Many Apples Buried.
Hundreds of barrels of apples and potatoes are buried under the snow in towns around Nashua, N. H. The snow came so early, and having remained, will cause a considerable loss to many local farmers. One farmer in Hudson has 150 bushels of potatoes yet in the ground.
My physician said I could not live, my liver out of order, frequently vomited greenish mucus, skin yellow, small dry humors on face, stomach would not retain food. Burdock Blood Purifier cured me. Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 372 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY
TUNKHANNOCK.

J. H. Withrow started for North Carolina the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Thaniel Wintermute have returned from Carbondale. The marriage of Charles Berlinghoff to a Boston young lady last October has just leaked out sufficiently to be detected at this distance. Charlie is a competent stenographer in a business office in Boston, but was born and brought up here. A rich old uncle who is likely to make the bride his heir does not detract any from the interest his friends here take in the case.

The Farmers' Stock company which purposed to bore for oil at Carpenter Hollow is applying for a charter in West Virginia. The charter fees down there are not so high as here, and they can be incorporated much more cheaply. They can operate in this state by paying a nominal fee.

The congressional conference for the Fifteenth district will meet in this place on Wednesday next to nominate a man to fill both the long and short terms in congress which would have been filled by M. B. Wright had he lived. Each county in the district has a man to present, and a stubborn fight is anticipated. Enough tickets have been pledged to warrant making the arrangements for the University Extension lectures, and the first address will be made by Homer B. Sprague at the court house on the evening of Feb. 6. A house to house canvass will be made and it is hoped that many more tickets will be sold. The proceeds, if there are any after paying the expenses, will go into a fund for defraying the expenses of future lectures.

The storm of rain and slush here on Saturday morning was now back on the mountains, and the Montrose railway crew struggled with snowdrifts all day.

A traveling peanut vender set up his roaster on the sidewalk in front of Fargo's news stand Saturday and did quite a traffic with passers by.

Mrs. D. C. Cleghorn has been quite seriously ill for some time.

A small amount of stock has been taken here in the proposed telephone line to connect this place and Montrose, but people are a little loath to invest in an enterprise that advises Montrose only. "The Montrose Telephone company" is all right as a local organization, but when it stretches out to reach Tunkhannock, and our capitalists are invited to assist, they feel that it is no more than fair that Tunkhannock be acknowledged in the title. "The Montrose railway" gives no intimation to the world that the road goes anywhere only around the City on the Hill.

Mrs. John Bell is in very poor health. The county auditors, who adjourned on account of court, will meet again Tuesday to complete their work. Late matrimonial candidates are: Willie D. Burgess and Nora E. Ward, of North Branch township; Leonard Heller and Catharine Everett, of Montrose county, Pa.

The Democrats of Tunkhannock township met Saturday and nominated the following ticket: Assessor, G. W. Ferris; judge of election, E. S. London; inspector, C. D. Shupp; school directors, S. A. Shupp, David Michaels; constable, William Ellis; poor master, C. T. Lane; auditor, J. D. Inman; justice of the peace, W. M. Stark; town clerk, Wallace Jennings; treasurer, Jacob Wilsey.

The yearly accounts of the prothonotary and register were audited by J. Wood Platt Saturday.

The Scranton Tribune list is growing under the efforts of Frank Vandogher, who is pushing the circulation here. The Tribune stands in the front rank of inland city dailies, and is worthy of a place in every home.

HONESDALE.

E. J. Jordan, Republican candidate for congress from Wyoming county, and wife called on a number of friends in Honesdale, Saturday.

Miss Lena Jungfoel was united in marriage to Otto Rust, of New York, at the home of William Gliske Saturday afternoon. Rev. William Schmidt performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Rust left on the Erie for New York, having the best wishes of their many friends.

Rev. John N. Lewis has about completed his order for services during Lent. One of the principal features will be an address by an out-of-town clergyman every Friday night. A different clergyman will have the service each Friday. On Wednesday nights a boy choir will lead the singing.

A very successful oyster supper was given at the city hall by members of the German Lutheran church on Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. D. Weston left for Chicago last week, where she was met by her husband. They will spend a short time in the western metropolis.

Pipe broke out in the residence of P. M. Monaghan Friday night, but was extinguished before much damage was done. The fire company responded promptly, but were not needed. The alarm was sounded about 7 o'clock and brought out a large crowd.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.
"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by C. M. Harris, 125 Penn avenue and Carl Lorenz, druggists, Scranton.

DURYEA.

Miss Anna Egan, of Ithaca, N. Y., who has been visiting the family of James Walsh for the past three weeks, returned home Saturday.

Miss Katie Cunningham, of Pittston, called on friends and attended the masquerade Friday evening. John Toole captured the prize for the most original costume at the masquerade ball Friday evening. He appeared as a Japanese soldier. "Squire Gilroy called on friends in Parsons Thursday. Miss Katie Bolan, of South Scranton, visited friends here Saturday. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Rogan was burned to death Thursday morning. Mrs. Rogan left the house for a short time to visit a neighbor, leaving the child asleep. During the storm Friday night part

CARBONDALE.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kellow and little daughter, Lulu, returned home Friday evening from a week's visit with relatives in Honesdale. The resignation of the board of hospital trustees for the coming year was held on Friday evening. It resulted in the re-election of all the old officers as follows: President, William Walker; secretary, M. F. Norton; treasurer, James Scott.

Mrs. Pierce Butler has issued cards for an "at home" at her residence, 52 Cannon street, on Wednesday afternoon. Tea will be served at 6 o'clock. This evening (Monday) a "club" social will be given at the home of Miss Grace Smith on Garfield avenue. All the friends of Trinity Guild are invited to attend.

On Friday evening, Jan. 25, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lamereaux were married twenty years and they made the occasion one which will not be forgotten in many a day. They were married by Rev. W. B. Grover in the home where they now reside and where they have lived continuously since that time. Among their guests on the occasion of celebration on Friday evening was Mrs. Charles A. Munn, who was bride-maid at the wedding twenty years ago. She was Miss Florence Kelly. Those who attended the eventful affair were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Lewalle, Mr. and Mrs. George Kellow, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. P. Storeh, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tarcoe, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Keegan, Mr. and Mrs. George Keegan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Munn, Mr. and Mrs. John Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Rolis, Mr. and Mrs. George Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Vail, Mrs. Isaac Newton, Mrs. Lewis Correll, Miss Carrie Geary, Miss Florence Colwell and Miss Lulu Kellow.

A sleighride party which left this city Friday evening for Waymart were unable to return as expected on account of the severe storm which started after their departure. They did not arrive in Carbondale until about 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

A party of Knights of Pythias and their friends enjoyed a sleighride to Green Ridge on Saturday evening.

Misses Minnie Mohr and Mame Waterfield spent Sunday with friends in Scranton.

OLYPIANT.

The Adonis Dramatic society are making final preparations for the production of the great Irish drama, "The Irish Statesman," on Thursday evening, Feb. 7. The play was written by Carroll Johnson, the distinguished actor. Grand and elaborate scenery has been secured for the occasion, which includes a stage deck of a steamer and Castle Garden, New York. The singing and dancing will be one of the pleasing features. Many other specialties will be introduced during the evening.

E. G. Lloyd has removed his jewelry store to Scranton.

S. N. Calender has returned from New York city.

The Druckenmiller family, a party of musicians, will appear in the Young Men's Christian union hall this evening under the auspices of that society.

The Opera House orchestra will hold a grand ball on Friday evening, Feb. 22. C. M. Putnam, of Deposit, N. Y., was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mr. Charles Lewatoy and son, Robert, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Berry, of Blakely.

At the Second ward caucus of the Democrats the following nominations were made by acclamation: For council, R. J. Gallagher; for school director, P. F. Hanlick; for assessor, P. H. McCann; for constable, John J. Murray; for judge of election, George Ferguson; for inspector of election, George Prokopovits; M. W. Cummings, esq., was chairman and P. H. Gibbons secretary of the meeting.

Quincy troubled me for twenty years. Since I started using Dr. King's Kidney Pills, I have not had an attack. The oil cures sore throat at once. Mrs. Letta Conrad, Standish, Mich., Oct. 24, '93.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It softens the child, softens the gums, always all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea, sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

MINOOKA.

Miss Anna Lovering, of Greenwood, was visiting in Dunmore yesterday. Thomas Mullen, of Greenwood, is dangerously ill and his recovery is very doubtful.

The drama, "Among the Breakers," will be presented at Father Mathew hall tonight under the auspices of O'Connell council, Young Men's Institute. The players comprise some of the young folks of the place who have given their time and attention to the preparation of themselves for a capable presentation of the play, and it is said by those who have seen the rehearsals lately that a treat is in store for all who attend.

Anthony Burke will make a model constable, if elected. He has the right ideas as to how the duties of that office should be discharged.

SOME DAZZLING SALARIES.

Incredible Prices Which Opera Singers Have Received.

The fabulous sums paid opera singers is one of the curious phases of theatrical life. It is reported this season that Tamagno, Jean De Reszke and Mme. Melba will receive, the Italian, $1,500; the Pole, $1,500, and the Australian, $1,500 a night. With these enormous sums to be paid, the management could not afford to pay extravagant remuneration to the lesser singers.

Mme. Eames, whose last season was somewhat dimmed by the brilliant art of Melba and the magnetic personality of Calve, will have no increase on the salary of $800 paid to her during the operative year of 1893-4. Sibyl Sanderson and Zelle De Lussan will, it is hinted, receive $250 and $200. Mme. Nordica is said to have been offered $20,000 for the season, or at the rate of $200 a night.

Scrofula

The Worst Case the Doctors Ever Saw
Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."
"Dear Sirs—I wish to testify to the great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For some time I had been troubled with scrofula, which early last winter assumed a very bad form."
Sores Appeared on My Face
and hands gradually increased in number until they reached to my shoulder. The doctors said it was the worst case of scrofula they ever saw and also went so far as to say it was incurable. I tried ointments and other remedies but to no avail. A friend recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla, and although I was completely discouraged, as a last chance I resolved to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I noticed the sores had commenced to heal. After the sixth bottle I was cured.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Sarsaparilla, and although I was completely discouraged, as a last chance I resolved to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I noticed the sores had commenced to heal. After the sixth bottle I was cured.

They Were All Healed.

I continued to take it, however, until I had used nine bottles, and now I am perfectly well."
MISS KATIE ROSENGRANT, Ulster, Penn.

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient, yet easy in action. Sold by all druggists, 25c.
