They replied that they knew of no fire in the mines. Mr. McHugh, in company with Timberman Absalom Jones and Driver Boss James Quinnan, went to the foot of the big vein and found the fire at the locomotive house, which is about 150 yards from the carriage. When the fire was discovered the shed was badly damaged and the engine was on fire. A hose was procured from the Ox ford breaker and run down through the opening. The water, to put a stream on, was pumped from the mines In a short time the flames were extinguished. The next man to visit this vein would have probably gone down about 6 o'clock this morning, so if the fire had not fortunately been discovered the damage would have been great. Among the officials that visited the scene were Superintendent W. H. Storrs, Benjamin Hughes, Master Mechanic James Eaton and Inside Fore- Ivorites in Olyphant the middle of this men Thomas Davis, Louis Roberts and Henry P. Davies. They came to the conclusion that the flames were due to hot cinders which ignited the wood-

Damage Done Amounted to Fifty Dollars. Narrow Escape of Youngsters Who Were Coasting-Coming Marriage of Two Well Known Young People.

An alarm of fire was sounded vester day afternoon at 3 o'clock from box 41 at the corner of South Washington avenue and Hickory street, which was responded to by the Phoenix Chemical ompany and the Eagle Hose company. of Bellevue. The flames were in the kitchen in the rear of Swarts & Jurkovits' grocery store, at 342 South Washington avenue, and originated from an overheated stove and a defective stovepipe. The fire had gained very little headway when the Phoenix was on hand, and it was extinguished before damage exceeding $50 had been done But in the short time while the fire was burning there was great consternation among the residents of that block It is a veritable bee hive of humanity and every available foot of ground, front, middle and rear, is built up and tenanted by the foreign element.

Danger of Coasting.

Coasting is, no doubt, a pleasant winter pastime among the children, but it is usually attended with a good deal of danger. Last night at 9 o'clock only by the most remarkable luck was a fatal accident averted on Fig street and Pittston avenue. The youngsters go up Fig street as far as Stone avenue and the grade is quite steep. The sleds come down the hill at a furious rate. and just about the time they attain the highest speed they run at right angles across the street car tracks on Pittston avenue. If a car happens to be due, there is danger of a collision, as the children can not see the car nor the motorman the children until it would be too late to avert the danger. Last night a sleigh containing four young sters ran directly ahead of a street car and but for the motorman had his car all but stopped when he came to the crossing there would have been a tragedy; and the motorman would not

ADDITIONAL PARK LAND.

Mr. Canavan Did Not Appear to Mee

Park Commissioners.
Colonel Ripple and Thomas J. Moore, two of the park commissioners, met at the city building yesterday to confer with J. P. Canavan, the owner of the land near the Nay Aug park, with a view to arranging terms for the purchase by the city of some property for the extension of the park. Mr. Canavan did not, however, put in an ap-pearance until the commissioners had left, but they are in receipt of a letter stating the terms upon which the land would be sold and consideration will be given to the same at an early date.

The property is on the east of the park line and includes nearly twenty acres, being about the same area as the present park. As the Roaring Brook flows through this property a great advantage would be gained for the formation of a lake, but in order to accomplish this it would also be necessary

The sum of $12,000 was fixed by the espurposes of the Nay Aug park, and

of Elm Park Zenith Society. An interesting evening was spent by the youthful members of the Elm Park Zenith society last night at the residence of Mrs. F. A. Lange at 240 Adams avenue. The society is composed of youths who are anxious to improve themselves in literary and musical work, and who have, also, out of their slight earnings supported a widow and ier boy for a considerable time. Last evening the following instruclive and practical programme was per formed: Recitation, "Old Ironsides," H. Carr; solo, Ross Surdam; reading, 'One Horse Shay," William Stewart; reading, "Ciderville Circuit," William Brandamore; German solo, George Walters; instrumental solo, Howard Driscoll; zither solo, William Stewart. Mrs. Lange takes a deep interest in the society and is the energetic secretary. OBJECTIONS FILED.

Thomas H. Clark Takes Exception to the Many Nominations of His Opponent.

Thomas H. Clark, yesterday, through Attorney C. C. Donovan, filed objec-tions to the certificates of nomination and nomination papers of Michael F. Gilroy as the candidate of the Democrat, Republican and "True Democrat" parties, for the office of common council in the Seventh ward.

Mr. Clark avers that he is the legal candidate of the Democrats of the ward for the office in question and that he received his nomination at a caucus of the qualified Democrat electors on Jan Gilroy also claims to have received nomination from the Democrats on the same night and from the Republicans on Jan. 18. The nomination papers making him the candidate of the True Democrats" were filed Jan. 29.

The following objections are made to the validity of the certificate of nomination said to have been issued from the caucus of Jan. 11, that tendered Gilroy the Democrat nomination; Objections in Detail.

First-The primary meeting at which it is alleged the said Michael F. Gilroy was nominated was not held under the rules of the Democratic party. Second-Because it is disclosed on the face of the certificate itself that the alleged nomination was the result of the action of three separate primaries.

Objection is made to the validity of the certificate of nomination of the Republican party filed on Jan. 18 for these reasons:

First-Because the certificate does not specify that he was nominated at or by any convention of delegates, or primary meeting of electors, or caucus held under the rules of a political party. or any board authorized to certify nominations representing a political party. Second-Because the alleged nomination was not made under the rules of the Republican party. The objections to the validity of the nomination papers filed on Jan. 29 are Not Enough Signers. First-Because the signers thereof and the persons who made affidavits vouching for the genuieness of the signatures and qualifications of said signers were not entitled to subscribe to or for said nomination. Second-Because the number of qualified persons who made affidavits vouching for the signature and qualifications of the subscribers to said nomination papers was less than the number required by law to vouch for the signatures and qualifications of subscribers to nomination papers.
