL SALE OF FINE MUSLIN UNDERWEAR At Exceedingly Low Prices.

January is one of the important months to purchasers of muslin underwear...

- CORSET COVERS Ladies' Fine Muslin Corset Cover, high neck, trimmed with embroidery...

- GOWNS. Pure Muslin Gown with Mother Hubbard yoke, with tucks and cambric ruffle...

- DRAWERS. Muslin Drawers, with tucks and cambric ruffle...

- SKIRTS. Fine Muslin Skirts, with cluster of tucks and wide hem...

DR. J. REEVES, 412 Spruce Street, Scranton.

Dr. Reeves has had long and varied experience in hospital and private practice...

ANNUAL CLEARING AND REMNANT SALE Prices Cut in Half See our Show Window to Be Convinced.

J. Scott Inglis 419 LACKAWANNA AVE. N. B.—Spring Wall Papers now open.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Myrtle Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days...

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart is very ill and not expected to live.

The Braintrim Messenger is now printed on the press of the New Age. Rev. W. M. Hiller went to Coxton today to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Eunice Haines.

At the coroner's inquest investigating the Waterman murder a year ago J. Wood Platt acted as clerk and took in writing the evidence of the witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, on Grove street, returned to Philadelphia yesterday. A sleighing party from Olyphant visited at Mrs. W. W. Watkins' residence on Grove street.

The voters of the First ward of Blakey will hold a caucus at the office of S. W. Arnold on Tuesday evening, Jan. 29, at 7:30.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will serve a dinner at the Grand Army hall next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jacobus visited friends in New Milford yesterday. Mrs. Henry Meriacle, who has been visiting friends in Carbondale, has returned home.

At the Republican caucus Tuesday evening Warren Simmrell and John Barber were elected delegates to the Republican county convention, to be held at Montrose on Friday of this week.

Mr. Henry Meriacle visited in the Parlor City yesterday. The first annual ball of Division No. 2, of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, of Great Bend, will be held in Kistler's hall, in that place, on Friday evening, Feb. 22.

Last evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hollenbeck, of Copeland avenue, occurred the marriage of Miss Isadore Hollenbeck and John J. Simpson.

TAYLOR.

Miss Mary Cassidy and James Monroe, both of the Sibley, were married yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Cathedral.

Miss Gertrude Atherton, of Clark's Summit, was a visitor here the forepart of this week. Miss Jettie Winslow will leave this morning to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends in Towanda.

Miss Elizabeth Graham, who has been spending several weeks in this place, has returned to her home in Avoca. Richard Watkins and Gomer Davis attended the Presbyterian church social at Moose Wednesday evening.

Tallie Jones was nominated auditor at the borough convention held in Wolschell's hall on Wednesday evening. It required four ballots to decide the result.

Miss Tessie Gilligan, of Archbald, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Michael McDonald, on Oak street. Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Jones were visiting in Moose on Tuesday.

John H. Neaty, who accompanied the sleigh riding party to Wyoming on Monday evening, had both of his eyes quite severely hurt by a mischievous boy, who was throwing snow balls at the party.

The sidewalks in the borough are in a most dangerous condition. Pedestrians are required to walk in the middle of the streets for fear of injuring themselves. To make it more dangerous, the small boys ride on the walks and people are often compelled to get in the gutter in order to let the boys pass.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the fire alarm was sounded. The whistle of the Honedale Shoe company, in the upper part of the borough, was also blown, and almost immediately a large crowd was rushing in that direction.

The last reports from the Brooklyn, Pa., oil district states that a depth of 2,500 feet has been reached, with encouraging indications, and that subscriptions are promised to continue 500 feet deeper if necessary.

Professor Hanrahan's dancing class at the Opera house commences evening. Miss Inez Shelp has returned from a visit among friends in southern New York.

DUNMORE.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Julia Fadden, of this place, and Martin Curry, of Binghamton.

S. B. Buckley is ill at his home on Grove street. A. B. Oliver, of Brook street, left home yesterday on a business trip. The funeral of Ann Ketrick, of No. 7, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from St. Mary's church.

Dr. Carty, A. C. Smith and Andrew Derby, who are conducting a school for educating the Italians in the English language, have about seventy-five scholars. The opening of this school is a move in the right direction which will serve to instill into these foreign dusky sons of toil American ideas, which will be helpful should they desire to become citizens.

A fair sized audience gathered at Manley's hall Tuesday evening to attend the drama, "Daughters of the King," given under the auspices of the Guild of St. Agnes. Seldom if ever has so excellent an entertainment of home talent been given in Dunmore.

Dr. Berlinghoff will be at the residence of Theodore Webber, on West Drinker street, every afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. Mrs. E. L. Stephens, of Hawley, and Mrs. S. A. Brown, of Lake Ariel, are visiting at the residence of W. J. Hand, on Mill street.

In order to save the right eye of Machinist Cobb, who was injured Monday by an explosion at the round house, it was found necessary to remove the injured one, which was successfully done at the Lackawanna hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Kruger, of Cherry street, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding Tuesday evening. A large number of friends were present and all enjoyed a pleasant time.

Miss Langon, of Scranton, is visiting friends here. Miss Mame Cleary has returned home from Newton Center. H. W. Rivenburg and Miss Rachel Linford, of Taylor, spent last evening with friends here.

Miss Mame Curley, of Platon, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Monday. There will be a caucus at Singer's hall on Saturday evening, and one at each of the school buildings. Revival meetings are being held at the Brick church every evening this week.

There was a match game of pool at the Central hotel on Monday night between Frank Savage, Joe Eagan and Captain J. W. Burns. The score was: Savage, 100 points; Eagan, 98 points; Burns, 75 points.

Good health gives strong muscles, firm nerves, clear brain. Quaker Oats gives good health. Sold only in 2 lb. Packages.

THE BELL CALLS ATTENTION TO Seven Stunning Specials From their Bankrupt Stock of the Hyde Park Clothing Store.

Our Great Bankrupt Sale is still in force, making low prices beyond belief on well-made Clothing and Gents' Furnishings.

Boys' Cape Overcoats, sold everywhere for $2.00; our price... .98 Boys' Double-breasted Suits and Cape Overcoats, sold everywhere for $2.50 and $3; our price... $1.48

Boys' Ulsters, sold everywhere for $4.75; our price... 3.24 Men's Wool Suits and Overcoats, sold everywhere for $8 and $9; our price... 4.75

Men's All Wool Suits, also Black and Blue Overcoats, sold everywhere for $12; our price... 7.65 Men's Dress Pants, black and fancy stripe, stylish patterns, sold everywhere for $5; our price... 2.48

Your choice of Men's All Wool Camels' Hair and Natural Wool or Red Medicated Underwear, sold everywhere for $1; our price... .59

GREAT ALTERATION SALE. $50,000 worth of Dry Goods, Notions, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Millinery, Cloaks, Furs, Infants' Wear, &c., TO BE CLOSED OUT REGARDLESS OF COST.

The Fair, 400 and 402 Lacka. Ave., Scranton, Pa. Lace Curtains

UPHOLSTERY FABRICS Suitable for hangings, in choice colorings, at $1.50 and $2.00 per yard; formerly $3.00 and $4.00 respectively.

SILK PLUSH In a splendid line of colors, $1.50, worth $2.50 per yard.

TABLE COVERS In all sizes and qualities, at moderate prices.

KERR, SIEBECKER & CO. 406 and 408 Lackawanna Ave.

Bell Clothing House 230 Lackawanna Ave. SIGN OF THE BELL. HOTEL WAVERLY European Plan, First-class Bar attached. Depot for Bergner & Engle's Tannhauser Beer.

ECONOMY'S ODD AND END AND REMNANT SALE That attracts shrewd buyers, and always results in highly satisfactory transactions.

HONEDALE.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the fire alarm was sounded. The whistle of the Honedale Shoe company, in the upper part of the borough, was also blown, and almost immediately a large crowd was rushing in that direction.

The fire started in the large double frame dwelling house of U. G. Ridgway, on upper East street. The building is occupied on the south side by U. G. Ridgway and wife, and on the north side by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bauman.

At the time of the fire Mr. Ridgway was out of town and his wife was not in the house. The fire started in the kitchen of Mr. Ridgway, in some unknown way and quickly spread to the floor above, and from there to the garage. The fire was well under way before the fire company arrived, but the flames were eventually gotten under control.

The fire started in the large double frame dwelling house of U. G. Ridgway, on upper East street. The building is occupied on the south side by U. G. Ridgway and wife, and on the north side by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bauman.

At the time of the fire Mr. Ridgway was out of town and his wife was not in the house. The fire started in the kitchen of Mr. Ridgway, in some unknown way and quickly spread to the floor above, and from there to the garage.

DURVEA.

Miss Langon, of Scranton, is visiting friends here. Miss Mame Cleary has returned home from Newton Center. H. W. Rivenburg and Miss Rachel Linford, of Taylor, spent last evening with friends here.

Miss Mame Curley, of Platon, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Monday. There will be a caucus at Singer's hall on Saturday evening, and one at each of the school buildings. Revival meetings are being held at the Brick church every evening this week.

There was a match game of pool at the Central hotel on Monday night between Frank Savage, Joe Eagan and Captain J. W. Burns. The score was: Savage, 100 points; Eagan, 98 points; Burns, 75 points.

Miss Langon, of Scranton, is visiting friends here. Miss Mame Cleary has returned home from Newton Center. H. W. Rivenburg and Miss Rachel Linford, of Taylor, spent last evening with friends here.

Miss Mame Curley, of Platon, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Monday. There will be a caucus at Singer's hall on Saturday evening, and one at each of the school buildings.

NEW MILFORD.

The last reports from the Brooklyn, Pa., oil district states that a depth of 2,500 feet has been reached, with encouraging indications, and that subscriptions are promised to continue 500 feet deeper if necessary.

The fire started in the large double frame dwelling house of U. G. Ridgway, on upper East street. The building is occupied on the south side by U. G. Ridgway and wife, and on the north side by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bauman.

At the time of the fire Mr. Ridgway was out of town and his wife was not in the house. The fire started in the kitchen of Mr. Ridgway, in some unknown way and quickly spread to the floor above, and from there to the garage.

The fire was well under way before the fire company arrived, but the flames were eventually gotten under control. The fire started in the large double frame dwelling house of U. G. Ridgway, on upper East street.

The building is occupied on the south side by U. G. Ridgway and wife, and on the north side by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bauman. At the time of the fire Mr. Ridgway was out of town and his wife was not in the house.

The fire started in the kitchen of Mr. Ridgway, in some unknown way and quickly spread to the floor above, and from there to the garage. The fire was well under way before the fire company arrived, but the flames were eventually gotten under control.

The fire started in the large double frame dwelling house of U. G. Ridgway, on upper East street. The building is occupied on the south side by U. G. Ridgway and wife, and on the north side by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bauman.

At the time of the fire Mr. Ridgway was out of town and his wife was not in the house. The fire started in the kitchen of Mr. Ridgway, in some unknown way and quickly spread to the floor above, and from there to the garage.

The fire was well under way before the fire company arrived, but the flames were eventually gotten under control. The fire started in the large double frame dwelling house of U. G. Ridgway, on upper East street.

MINOOKA.

Last evening the clerks in the Greenwood store went to Olyphant on a sleighride and enjoyed themselves in a very pleasant manner. Thomas Mullen and Thomas Kivlin, of Greenwood, are very ill.

Miss Ellen Davis, of Main street, will leave today for Brooklyn, N. Y., to take up her residence there. Three days a week in what the Greenwood collieries will operate until a different order is given.

Rev. D. H. Green, at St. Joseph's church, yesterday afternoon united in marriage Patrick J. Toole, of Back street, and Miss Maggie Loftus, of Stafford street. Miss Della Powell was bridesmaid, and Michael Dowd, of the South Side, was groomsmen.

In the evening a reception was held at Fash-hold's hall, attended by numerous friends of the couple. Thomas R. Lovring, of Greenwood, has received the nomination for school director on the Republican ticket in the Southwest district.

Christy Fasshold is spoken of as burgess in connection with the movement to form Minooka into a borough. Monday afternoon a Polish couple was married in Greenwood and invitations were sent out to all friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The wedding feast was continued until last night, and the peaceful residents of the rustic community say they never saw such a lively time since the day they were born.

Every evening on the skating pond at Greenwood may be seen large numbers of young folks indulging in the popular and healthy winter pastime.

Dr. John Hamlin, The Acknowledged Expert in Horseshoeing and Dentistry, is Now Permanently Located on West Lackawanna Ave., Near the Bridge.

MR. D. STERLING MITZEL WINTERSTOWN, PA. Nerves and Blood Strengthened and Purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE BELL CALLS ATTENTION TO Seven Stunning Specials From their Bankrupt Stock of the Hyde Park Clothing Store.

Our Great Bankrupt Sale is still in force, making low prices beyond belief on well-made Clothing and Gents' Furnishings.

Boys' Cape Overcoats, sold everywhere for $2.00; our price... .98 Boys' Double-breasted Suits and Cape Overcoats, sold everywhere for $2.50 and $3; our price... $1.48

Boys' Ulsters, sold everywhere for $4.75; our price... 3.24 Men's Wool Suits and Overcoats, sold everywhere for $8 and $9; our price... 4.75

Men's All Wool Suits, also Black and Blue Overcoats, sold everywhere for $12; our price... 7.65 Men's Dress Pants, black and fancy stripe, stylish patterns, sold everywhere for $5; our price... 2.48

Your choice of Men's All Wool Camels' Hair and Natural Wool or Red Medicated Underwear, sold everywhere for $1; our price... .59

There's a certain attraction about ECONOMY'S ODD AND END AND REMNANT SALE

That attracts shrewd buyers, and always results in highly satisfactory transactions. IT'S NOT NECESSARY TO TELL YOU HOW

Prices have been "Chopped," "Slaughtered," "Butchered," "Razored," "Cut," Etc., Etc. SUFFICE TO SAY

Prices of motive power have been used, and success the result. OUR EQUITABLE CREDIT SYSTEM PREDOMINATES In All Departments.

"All our goods yours for the promise to pay." Economy Furniture CO. 225 & 227 WYOMING AVENUE. WM. T. SMITH.