

SEVEN REBELS ARE TO DIE

Hawaiian Malcontents Are Convicted by the Court Marshal.

MERCY WILL BE SHOWN LILL.

Young Sprackles Also Wiggles Out of the Difficulty—The Ex-Queen's Letters Accuse Him but He is Given Benefit of the Doubt.

By the United Press. San Francisco, Feb. 7.—While the confession of John Cummings, one of the Hawaii rebels, which was published yesterday, seems to implicate Rudolph Sprackles as the one who furnished the arms to the insurgents, the government does not seem to have strong proof of the fact. Among the ex-queen's papers, which were seized by the government, were found memoranda in which she says Sprackles advised the use of arms, but she was doubtful of adopting such measures. Among her notes were also references of the appointment by her of a commission to go to Washington and see President Cleveland. She says one of the commissioners, San Parker, tried to sell his secret to W. G. Irwin, J. H. Carter, the ex-queen's counsel, advised arbitration, and when young Sprackles advised force she thought the arbitration plan would please President Cleveland better. Regarding the purchase of arms it is the impression that Sprackles did not purchase the arms himself, but simply advanced money on the queen's account, and that the arms were purchased by some one else.

It is known the court martial has passed death sentences on some of the rebels, presumably Wilcox, Burleson, Nolan, Gulick, Walker, Davies and Richard, and sentences of life imprisonment for many others. These decisions have been handed to President Dole for final judgment, and he will decide whether or not they shall be carried out. It is certain nothing will be done hastily or in a spirit of revenge.

Sprackles in San Francisco.

Rudolph Sprackles, who is accused of furnishing the Hawaiian rebels with arms, is the youngest son of Claus Sprackles, and is about 25 years old. He has lived in Honolulu much of his life, and like all Sprackles' sons, has plenty of money. He is at present in San Francisco. W. H. Cornwall, who is also wanted in Honolulu, is in the city. London, Feb. 7.—In an interview with A. Hoffnung, who was the Hawaiian chargé d'affaires here under ex-Queen Liliuokalani, he is quoted as saying that the abdication of the queen could only have a pacifying effect upon Hawaiian politics, as, doubtless, the republic would make terms with her in regard to her future and the position of Princess Kaiulani, the young lady who considered herself the heiress to the throne of Hawaii. The princess is now in England. Mr. Hoffnung added: "Of course it was well understood that the republic of Hawaii was always prepared to deal liberally with the queen, provided she renounced her right to the throne, and, doubtless, numbers of Royalists will now become Republicans."

Washington, Feb. 7.—Minister Thurston has received a dispatch from Honolulu which confirms the Associated Press dispatches concerning the trials of the rebels and the abdication of Liliuokalani. He says his dispatches contain nothing about interference on the part of Minister Willis concerning any of the offenders.

NOT USED TO GAS.

Hayseed Assemblers Are Asphyxiated at a Harrisburg Hotel.

Harrisburg, Feb. 7.—W. Newton Porter and Archibald B. Hunter, members of the assembly from Westmoreland county, were asphyxiated in their room at the Hershey House last night. It is believed the gas was not entirely turned off when they retired. Porter's condition was exceedingly critical for a time, but this afternoon he was out of danger. Hunter was not so much affected as Porter.

OPERATORS COMBINE.

Western Coal Magnates Will Fight Certain Legislation.

Pittsburg, Feb. 7.—Thirty-six prominent river and rail coal operators in the Pittsburg district met here this morning and appointed a committee to file upon a date and issue a call for a general meeting of coal operators of the bituminous districts in the state. The object of the meeting is to take concerted action with reference to certain legislation at Harrisburg and will likely be held next week.

EYRICK ALL RIGHT.

An Insane Asylum Patient Declared to Be in His Right Mind.

Harrisburg, Feb. 7.—Relatives of William Eyrick of Reading, at present confined in the state insane hospital here, had him brought into court today on a writ habeas corpus to test the question of his insanity. Several physicians testified that he is sane and able to attend to business. The patient's property seems to be the bone of contention.

TWO BODIES FOUND.

Victims of the Elbe Disaster Float Upon the Sea.

London, Feb. 7.—The fishing smack Speculator arrived at Lowestoft this morning, bringing the bodies of two of the Elbe's passengers. Coins and bank notes were found in the pockets of both. The body brought ashore yesterday, which was supposed to be that of Chief Steward Pechunder, is now believed to be that of Fritz Hartmann, musical director, who was a passenger on the Elbe. The coroner's inquest has been adjourned to Feb. 28.

INDUSTRIAL TOPICS.

A new breaker is to be built at Audenried.

Philadelphia capitalists will build a washery at No. 3 Elbervale cum bank. Morgan B. Williams' new mines in Pottsville are said to be very promising.

Coke Bros. & Co. will next spring strip hundreds of acres of coal land at Buck Mountain.

The Conlok coal washery, at Treeshow, is to resume operations on or about April 1.

Near the Monarch coal washery, at Honey Brook, a stripping is to be started by James Follock & Co.

A new stripping is to be opened at the Hershey House last night.

It is believed the gas was not entirely turned off when they retired. Porter's condition was exceedingly critical for a time, but this afternoon he was out of danger. Hunter was not so much affected as Porter.

As soon as the weather will permit the strippings at the Lattimer colliery, which have been idle since last December, will resume, and at least 1,500 laborers will be given work.

The owners of the No. 1 Elbervale washery are so favorably impressed with its value as a producer of smaller sizes of coal that they have in contemplation the building of an addition, capable of handling the present breaker, and the operating of the same day and night. At present this washery employs over 100 men and the shipments are over 500 tons.

Philadelphia Stockholder: Attention is directed, by a specialist in the exchange coal trade, to the profit derived by certain anthracite coal shippers from their line trade against tide-water business, strikingly illustrated by the certain data in the annual reports of the Reading and Lehigh Valleys. The Lehigh Valley reported an average loss per ton of its coal of 79 cents during the year 1894, compared with 1893; the Reading loss was 23.7 cents per ton. This difference of 45.3 cents per ton was due largely to the fact that after the great bulk of Lehigh Valley's coal in proportion to its total was marketed in tide-water markets, the opposite was the case with the Reading's operation. It is reasonably certain that a market affording superior facilities will be held on to with great tenacity, and that many concessions will be made before it will be given up. All this has a bearing upon the Pennsylvania's stand to equalize line and tide-water freights, which would be equivalent to equalizing line and tide-water prices.

TALES OF TWO PITTSSTONS

News of Interest to Readers Up and Down the Valley.

THE PITTSSTON CURLERS WIN

Yonkers Clubs Are Defeated at Both Games—The Visitors Royally Treated by Pittstonians—Fire at the Residence of Joseph Langford.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, Pa., Feb. 7.—The Pittston curlers are greatly elated over their success in the international game. Their opponents were the elite Yonkers, N. Y., who arrived here last evening. The visitors had the pleasure of being worsted in both games of today. In the morning the Avoca players won the laurels by eight points. The score was as follows: Pitkin No. 1, Avoca, 19; Yonkers, by Pitkin No. 2, Avoca, 18; Yonkers, 17. The players were as follows: Avoca, rink No. 1—James Burden, James McCrindle, John Hallstone, Thomas Hallstone, skip; Yonkers, rink No. 1—Robert L. Stewart, Thomas McKelock, George Colquhoun and Robert Kellock, skip. The game started at 10 o'clock and lasted until 12:30. The contest was gotten up to allow the players from Yonkers to get some practice for the afternoon game. The afternoon game was hotly contested. The Yonkers made a desperate effort to keep in sight, but were sadly disappointed. They were greatly handicapped, as they have been accustomed to playing on a closed rink. The Pittston curlers won the international medal and the honors by sixteen points. The players were as follows: Pittston, rink No. 1—Neal Dobbie, Robert Watson, John Thompson and Alex. Thompson, skip; Yonkers, rink No. 1—George Peene, John Bremner, James P. Stewart, John Frazier, skip. Score, Pittston, 28; Yonkers, 12. Pittston, rink No. 2—Peter Thompson, John Watson, George Thompson, William Thompson, skip; Yonkers, rink No. 2—Robert Stewart, Thomas McKelock, George Colquhoun, Robert Kellock, skip. Score, Yonkers, 20; Pittston, 19. James Graham, of Avoca, was the official umpire. The game was opened at 2 o'clock and lasted until 4:15. The Pittston curlers tendered their hosts a banquet at the Wyoming Valley House last night. That a very pleasant time was had is putting it mildly. The Yonkers boys say that they will be recipients of another such warm welcome. They cannot speak too highly of the hospitality of the Pittston clans.

An Afternoon Blaze.

Fire was discovered in the residence of Joseph Langford, corner of Luzerne and Wyoming avenues, at 1:30 this afternoon. The alarm was rung in from box No. 11. The fire started in a League Hose company, fitted with a banquette at the Wyoming Valley House last night. That a very pleasant time was had is putting it mildly. The Yonkers boys say that they will be recipients of another such warm welcome. They cannot speak too highly of the hospitality of the Pittston clans.

The "White Crook," which will be seen at Music hall next Saturday evening, is presented with new and elaborate scenery, costumes and stage settings, and an admirably selected company to great credit. The production is well composed spectacle. The transformations are beautiful, the specialties introduced are clever and funny, and the evolutions of the twenty girls in the grand march, "Blue and the Grey," arouse the patriotism of all beholders.

Personal and Other Items.

All regular shipments of the Scranton Tribune will be received at our local office, 8 South Main street.

The lady friends of the Eagle Hose company most thought to complete the arrangements for their coming "Old Time Fair," which commences Feb. 21.

Miss May Matheis, of the West Side, left today with the family of R. G. Brokaw, of Scranton, for Florida.

A very appreciative audience gathered at Music hall last evening to see Otis Skinner in Clyde Fitch's comedy drama, "The Count de Grammont." It was by far the best play that has visited Pittston this season, and is deserving of a longer audience. This was Mr. Skinner's first appearance in Pittston, which so doubt accounts for the small sized audience. Should he again appear before the people he will be greeted by a full house.

Complaints of non-delivery of the Tribune should be reported at our local office, 8 South Main street.

Attorney W. H. Gillipie and M. A. Wynne left this morning for Newton, Luzerne county, on legal business.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, Feb. 7.—Not for many weeks has the stock market been so much devoid of interest as it was today. The result of the transactions of the day was only 67,000 shares and fluctuations in a majority of instances of 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. In the initial dealings the market was somewhat higher, but the rise induced realizations and a reaction ensued. General Electric declined 1 1/2 to 2 1/2, and the remainder of the list 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. Near the close there was a fractional rally. Among the specialties New England moved up 1/4 to 3/4, Norfolk and Western common declined 1/4 to 3/4, while the preferred rose 1/4 to 1/2. The placing of this company in the hands of receivers had no particular effect either here or in London, as its affairs have been going from bad to worse for some time past. It was thought that London would come in as a seller of the news of the appointment of receivers, but such was not the case, and the operations for foreign accounts were quite unimportant. Local speculators held aloof owing to the uncertainty in financial measures by congress and the desire to wait the decision of the treasury department on the proposed new government loan. It is believed that action on the latter is imminent and that business will revive within the next few days. The market closed steady in tone.

The range of today's prices for the active stocks of the New York stock market are given below. The quotations are furnished The Tribune by G. du B. Nimrick, manager for William Linn, Allen & Co., stock brokers, 412 Spruce street, Scranton.
