$5 REWARD! So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES. After Feb. 1 the Scranton Dairy company will sell milk for 6 cents per quart. The regular monthly meeting of the Home managers will occur tomorrow morning at 9:30. A meeting of the board of health will be held in the municipal building tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church will serve a supper in the church parlors Friday evening at 6 o'clock. In the action of J. J. Moran against R. E. Leonard, Judge Archibald yesterday handed down an opinion granting a new trial. William T. Morgan, who was arrested for stealing a pair of rubber from Deckel's hotel, on the West Side, was yesterday fined $2.50. Owen Lawland, of Olyphant, was brought to the Lackawanna hospital yesterday, having his leg fractured by a fall of roof in the Blue Ridge colliery. He was reported to be resting easy last evening. The stock in the novelty store of Meyer Cohen, at 511 Lackawanna avenue, was sold yesterday by Sheriff Clemons. R. Swartz, of Wilkes-Barre, an execution creditor, purchased for $1,125. The amount of the judgments entered against Cohen was $2,150. Judge Peck, of Bradford county, yesterday filed with Prothonotary Pryor an opinion in the case of John P. Jones against C. W. Maxwell, C. W. Jones and M. Watson in which he grants a new trial. The suit was in replevin to recover a span of horses. Stockholders of the Scranton Glass company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at 31 Lackawanna avenue, and the result of the deliberations was that a most anxious future for the business of the company is expected. Another meeting will be held next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Elm Park Zenith will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp at the home of Mrs. F. W. Lange, 210 Adams avenue. Special arrangements have been made to have a delightful programme. There will be readings, recitations, solos and the Zenith quartette will render good selections. The polling place of North Abington township as it formerly existed, being located in that portion of the township recently erected into the borough of Waverly, court yesterday made an order directing that hereafter the polling place was appointed judge of election, H. ARREST OF A BURGLAR.

Sire committed to the County Jail in Default of $1,000 Bail. A burglar giving the name of John Doe, of Meridian street, in the Fifteenth ward, was committed to the county jail yesterday by Alderman Fitzsimmons upon a charge of burglariously entering the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station at Lackawanna. Flagman Bliss, of a coal train, saw the prisoner and another young man walking along the railroad near the depot in a suspicious manner and gave chase, capturing the prisoner under the name of John Doe. He was searched and several express packages were found upon him, containing watches and razors and a guitar belonging to Station Agent McCollum. Six revolvers were also found in his possession. He was brought to the city in charge of Detective S. B. Stillwell and taken before Alderman Fitzsimmons. George Keller, hardware dealer of 119 Penn avenue, identified the revolvers as his property, and part of the goods which were stolen from his store on Saturday evening when the front window was smashed. Alderman Fitzsimmons committed the accused to the county jail in default of $1,000 bail. Prisoner refused to give his name at the hearing, but on his way to the jail told Constable Hennegan that his name was Sire. In the commitment, however, his name appears as "John Doe."

NEEDS ANOTHER SHOULDER.

Gilroy Can't Carry Three Kinds of Political Water on the Number Nature Has Provided Him With—The Political Puzzle of the Year. A new political party has been formed in the Seventh ward which some humorist named the "True Democratic party." The subtle quality of the party is manifest in the naming of M. F. Gilroy as its candidate for common council. That statesman is apparently a monopolist, for aside from the nomination of the "True Democrats," he also filed certificates of nomination as the candidate of the Democratic and Republican parties. When getting, he believes in getting enough. About three weeks ago Gilroy obtained a Democratic nomination at a caucus which his opponents say was of the alleged order. But that did not satisfy him. He longed for a Republican nomination and without the formality of a regular caucus, he obtained it, much to the indignation of the majority of the Republican voters of the ward, who knew nothing about the proceedings. Still the aspiring statesman was not satisfied. Another nomination must be obtained, and the True Democratic party, with a membership of nine, sprang into existence that there need be no more halting between the old parties at each election, uncertain where to jump. The nomination papers making Gilroy the candidate of these nine good men and true were filed Tuesday night. The signatures to it are T. J. Garrity, Jr., D. J. Roche, Patrick Toole, Patrick V. Scamion, William H. Scamion, John Devanney, Dr. J. F. Saltry, James Maloney, and Michael Rannon. Of these D. J. Roche, Patrick Toole, Patrick V. Scamion and James Maloney acted as members of the vigilance committee that conducted the Democratic caucus that nominated Gilroy as the regular Democratic nominee and T. J. Garrity, Jr., is a candidate for a district office on the regular Democratic ticket. That's the peculiar feature of the new party. As to Gilroy, nothing less powerful than Dr. Cole's electric eye would apparently now be able to ascertain his political complexion. Thomas Clark also claims the regular Democratic nomination for common council, and his attorney was yesterday engaged preparing exceptions to the Democratic certificate of nomination of Gilroy.

MONTROSE ELOQUENCE.

A Pathetic Appeal to Judge Searle Which Had Not the Desired Effect. Alderman C. Donovan has returned from Montrose, where he has been engaged on professional matters and relates a good story of legal eloquence which occurred on Tuesday. A leading member of the younger bar was making application on behalf of a Hungarian for a hotel license in Forest city, and made a great plea that his client possessed all the attributes essential to ministering to the comforts of the Huns of that city, and concluded with the following peroration: "Your honor, imagine yourself for a moment, tramping the streets of Montrose, after a thousand years of serfdom, trying to make your way through a forest of education and intelligence, but by brute force." The members of the bar tittered and Judge Searle straightened up and eyed the young Demosthenes for a moment, and marked the application "refused."

BOY THIEVES CAUGHT.

They Have Operated in a Systematic Manner. Officers Perry and Day yesterday arrested two boys named M. P. and P. M. Hannis, of Hampton street, who have been carrying on systematic robberies at the store of Moody & Gould, on Seventh street. PRESENT AND THE PAST

Mrs. Baldwin Gave Frothingham Audience Glimpses of Both.

QUESTIONS SHE ANSWERED

Told Mr. Archer Where His Brother Was, Whom He Has Not Heard from in Twenty Years—Load Taken Off Joe Church's Mind. Still greater interest was manifested in the wonderful performance of Mrs. Baldwin at the Frothingham last evening. All the seats of the spacious house was occupied. Mrs. Baldwin was brought on the stage in a hypnotized state by her husband about 10 o'clock after the first part of the programme was performed. She immediately began to disclose the sights she saw in her vision and told C. Seybolt that the Olyphant bank would wound up so successfully that all the depositors would be paid in full. Mrs. William Snyder was informed that her father's watch had been stolen by John Dempsey, who had decamped to New Orleans. Mr. Baldwin further questioned his wife, who explained that the watch had been stolen on a ship on the Atlantic coast. The minute details which she gave of the theft, and which were corroborated by Mrs. Snyder, created sensation in the audience. The watch lay at present in a pawnshop on Charles street in that city. Miss Agnes of the fraternity was pronounced and received the interesting information that she would be the proud mother of six children, the result of two unions in the holy bonds of matrimony. She would live to be 78 years of age. Mrs. Fanny Rose was informed that her money and rings had been stolen by a Mary Miller. Did Not Ride the Goat. Alfred Shockland, who was anxious about the fate of a white cat, was informed that it had been carried away to Pittsburg. Mrs. Baldwin was asked as to Mr. Shockland's whereabouts at the time of the robbery and she said that he was at the "World's Fair." This was confirmed by him as correct. Mrs. Kate Trucks had written a question as to "whether it was really true that her husband rode a goat when he was made a Mason." Mrs. Baldwin divulged the secrets of the fraternity and comforted Mrs. Trucks by stating that she was the subject of a practical joke. Carl McKenna, manager of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, was assured that success awaited him in his new venture. Dr. Hampton, of Carbondale, was next mentioned, but Mrs. Baldwin said that she was one of the oldest clairvoyants in the country and his power was too strong. Dr. Hampton acknowledged that he had been a clairvoyant for forty-six years. William Barrett had written on a scrap of paper, which he held tightly clenched in his hand, "What will the child be, when an adult?" He was confronted by the reply "A boy in six weeks." Mr. Hopewell was informed that the reason "the police did not compel the rich as well as the poor to clean the sidewalks" was that the force was too good-natured. H. H. Archer was informed that his brother William was in Galveston, Texas. "How long has it since this gentleman has heard from his brother?" asked her husband. "Twenty years," Mrs. Baldwin promptly replied, and this Mr. Archer said was correct. In reply to Joseph Miller, Mrs. Baldwin stated that type-setting machines would be set up in the Truth and Republic offices within fifteen months. She also prophesied that Governor Pattison would be the next mayor of Philadelphia. Was Not Bought Over. The greatest excitement of the evening, however, was caused when the lady inquired for Joseph Church and told him that "the man he was thinking of had not been bought over."

SOCIAL OF THE CLERKS.

Enjoyable Affair Held in Excelsior Hall, Wyoming Avenue. The association of retail clerks, known as the Twentieth Century club, held a delightful social at Excelsior hall on Wyoming avenue last night which was attended by a large number of young people. The ladies were handsomely gowned and as the dancers moved about to the inspiring music of the dance a very pretty picture was formed. Those present from out of town were: Misses Reiley, Davis, Moore and Russell, and Messrs. Evans, Nolan, O'Malley and Atkinson, of Wilkes-Barre, and Misses Murphy and Cusick, of Pittston. Those in charge of the social were: Master of ceremonies, M. A. O'Malley; committee of arrangements, Myles J. K. Levy, Nelson G. Teets, John Webb, Edna Wilson, A. H. Abrams; floor committee, William H. Williams, Joseph Custard, Harry Edward, Will T. Collins; door committee, Joseph Stonedfield, Thomas Mullen; reception committee, John Webb, Nelson G. Teets, John Collins, M. H. Griffith, Will Webb, George Silkman, Charles Nolan. Republican Caucus at Pritchburg. The Republicans of Dickson City borough held a caucus at Erbe's hall, Pritchburg, Tuesday night, over which Charles Snyder presided. The following candidates were nominated: For justice of the peace, John Swilinski; council, W. H. Messer, Evans, Mullen; school directors, M. Kane and W. W. Williams; assessor, J. A. Baron; auditor, William Kennedy; high constable, S. Carris; judge of election, Andrew Harwin; inspector of election, Peter Meenan. Skating at the Driving Park. Several comedy situations are interspersed in the play and afford a well-

THAT DOUBLE TRACK AGAIN

Railway Committee Meets and Adjourns Without Taking Action.

PETITIONS FOR AND AGAINST

Some Residents of the Street Believe That Two Tracks Would Be a Good Thing While Others Are Convinced They Would Have a Contrary Effect. Adjournment was taken last night without any definite action by the railway committee of common council. The meeting was called to deal with the ordinance granting the Scranton Suburban Street Railway company the privilege of moving its tracks to one side of Franklin avenue, to enable the other track to be laid between Spruce street and Lackawanna avenue by the Scranton Traction company. The plain statements of facts is that the ordinance, which has already passed in secret through the select council and is now before the common council, was granted and when the final hearing passed, Judge Gunster handed down an opinion making the injunction permanent, the principal reason being that the Scranton Traction company had agreed to move the track of the Suburban company without first having received permission from the city council. Petition Favoring Ordinance. The ordinance now pending is for the purpose of granting leave to the Scranton Traction company to move the Suburban tracks. The ordinance was signed by the following persons living in the block: Peter Ziegler, W. A. Beemer, Bittenbender & Co., James Ferguson, O. A. Beemer, Mary Moore, W. H. Whyte, Union Transfer company, J. H. Jackson, Joseph Godfrey, J. H. Hyne, for estate of P. J. Hyne, of Carbondale, M. A. Byrne, M. A. Kern, for estate of F. Kearney; Victor Koch, Edward H. Lynde and August Robinson, trustees for Order of Elks; B. Lehman, John M. Williams, B. Silverstone. Against the Measure. A counter petition stated that the passage of the ordinance would deprive the majority of the merchants doing business in the block would be forced to seek other quarters; two tracks on the street would take up so much room that wagons could not be unloaded at the front entrances. The petition went to represent the following persons desired by the Traction company one track on Franklin avenue is enough to meet the demand. This paper had the following signatures: G. J. Babcock, J. J. Jermyn, I. L. Everhart, Megargel & Connell, the Scranton Packing company, Washburn, Moen Manufacturing company, Matthews Bros., D. W. Burr, Charles B. Scott, James Jordan, T. J. Healey, M. J. Kearney, J. J. Kearney, T. A. Healey, George B. Carson, Joseph Levy, Louis N. Kramer, T. W. Keller, Carson & Davies, William P. Davis, Solomon & Zimmerman, S. W. Keller, J. McGlow, Lorenz Zeller and James M. Everhart. When both petitions had been read Mr. Robathan took the floor and suggested that the property owners or residents of the avenue, and a good sized number of them were present to allow to state their grievances. Messrs. Scott and Everhart were the only two who spoke and their arguments were against the ordinance. The gist of their talk was much the same as the arguments in their petition. They Will Visit the Avenue. In view of the fact that a full membership of the committee was not present an adjournment was taken. The next meeting of the committee will be held on the call of the chairman. In the meantime they will visit the avenue and become personally acquainted with all the facts bearing upon the case. GETTING LISTS READY. Duplicates Will Soon Be Placed in the Hands of Delinquent Tax Collectors. IT IS A DISGRACE TO THE CITY

Providence Police Station Condemned by Public Building Committee.

Common Councilman Daniel P. Battle, of the Twentieth ward, is chairman of the public buildings committee of the lower branch of the councils, and yesterday in company with Mr. Hickey, of the Nineteenth ward, and Mr. Norton, of the Twenty-first, he examined the North End police station. After looking through the murky chambers of the place and emerging into the outside world, he said with a look of supreme disgust: "That place is not fit to keep a yellow dog in, and as chairman of the public buildings committee of common council, I am going to recommend to the estimates committee that they appropriate an amount that will provide, at least, decent quarters for a police station for Providence." Mr. Battle is an extensive contractor and has had large experience in houses, building and sanitary work, and he declared that the present condition of the Market Street station is against all rules of health and the city deserves censure for allowing it to remain as it is. His opinion was shared by Messrs. Hickey and Norton. APPRAISERS NAMED. They Will Ascertain the Assets of the Olyphant Trust Company. Attorney J. P. Kelly, assignee of the Olyphant Trust company, petitioned court yesterday for the appointment of appraisers to value the estate of the bank, and A. H. Christy and J. H. Gunster were appointed by Judge Edwards. Mr. Kelly is busily engaged in arranging the affairs of the bank, and will secure the services of a competent accountant to work under his supervision in order to ascertain as soon as possible the position of the accounts and the general standing of the bank. The directors, assignee and others interested, will meet tomorrow for the purpose of discussing the matter thoroughly and to endeavor to formulate plans for an expeditious settlement of the difficulty. Mr. Stone, the ex-cashier, who, by reason of his connection with the bank, has a knowledge of all its details, is assisting in preparing a statement of affairs and explaining any points which may be difficult to understand. There is a growing feeling in Olyphant among persons having claims against the bank to speak upon the matter that the affairs of the bank may be settled at an earlier date than is generally anticipated, and that re-organization will soon follow so that Olyphant will if these hopes are realized. Indications are growing daily that no criminal charges will be followed up after the affairs of the bank are finally explained, and the friends of Mr. Stone expressed themselves with increasing interest yesterday that he will not be compelled to appear at court to answer the charges upon which he was arrested.
