OLD AGE NOT A DISEASE

Old age need not be necessarily feeble. For people at sixty to say, it's natural at their age to feel weak and feeble, is not so. Mrs. Belinda Hodson, Haverhill, N. H., exemplified this fact very plainly in her letter to Dr. Kennedy, wherein she says, "I recovered from a lingering and painful illness, and finding myself continuing in a weak and debilitated condition, I used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and found in it the one thing needful to supply the wasted vitality in aged people. It improves the appequiets the nerves, and cures insomnia

(sleeplessness).' Mr. Solomon Davis of North Kortright, N. Y., found the same result from right, N. Y., found the same result from using Favorite Remedy. In speaking of it, he said: "How much better the average old person would feel if they would use this valuable preparation, Dr. Knenedy's Favorite Remedy. Outside the fact that it will cure the most obstinate case of constipation, it gives strength and tone to the system, and renews one's vitality."
