CASTORIA is truly a marvelous thing for children. Doctors prescribe it, medical journals recommend it and more than a million mothers are using it in cases of colic, diarrhea, worms, teething, whooping cough, and all other ailments of the stomach and bowels. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, quiets pain, cures diarrhoea, kills colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea--the mother's friend. Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.

Dear Sir: I have a little boy 12 months old, and I have been giving him Castoria since he was 4 months old. He has never had a day's sickness, although he has been sick through the hot summer months, and I can give all the credit to Castoria. He now weighs 26 pounds. So hereafter I will always recommend Castoria to all my friends as the best medicine to give children, not only when they are teething but for other complaints for which they suffer from. Yours truly, EDWIN C. MEYERS.

Winter Doings Among Prominent Leaders of the Season's Gaity.

PARTIES, WEDDINGS AND TEAS

The Gamut of the Week's Events Sound in Short Paragraphs--Guests and Entertainers--Personal Mention Reduced to a Compact Compass.

By his grace, Archbishop Ryan, at St. Patrick's cathedral, West Rittenhouse square, Philadelphia, at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, Dr. George H. Kirwan, of Wilkes-Barre, and Miss Maude De Vere Ashbrook were wedded.

Dr. Kirwan is well known to Wilkes-Barreans, and Miss Ashbrook is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Joseph Ashbrook, of Philadelphia, a graduate of the Convent of Notre Dame, West Rittenhouse square, and known to a few Wilkes-Barre people as having spent a part of last winter here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Leahan, of South River street, and who charmed by her presence and refinement those who made her acquaintance.

The wedding was strictly private, only near relatives of the contracting parties being notified of it. Miss Mary Heilmann, of Reading, attended the bride, and James L. Morris, of Pittston, performed a like duty for the groom. Doctor and Mrs. Kirwan left at once on the Pennsylvania train for a two weeks' trip through the south, and upon their return to Wilkes-Barre will take up their residence at the Wyoming Valley hotel. Those present from Wilkes-Barre were Dr. Kirwan's mother and his sister, Maria--Wilkes-Barre Record.

At 8:20 o'clock Friday night in the First Presbyterian church occurred the wedding of Miss Jessie Gay Blair to Frederick Joseph Platt. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. James McLeod, according to the ritual of the Protestant Episcopal church. The bride is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin B. Blair, of 401 Jefferson avenue. Mr. Platt is the manager and engineer of the Scranton Electric Construction company and a son of J. C. Platt, of Waterford, N. Y., and a grandson of J. C. Platt, deceased, of this city. The bride is the daughter of the late Mrs. Frances E. Hunt, Scranton; bridesmaids, Miss Alice Ballantine, Newark, N. J.; Mae Bell, Paterson, N. J.; Eliza McCormick, Harrisburg; Alice Swaby, Seneca Falls, N. Thursday's Wilkes-Barre Record says: "There was an enthusiastic gathering of Kirmess participants at Memorial hall last evening, and full evidence was given that the forthcoming event will be one of the most attractive of its kind that ever occurred in this vicinity. The money received, after expenses are paid, goes into the fund of Conyngham post, to be used in liquidating the heavy debt of $20,000 still hanging on Memorial hall. The Ladies' Whist will of itself be well worth going a long way to see. Professor Holt, the director, is bending his best efforts toward giving the city a gorgeous series of torchparches, and will succeed beyond all question of doubt. A pretty and unique feature will be a Tom Thumb's work, in which a company of little tots take part."
