ONE CENT TO ANY AMOUNT

Is the Contribution Asked of You Just Now.

GREAT WORK MUST BE DONE

The Tribune Gives $100 to Help Finish and Furnish Y. M. C. A. Building. Any Sum Received and Acknowledged—It's a Debt of Honor.

With this issue The Tribune makes a proposition whereby hundreds of Scranton residents, young and old, can contribute any sum, from 1 cent upward, toward the Finishing and Furnishing Fund of the Young Men's Christian Association. It is claimed that the sum of $10,000 is actually needed to finish and furnish the interior of the building on Wyoming avenue. This is a great deal of money, but The Tribune promises to raise as large an amount as possible and will start the ball rolling by giving $100.

If you desire, cut this out and send with your contribution to The Tribune.
FOR THE Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.
From.....
Amount.....
It is not necessary to use this coupon, which is printed only for your convenience. Any amount from 1 cent upward will be received by The Tribune and acknowledged through its columns.
Address: The Tribune, Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

Yesterday's Tribune told of the shameful and deplorable condition of the Young Men's Christian Association building, and already there have been many letters received from generous persons asking what could be done to rectify this condition. The remedy is offered in the present plan for raising a fund to finish and furnish the building.

Chance for the Children. If any young boys or girls choose to do a good act they can give some kind of a home entertainment or club together, or collect money from their friends. Then if these little ones care to write a brief letter about it The Tribune will gladly publish it.

While even so small a thing as a cent or even a postage stamp will be received and acknowledged, there are many who can afford to give $1, $5, $10 or $100. A few of these large contributions will soon swell the fund, but whatever sum the sender thinks he or she can afford will be just as gratefully acknowledged in The Tribune's columns as a check for $100. The daily acknowledgments will be for many months to come.

In 1887 the association building was only partly finished and furnished by the judicious expenditure of $3,000. Since that year there has been no outlay except to keep the building and its contents in repair. The members pay but one-half of the yearly expenses; the balance is supplied by generous Scranton men and women. When it is considered that it costs about $5,000 to run the association one year, the amount subscribed during the last seven years may be readily ascertained.

What It Doesn't Need. The association is not hampered through want of space, salaries, officials, reading matter, free educational facilities, entertainments and that sort of thing. Of those it has all it needs. But it does need decent furniture, pleasantly decorated walls, comfortable bath rooms, a renovated gymnasium and many other things of a like nature.

Now when it is considered that its benefits are enjoyed without restriction upon religion or nationality, rich or poor, when it is considered that in a given number of years it has accomplished more good than any similar organization in the city, it does not seem possible that the Scranton public will stand idly by while the association is in need.

What the Young Men's Christian Association has done for hundreds of resident and strange young men in this city is too well known to invite argument. It quits naturally follows that a debt is owed to the association. There is not an opportunity to square the obligation.

BOARD OF CHARITIES.

Business Transacted at the Meeting Held Last Night.

A meeting of the Board of Associated Charities was held last night in the city hall. Colonel E. H. Ripple presided, and Rev. Rogers Israel acted as secretary. Other members present were: T. J. Kelley, E. J. Lynett, J. R. Cohen, and John Gibbons. Mrs. J. R. Cohen, of the Ladies' auxiliary; Mrs. W. B. Duggan, agent of the hotel, and Mrs. Pettigrew, her assistant, were also present.

The report of the treasurer for the month of February was read, and T. J. Kelley, of the child saving committee, told of the work done by the committee in having the two children of Charles Hall removed from the disreputable resort in Raymond court, in which the parents had them, to the Home for the Friendless.

The committee was directed to take action in the matter of the children of James Cafferty, of Prospect avenue. The mother of the children is dead, and he is unable to give the children the attention and care they should have.

Colonel Ripple announced that he had issued an appeal to the public for assistance and that there had been many responses to it. He said they had received many donations of coal, clothes and money.

Mr. Cohen reported that there would be a meeting on Friday of the conference committee of the Board of Charities and poor board to come to an understanding as to whether or not the poor board will pay the salary of Mrs. Pettigrew as assistant to Mrs. Duggan.

In the meantime Mrs. Pettigrew was directed to continue in the position she has been filling for the last five weeks.

The report of Mrs. Duggan showed that seventy-three cases had been investigated, of which sixty-one were found deserving. Twelve were deemed unworthy of any help. Admission was

LIKE FINDING A FORTUNE

Dr. A. N. Leete Willed $50,000 to a Wealthy Californian.

HE ONCE BEFRIENDED HIM

For an Honor Loan of $500 Thirty Years Ago Millionaire Carey Pays It a Hundred Fold—Story Reads Like a Romance.

An unexpected and unusual good fortune which smacks more strongly of fiction than reality has fallen to the lot of Dr. Allen N. Leete, editor of the Sunday News. He has been willed $50,000 by a California millionaire of Los Angeles, who had been befriended by Dr. Leete some thirty years ago. At that time Dr. Leete loaned Henry B. Carey $500. Mr. Carey disappeared and nothing was heard of him until Monday, when Dr. Leete received from the deceased's attorneys a letter telling him of his good fortune.

The details of the affair reveal an interesting story.

In Newark, in 1862, Dr. Leete loaned Carey $500, which the latter used in opening a billiard parlor. The business proved unprofitable, was attached by the sheriff and Carey disappeared to parts unknown. Within a few years Dr. Leete abandoned any previous hopes he might have had of hearing from the man he had befriended.

Contents of the Will. The letter from the California attorneys had been sent to Newark and forwarded from that city to Philadelphia and then to Scranton. It stated that Mr. Carey left an estate valued at from $750,000 to $1,000,000, and at the time of his death was considered one of the wealthiest ranch owners of the state. The letter contained an abstract from Mr. Carey's will which read as follows:

"And I further bequeath to Allan N. Leete, who, over a quarter of a century ago in Newark, N. J., advanced me $500 (to which I attribute my fortune) the sum of $50,000, which I consider a fair return for the accommodation."

It was further provided that in the event Dr. Leete being dead the sum was to be delivered to his heirs. If there were no heirs the money was to have been given to such charitable institution as the executors deemed proper.

Dr. Leete wired the attorneys Monday evening that he had received the letter and would leave for Los Angeles as soon as he could arrange proper means of identification. To this message he received the same night a telegraphic acknowledgment.

Yesterday Dr. Leete was engaged in arranging business matters here for his prospective absence. He leaves today for the west.

MARRIED AT OLYPHANT.

Ceremony That United James J. Cummings and Miss Jennie Ferguson.

Rev. P. J. Murphy, pastor of St. Patrick's church, Olyphant, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning officiated at the ceremony which united in marriage James J. Cummings, advertising manager of the Scranton Truth, and Miss Jennie M. Ferguson, of Lackawanna street, Olyphant. Captain H. B. Chase, of Company C, Thirtieth regiment, and Mr. D. J. Davis, of Lackawanna street, of Pittston, bridesmaid.

When the bridal party entered the church the bridesmaid and bridesmaid proceeded down the main aisle, followed by the bride and groom. At the sanctuary rail Father Murphy was in waiting and the ceremony was begun. Father Murphy, after giving his blessing, congratulated the young people and wished them unalloyed happiness and that their wedded life would be a long and blissful one.

Miss Nellie Gallagher was at the organ, and Stephen Janauschek played a violin accompaniment. Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the entrance of the bridal party, and the air from Lohengrin was played on their departure.

After the ceremony congratulations were extended to the happy couple at the home of the bride's parents, on Lackawanna street. Relatives and friends gathered and extended their wishes of long life, prosperity and happiness. The presents bestowed were very numerous and costly. An elaborate wedding breakfast was served, and at 12:45 yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Cummings took the train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey for Philadelphia. Their honeymoon will occupy one week, and before returning a pleasant stay will be made at Washington, D. C.

This marriage unites two well-known young people, whose qualities are deserving of words of commendation. Mrs. Cummings possesses all the virtues that will bring happiness to her husband's home, and Mr. Cummings is noted as a young man of intelligence, business ability and integrity. He has been connected with the Truth as manager of the advertising department since its inception eleven years ago.

There will be skating at the Driving park today. There will be music this evening, weather permitting.

MINER'S TERRIBLE DEATH.

His Skull Crushed and Face Mutilated in Dickson Shaft.

James Corcoran was instantly killed yesterday morning about 11 o'clock while working in the fourteen foot vein of the Dickson shaft. He had prepared a shot in the face of his chamber about three feet from the bottom and with his laborer, Thomas Monahan, of Parker street, went into another chamber while waiting for the shot to go off.

After waiting about ten minutes Mr. Corcoran concluded that the fuse had gone out, as the chamber is very damp owing to water dripping through the roof, and went in to investigate.

As he stooped down to see the condition of the fuses the explosion occurred, and the force of it threw him about ten feet. He was instantly killed, the left side of his skull being crushed in and his face badly battered. He was conveyed to his home on Brick avenue.

Mr. Corcoran was born in Mayo county, Ireland, and came to this country about twenty years ago. After spending three years in New York state he moved to the South Side and lived there until about a year ago, when he removed to Brick avenue. He was 25 years of age and is survived by a wife and two small children.

THEY WERE LOVERS ONCE.

Davis Says Miss Wilcox Slandered Him. He Wants to Recover $5,000 from the Lady Who Sued Him for Breach of Promise.

Heron E. Davis, a Providence contractor, yesterday began proceedings to recover damages from Miss A. May Wilcox, who, he charges, has slandered him and injured his reputation and business. He asks $5,000 damages.

Miss Wilcox resided with relatives near the boarding place of Mr. Davis, and they became fast friends and Miss Wilcox alleges that Mr. Davis some months ago asked her to become his wife and she consented to do him that honor. The ceremony was never performed, and about a month ago Miss Wilcox began proceedings against Mr. Davis for breach of promise and named $10,000 as the claim necessary to bring peace to her lacerated heart.

In a newspaper interview bearing on the breach of promise case Miss Wilcox is quoted as follows: "He referring to Mr. Davis made indecent proposals to me which I resented as any honest woman should, and this is the reason that he broke the engagement." This statement is the foundation of the present suit for slander. Mr. Davis says that the statement is wholly false, but that nevertheless Miss Wilcox persists in spreading it broadcast to his great injury. He says that he conducts a contracting business amounting to $50,000 a year, and that the stories that are being put in circulation by Miss Wilcox have seriously affected his business.

When the breach of promise suit was begun against him his attorneys, Hulsbosch & Yeoburg, succeeded in having the capias in the suit abated, which put an end to the action. It has not since been re-commenced.

TO TEST ANTI-TOXIN.

Health Board Receives a Quantity Made in Germany.

Six bottles of genuine Rehring anti-toxin, manufactured in the famed laboratory at Frankfurt, Germany, were received by the Scranton board of health yesterday. They are now in the possession of Dr. W. E. Allen, health officer, and will be tested by him and other Scranton physicians.

It was over a month ago that the local authorities ordered the serum. The best product was not then obtainable, and, rather than use an inferior concoction, the board of health decided to wait until it could get the kind it now possesses. Although the amount received is not great in quantity—each small bottle cost $3—it is amply sufficient for practical tests. Local physicians will be allowed to use it and the tests will be made under the observation of Health Officer Allen.

THE STILL ALARM.

It Attracted a Large Audience to Academy of Music.

There was not a vacant seat in the Academy of Music last night, "The Still Alarm," given as a benefit for the Crystal Home company, attracted an audience that filled the house to the doors.

The drama is of the realistic school and is very interesting. A fine company interpreted it last night and won hearty rounds of applause from the well-pleased audience.

The finance committee of the Kirmess and Hospital Fund request that all bills connected therewith be sent to the undersigned on or before Thursday next.

"WE'RE RIGHT IN THE PUSH."

When the advertising atmosphere is so heavily charged with exaggeration, it is well to remember who the honest advertisers are. Windy assertions about GREAT reductions—advertising goods at impossible prices—find no lodging place in the minds of intelligent people. Dull trade throughout the legitimate business season may make necessary, wild statements from some clothiers to attract trade, but the schemers will have to scheme harder and find new disguises for their lame excuses before they can stop the people from coming to this store for honest values. The triumph of this store is the triumph of intelligence, and you have made it so. Trade has been up to the mark here, yet there's a touch of attractiveness in the styles and assertions. We've added another and more taking attraction—REDUCED PRICES, natural order of things here at this season: LOWER PRICES than you find ELSEWHERE.
