NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

Miller S. Allen and E. S. Warner, of Montrose; Stanley W. Little and E. Ashman Parsons, of Towanda; R. M. Stocker and John Kubbick, of Honesdale, were among the political gladiators who attended the Democratic conference meeting here.

A sleighing of young Methodists went to Hill City last evening to hear the address of Rev. H. H. Wilbur, at the Epworth league rally.

Elmer E. Brown has recuperated from his illness sufficiently to be out again.

The result of the Republican congressional conference is highly satisfactory to the people of this section. Although Wyoming county gets but the short end of the honors, it is as much as could have been expected under the circumstances, and it will not be necessary to do any patching up during the campaign to create harmony. The party will work with one accord, not only for the election of Mr. Jordan, but for Mr. Coddling's success as well. There is a kindly feeling also for Homer Greene, the Honesdale man, and should he be a candidate for the succeeding term we doubt not that Wyoming and Bradford would both fall in line for his support.

The B class at the high school took a merry jaunt to B. W. Brown's, East Lemon, Thursday evening.

George Forrest, night operator at the depot, will commence housekeeping in the Slawson tenement house on Third street.

A number of Keiserville people came to town last evening to attend the production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The county auditors have finished their work and the statement is in the hands of the printers.

George S. Hill, a Mehoopany druggist, has received a patent for a device for moistening gummed surfaces, such as envelope flaps, etc.

The Laporte Republican and the Wyoming Democrat have gone to calling each other names, and there is blood on the moon.

The funeral of Thomas, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hitchcock, will occur at their residence, on Gravel Hill, at 2 p. m. today. Rev. Hine, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate. The cause of death was pneumonia.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Will Harding to Miss Ada Harris. The event will take place St. Valentine's Day.

Word comes from Nicholson that Byron Ace, formerly of this place, was struck on the arm by flying fragments of rock while blasting in a quarry, and suffered a fracture of the wrist. Another piece would have pierced his body and probably ended his life but for the intervention of his watch.

FOREST CITY.

Charles LeRoy Wheeler, of Scranton, was a visitor in town yesterday. There was a meeting of the Forest City Republican club, at Davies' hall, last night.

The news of the defeat of Susquehanna's candidate for the congressional nomination caused much regret here and elsewhere through the county, but that will not hinder us from giving James H. Coddling, of Bradford, a rousing majority when election comes around.

Policeman Levi Bunting, H. E. Riefler, Walter Brain and George Martin went fishing at Long pond, over in Wayne county, Thursday, and came home at night with 152 perch and pickerel. It was the last day of the season, but they improved it well.

A social will be held at Davies' hall on Feb. 15. The committee of arrangements is composed of Thomas Reid, Hugh Murphy and John F. McCabe.

Yesterday morning James Ordling and his left leg broken. He was riding up Dundaff street with one of the Richmond teams, and when about half way up the hill jumped off the sleighs. He stepped on one side of the road just as Harry Dolph came shooting along on a hand sled. The sled struck him fairly, throwing him to one side and shattering both bones of his leg. Dr. Dwyer was called and reduced the fracture.

Charles Fallon received a painful injury in a very simple manner, while at work in the mines of the Hillside Coal and Iron company yesterday morning. He was close to the wall and bending over when he raised up quickly and a ragged piece of coal struck him over the right eye, cutting a deep hole. Dr. Dwyer found it necessary to take two stitches to close the wound.

H. K. Vaughn, a former resident of Forest City, but now inhabiting the chief town of Rainbow county, called on his many warm friends here yesterday. Hugh is now in the employ of the Antracite.

D. W. Brewster, the commissioner appointed by the court to take evidence in last spring's contested election cases, has handed in his report. If the court approves it, the present Democratic councilmen, John McDonald and Fred Wellbrook, will continue to hold their seats, and E. C. Danner, Democrat, will take J. G. Westcott's place as collector of taxes. However, the court has not passed on the matter yet, and "that is another story."

The capital stock of the Forest City Car and Manufacturing company has been increased to $20,000 and $14,000 has already been taken, 10 per cent of which has been already paid in. A charter was applied for this week. Mine cars will be manufactured by the company and Gallagher's patent axle box will be used. The industry promises to be an important one, and other towns are trying to induce the company to locate its factory elsewhere than in Forest City, but as most of the stock is held here the factory will be built here without a doubt.

As a result of a fight at what is usually known as "The Blazing Stump," but more properly called Warrenville, one man is suffering from a fractured skull and a bad scalp wound; another has a very black and discolored appearance about his eyes, and another is severely cut and bruised about the head and face. Sunday evening last David Evans, Philip Phillips and Benjamin Morris went into the house of a man named Burton, where report says spirits frumment and certain malt liquors are dispensed on the quiet. (The constables do not know this.) thought they, or some of them, were acting too familiar with the lady of the house. He attacked them, and they fought back and were getting the best of the fight. He seized a hatchet and wielded it with much vigor that he soon had the field to himself. Morris and Phillips made for home, but Evans was badly injured and dazed. He wandered around for several hours and finally secured admission into the house of Israel Parsons. His face and hair were covered and matted with frozen blood and he was exhausted. He is now lying in a precarious condition.

The concert given by the ladies and gentlemen from Carbonate at the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening was an artistic and financial success. An excellent programme was observed and the young ladies and gentlemen who interpreted it did so very creditably. The attendance was very large and the paragon building fund, for which the entertainment was designed, was largely increased on account of it. The visitors were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Milhus, after the concert. Those present were: Misses Daley, McCallister, Morgan and Ulmer, of Carbonate; Miss Dyer, of Alabama, and Messrs. On turning around the sharp corner near Taylor's lumber yard, the cutter was upset and the occupants thrown to the ground. This frightened the horse, which is a very spirited and valuable animal, and he dashed up Main street at a terrific pace. ### WELSH JOTTINGS.

Brynmor Jones, O. C. M. P., the selected Liberal candidate for the Swansea district, was born at Morriston forty-three years ago. Llewelyn Williams, the rival candidate, is 27 years of age.

According to a story in circulation, the octogenarian minister, Rev. D. Phillips, Swansea, now in his eighty-third year, has good hope of extended period of service. A few Sundays ago he was asked for a "cyhoeddiad" by the deacons of a Calvinistic Methodist chapel in Glamorganshire. The veteran, turning up his diary (which is arranged, like all other Calvinistic Methodist ministers' diaries, for some years in advance), said: "My dear brother, I am very sorry, for I enjoy preaching with you; but I have no Sunday vacant for four years. If a Sunday in 1899 will suit you I will be delighted to come." The arrangement was booked at once. If not true, this story is well invented.

H. Brunel White, mayor of Carmarthen, is somewhat removed from the conventional alderman type. Last Wednesday night he gave an entertainment to the inmates of the workhouse, and at the request of one of the guardians amused the company with the
