The admirable manner in which the interest of the meeting was sustained proves that the railroaders have a corps of eloquent men who are ready at any time to take the platform in any good cause.

A deep, long howl has been raised by several clergymen consequent upon the action of the Ontario and Western railroad discontinuing the issuing of half-fare passes to the gentry of the broad cloth. The decree meets with the strong disapprovalof the traveling public in general, and especially of the people doing business on the line of the road.

MILITARY DOINGS Report of Licutenant Jessup, Inspector of Rifle Practice Issued.

AN INTERESTING DOCUMENT

Reviews the Work That Has Been Done Towards Securing Proficiency in Rifle Practice-Timely Notes of a Personal Nature Compiled.

W. H. Jessup, jr., first lieutenant and inspector of rifle practice in the Thir-teenth regiment, has issued a neat pamphlet containing his first annual report. They have been distributed among the members of the eight companies of our regiment during the past week The report costains regimental order No. 38, dated Dec. 28, 1894, which refers to the progress made by the command dince its organization, particularly regarding rifle practice; urges captains to 'qualify all their men before going to amp;" recommends "a series of matches to develop marksmen," and re fers to the fact that "for seven suc cessive years we have qualified the entire membership," and "have qualified a greater number of sharpshooters than in any former year under the present regulations,"

The recapitulation shows: Field and staff, 13 sharpshooters and 9 marksmen; Company A, 17 sharpshooters and 41 marksmen; Company B, 2 sharpshooters and 52 marksmen; Company C, 9 sharpshooters and 55 marksmen; Company D, 11 sharpshooters and 51 marksmen; Company E, of Honesdale, 17 sharpshooters and 41 marksmen, this being the same proportion and total as Company A: Company F. 5 sharpshooters and 51 marksmen; Company G, of Montrose, 13 sharpshooters and 45 marksmen; Company H, 2 sharpshooters and 51 marksmen. The aggregate is 50 sharpshooters and 396 marksmen; total, 486, the entire membership.

Matches That Were Shot.

Other matches in which the Thirteenth regiment team came off victorlous are recorded, including the scores. One was the regimental skirmish match of Aug. 31, shot at Mt. Greina, n which teams from the Sixteenth, Twelfth and Tenth regiments competed. The state regimental match at the same place, Aug. 30, was another in which the team took part. Lieutenant Jessup has accomplished that which would have made some men hesitate at the outset. This is his first year as Inspector of rifle practice, and when it is brought to mind that, in addition to the regular duties attached to his office, he has, with the able assistance of Quarter Master Bergeant Rees Watkins, compiled the handsome "souvenir of rifle practice in the Thirteenth regiment" and cleared a handsome sum for the rifle association, the praise that has been bestowed upon him is truly merited.
