WORK OF RESCUE MISSION.

Many Conversions Have Been Wrought Through Its Efforts. There are few institutions in the city that are doing more practical work to help humanity than the Rescue mission. Last Sunday evening nearly 100 young men were present and joined with the others in the spirited song service and gave the best attention to the address given on "Two Gates, Two Ways, Two Classes, and Two Destinations." Following the address was a testimonial meeting, in which those that had been redeemed from a life of sin testified to the change in their lives and homes since they came under the
