News of Interest to Readers Up and Down the Valley.

NOTES OF THE GREAT BLIZZARD

The Unusual Demand for Coal Will Enhance Business at the Mines—Lehigh Valley Trains Still Delayed. Horses for the Hooks.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, Pa., Feb. 10.—The most severe storm of years that visited this vicinity last week, and held business and social circles storm-bound, has abated, making the outlook for this week's business throughout the state much better than for some weeks past. Mines and other industries are to start with new impetus and work is assured for the whole of the week with very bright prospects for next week's work at three-fourths time. Commencing with this morning all breakers of the Pennsylvania Coal company will resume operations and will continue active for the week at three-fourths time, with the exception of No. 4 shaft, which will be idle tomorrow. All other mines in this vicinity will be in operation owing to the increased demand for coal.

The trains on the Lehigh Valley railroad are still much delayed. Only local and an occasional through passenger train are running. But one New York train has reached here since Friday. No cars have reached this city on the Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley Traction company's lines since Friday night. Both East and West Side lines are still blocked with snow. The company is putting forth every effort to get their cars running on the different lines.

People of the West Side who have been dilatory in removing the snow from their sidewalks adjoining their property are being relieved of the duty by the authorities, who are taking the matter in hand. During Friday's storm the street commissioner sent a team and snow plow through every street, making a very desirable path and accommodating those who were obliged to leave their homes to attend to their business affairs.

Busy Week for the Firemen. Our fire ladders were pressed into service every day last week, with the exception of one. On Saturday morning they responded to a call from box 43. The Niagaras, Eagles, and Hooks were soon on the scene of the disaster, which proved to be the building owned by Joseph Hileman, Jr., known as the National house. It was occupied by William Curry as a hotel and restaurant. The building was a three-story structure. The three floors were flooded and bar furnishings and household goods were damaged by water. The loss on building is about $1,000.

The entertainment given the members of the Young Men's Christian association at the monthly reception and anniversary, at the Association hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 12, will be of unusual interest. Charles E. Douglas, president, and ventriloquist, has been engaged to assist in a very pleasing and interesting programme. All members in good standing are entitled to one ticket. Additional tickets 25 cents each.

A regular meeting of the Pittston Board of trade will be held at the city hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 12, at 8 o'clock. All members and others interested in the prosperity of our new city are requested to be present. F. H. Banker, secretary.

Miss Sadie Jodling, of Inkerman, Miss Nettie Bulkley, of Alexandria, Va., and Will Buckley and A. W. Baird, of Mauch Chunk, spent Sunday with the Misses Blanchard, of Parsons.

Mrs. Kubler, of Sayre, and Miss Denton, of Tunkhannock, were visitors at the home of Miss Anna Clifford last week.

All regular subscriptions of the Scranton Tribune will be received at our local office, No. 8 South Main street.

A. T. Hanagan, of Upper Pittston, has accepted the agency of the Atlas Accident Insurance company, of Boston, for this vicinity.

All complaints of non-delivery of the Tribune should be reported at our local office, No. 8 South Main street.

James Gilligan, the young man who was stabbed by a Hungarian two weeks ago, is able to be about again.

Contributions of news will be thankfully received at the local office of The Tribune.

Death of Benjamin Evans. The death of Benjamin R. Evans occurred Friday at the family home in Wannamie. Mr. Evans was formerly a resident of this place and has many friends in this vicinity. He had been suffering for some time of miners' asthma and consumption, from the effects of which he died. The deceased is survived by a wife and six children. The funeral will take place on Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the late home in Wannamie. Interment at Pittston cemetery.

The regular league basket ball game of the Young Men's Christian association will be played at Scranton Young Men's Christian association rooms Monday evening, Feb. 11. The contestants will be the Pittston and Scranton teams. Burt Randolph, of Ithaca, N. Y., was a visitor in town Saturday.

At a meeting of the Black Diamond Hook and Ladder company, held Friday evening, it was decided to purchase uniforms and also a team of horses. A committee of five was appointed to select a sample for the new uniforms and receive bids from all the merchants in the city. The lowest bidder to receive the contract. The committee is composed of Frank McCanna, Henry Mc-

ANOTHER JIM THE PENMAN

A Supposed Swindler Shoots at a Banker and then Suicides.

SENSATION IN SAN FRANCISCO

William Holland, Who Has, According to Police Reports, Lived for Ten Years From the Proceeds of Forgery, Kills Himself.

By the United Press. San Francisco, Feb. 10.—The attempted shooting yesterday of banker Isaac W. Hellman, president of the Nevada National bank, by Stock Speculator William Holland, and the suicide of the latter, formed the most sensational crime this city has since old Stock Gamber Rippey's effort to kill Bonanza Millionaire Mackey. Behind Holland's crime there is no mere morbid brooding over fancied injustice, but the desperate act of an habitual and cunning criminal who feared that banker Hellman was playing with him preparatory to springing proof that would send him to state prison for the remainder of his life for forgery. The story of Holland's life in this city, if it can ever be fully learned, will suggest strongly the play of "Jim the Penman." Holland, the police say, had for ten years been living well from the proceeds of bank forgery; yet, although the detectives were morally certain he was the man who every four or five months passed a spurious check through some local bank, they could not get a legal proof, and could not afford to arrest him.

Last December, however, a forged check for $3,000 was passed on the Bank of California, but payment was luckily stopped in time. A few days later a check for $2,000 was presented at the Nevada bank. The signature was perfect, but the paying teller asked the man who presented it to leave the check for identification of the drawee's signature.

This he refused to do, and took the check with him. From the description given by the teller and by his assistant, Captain Lees, chief of detectives, had no doubt that Holland was the man. So he was arrested and searched. Among memoranda in his pocket were samples of handwriting, which he took through some local bank, but they could not get a legal proof, and could not afford to arrest him.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, Feb. 9.—The stock market opened irregular but soon developed weakness. The bears were also active in the general list, and they were inclined to think that the good effect of the bond issue has been discounted.
