CITY NOTES.

Meetings of common and select councils will be held tonight.

Delaware and Hudson trackage and station hands at Wilkes-Barre were paid yesterday.

There will be skating at the Driving park today. There will be music this evening, weather permitting.

Work has been resumed on the steel frame work of the Meers building at Washington avenue and Spruce street.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church are making arrangements to hold their annual dinner on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22.

A hearty reception was accorded to the Young Men's Christian association vice club at Dickson city last night, where they sang to a large audience.

Workmen were engaged yesterday raising the top tier of columns of the Hotel Jermyn. An accurate idea of the height of the building can now be obtained.

Men from the street commissioner's department were engaged last night removing the snow from Lackawanna avenue in the vicinity of depot square. For several days the snow has seriously impeded travel on that avenue.

The railway committee of common council did not take action last night on the Franklin avenue railway ordinance. The members of the committee decided to first visit the street and ascertain the condition of affairs there.

Dr. Van Cleef, resident physician of the county jail, yesterday certified to court that George Burnett, a prisoner, is suffering from an inflamed eye. Judge Archibald ordered the transfer of Burnett to the Lackawanna hospital.

Saturday will be the last day for filing applications for liquor licenses. Thus far about 30 applications have been received by Clerk of the Courts Thomas. It is probable that at least 20 more will be filed before the end of the week.

A realistic melodrama has been booked by the Prohibition for Feb. 22, Washington's birthday. It is "Shaft No. 2," a mining play replete with electrical effects and elaborate accessories and which scored a phenomenal hit when first seen here.

Considerable activity was displayed at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western collieries yesterday in consequence of the extra demand caused by the decrease of coal in stock. Hopes are entertained that the revival of the coal trade will be permanent.

When in this city Mrs. Baldwin on two occasions declared that Thomas H. Reed would be the next president of the United States. At Binghamton Tuesday night she reversed herself and was quite positive that Major McKinley will be the next chief magistrate.

Thomas Maxwell, of Carbondale, was yesterday committed to the county jail to await his trial upon a charge of housebreaking and threatening to set fire to a barn. He was given a hearing before Alderman S. S. Jones, who, after hearing the evidence, committed him in default of bail.

The funeral of John Brennan took place from his late residence on Phelps street at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. A requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's cathedral by Rev. Father Foley and interment was made in Dunmore Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were: Patrick Rathford, Dennis Harnett, John Ferguson, Edward Kelly, T. J. Conway and Jeremiah English.

Professors Pepper and Lewis, of the law department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, who are getting out a work of several volumes entitled, "Digest of Pennsylvania Decisions," have engaged J. H. Hamilton, a young attorney of this city, to assist them, the work assigned him being to look up and put in proper shape all decisions on "executors" and "administrators"—a task that means the perusal of over 200 law books.

The Schubert quartette, consisting of Howell Davies, George M. DeWitt, Will Weiss, John T. Wain and C. P. Colvin, sang several selections at Montrose on Tuesday evening at the banquet and minstrel performance of the Housh and Ready House company. The opera house was crowded to its fullest capacity and the Scrantonians were enraptured in each number. They have accepted an invitation to repeat the performance at Hallshead at an early date.

THE AMBROSE MULLEY CASE.

Testimony heard before Alderman Fuller yesterday.

Alderman Fuller yesterday received evidence in the case of Building Inspector Nelson against Ambrose Mulley, of Providence, for a violation of the city ordinance regulating construction of buildings. On Jan. 16 the inspector wrote to Mr. Mulley notifying him to prepare the whole system of plumbing at a house recently erected at Sanderson avenue, for a proper water test, and that unless the notice was complied with by Jan. 23, legal proceedings would be taken to enforce compliance with the city ordinance. The house was erected for Dr. Harper S. Lackey, who gave Mr. Nelson to understand that Mr. Mulley was entrusted with the plumbing work.

City Solicitor Torrey appeared for the plaintiff and examined the inspector, who explained that the portion of the plumbing required to test the soil pipes, which Dr. Lackey informed him were being placed by Mr. Mulley.

He had visited the house upon three occasions and had made a special journey to Mr. Mulley's store for the purpose of arranging the test, but was unable to extract the satisfactory promise from Mr. Mulley or his son, the latter informing him that he did not intend to make any test. Cross-examined by Attorney Hannah Mr. Nelson said he was not aware that the plumbing work had been entrusted to Mr. Mulley, and would not swear that the soil pipes were not prepared for the test. He had not been notified of the preparation as required by the ordinance.

The defense claimed that the pipes were made ready to be tested and that Mr. Mulley did not carry out that part of the work. After considerable time had been spent in examining the witnesses, Alderman Fuller adjourned the hearing in order to hear the attorneys upon both sides upon the legal points raised.

SHE NEVER CAME BACK.

Mrs. Margaret Richards is now in England with another man.

Richard Richards, of Providence, yesterday applied to the court for a divorce from his wife, Margaret Richards. His bill was filed by Attorneys Hulstander and Vose at the residence of the plaintiff.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards came to this country from England, and were married on March 25, 1882, and lived together in this city until July 9, 1885. It appears that when Mrs. Richards came to this country she left her heart on the other side of the horrid pond. Absence and the alliance she formed here did not banish from Mrs. Richards' mind the recollection of the dear one over the sea, and in 1885 she determined to pay a visit to England. She never returned.

Some time ago her deserted husband attracted the attention of another man, with another man in England as his wife, and consequently he has begun proceedings to secure a divorce.

LADIES WERE UPSET.

Cutter Overthrown on Lackawanna Avenue by Colliding with Car Rails.

Two ladies, who were driving down Lackawanna avenue in a cutter yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, were thrown out owing to their taking the wrong angle in crossing the street car track. This occurred opposite the Delaware and Hudson depot and the ladies, after bowling across the street, jumped up and chased their horse, which collided with a telegraph pole a hundred yards away and was sent sprawling along the street.

By this time a large crowd had been attracted and were assisting the steeds to rise when James Moran, a well known hostler, arrived on the scene and put matters in proper shape. The real fun started upon this, as another man claimed the reward while James impressed upon the crowd what he had done. While the play was haranguing the crowd the ladies drove away without rewarding either.

KILLARNEY AND THE RHINE.

Will Be Seen at Davis' Theater Today, Tomorrow and Saturday.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening "Killarney and the Rhine" is billed as the attraction at Davis' theater. The Philadelphia Press says of the drama:

"The patrons of the Standard were regaled with an uncommonly interesting drama, made up of comedy and romance. 'Killarney and the Rhine' is a plot very successfully commingling Irish and German ideas and characters with the result of at once making a neat and most entertaining combination. There is plenty of good acting, fine scenery, song and music in it. J. E. Toole and Alida Cortelyou lead a cast that is thoroughly capable throughout."

WANTS MORE ROOM.

Recorder of Deeds Heuster Says His Office Is Too Small.

Recorder of Deeds Heuster complains that his office is not large enough to accommodate the force of clerks he employs, and he is urging the county commissioners to give him additional room. He has suggested that the marriage license room adjoining the clerk of the courts' office be given to him for the use of his copying clerks. This would make it necessary for the register of wills and clerk of the courts to change offices, and a marriage license room would have to be erected in the office now occupied by the register.

DIED.

DAVENPORT.—In Scranton, at 149 Sanderson avenue, Lillian, wife of Henry Davenport, aged 23 years. Burial on Saturday afternoon at West Pittston.

Seventeen Persons Make a Start on That Y. M. C. A. Fund.

HOW ONE DIME WAS EARNED

A Ten-Year-Old Got It by Shoveling Snow. Response is Beyond Expectation. Girls of No. 33 School Have a Scheme on Hand.

It is gratifying to report that The Tribune's plea for help for the Young Men's Christian association has met with a response beyond expectation. Seventeen persons sent letters for publication, but all of them are too lengthy to be reproduced in this column. The only letter that can be used is one signed "D. B. W.," from a little boy who earned 10 cents by shoveling snow, but he didn't ask to have his letter published. The complete list follows:

Foundation of the Fund.

THE TRIBUNE.....	$100.00
Miss Margaret Shear.....	1.00
Master Fred Shear.....	1.00
Miss Helen Shear.....	1.00
L. J. Wescott.....	25

It is a Good Beginning.

This doesn't appear like a large sum, but it would have seemed large to the New York Herald the day that great paper made its appeal for money to buy anti-toxin for use among the poor of the metropolis. The day the Herald made its appeal it received only one contribution, so The Tribune considers the $5.20 it received yesterday an evidence that the interest of these seventeen persons will be multiplied many fold as the fund progresses.

This is a copy of the little snow shoveler's letter:

My dear Sir: I am 10 years old I shovelled a sidewalk and earned 10 cents you can have it for the Y. M. C. A. I like the Y. M. C. A. because when I was cold they let me go in there one day I looked at the papers what had pictures, I will get the fellows to send 10 cents yours truly, D. B. W.

In sending contributions it is not necessary to sign your name. Your initials will do, or you may send your money anonymously. Simply state that you are contributing to the Finishing and Furnishing fund.

If you desire, cut this out and send with your contribution to The Tribune.

It is not necessary to use this coupon, which is intended only for your convenience. Any amount from 1 cent upward will be received by The Tribune and acknowledged through its columns. Address: The Tribune Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

No. 33 School Girls.

Word was received at The Tribune office yesterday that the young girls of No. 33 school are devising a plan to get some money. It is not unlikely that their example will be followed by the pupils of other schools in the city.

Now that the fund has been so nicely started it should be thought over by every father or mother who owes a son's good health and manly bearing to the association. Can the father economize on one dollar's worth of cigars and send the equivalent to The Tribune for the Finishing and Furnishing fund? Can the mother curtail one dollar's worth on that new dress and send the dollar to The Tribune for the benefit of an association which has done their best so much good?

It is not generally known that boys classed as "mechanics" compose about 40 per cent. of the Young Men's Christian association membership. Some of these "mechanics" work in the mines, some in the machine shops and some in factories. Each year 47 years for the villages which no club or association in the world can offer for an equal sum. This fact is made possible in Scranton only through the generosity of a few men and women who pay 50 per cent. of the association's annual expenses.

Just One Reason.

No money has been directly spent toward many finishings and furnishings for the building since 1887, and in that year the building was first occupied and only $2,000 was spent. Every penny received now will do some good. Can you afford to spare a penny? Maybe you wouldn't mind 10 cents. If you can afford to contribute $1.00 or $100 you ought to send it along.

MISS PHILLIPS BURIED.

Requiem Mass Celebrated at St. Paul's Catholic Church.

Miss Nellie Phillips was buried yesterday morning from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips, of Dickson avenue. At St. Paul's Catholic church a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Dunn, Rev. P. J. Mellon, sub-deacon. In a short sermon Father McManus addressed words of comfort to the afflicted parents.

The pall bearers were Neil Ruddy, John Jordan, Henry Hart, James Powell, Thomas Loftus, and Daniel Pace. The flowers were carried by the Misses May Jordan, May Kearney, Rosa Loftus, Kate Jeffers, Kate O'Hara, and Bridget O'Hara. Interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

ATHLETIC BUSINESS MEN.

Give an Exhibition in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

A clever and interesting exhibition was given yesterday afternoon by the business men's gymnasium class at the Young Men's Christian association. A varied program was concluded with a game of basket ball between the banker and lawyer members of the class, in which the former won by a score of 2 to 0.

The first number was a body build-

GOOD WORK OF BNAI BRITH

Last Night's Elaborate and Enjoyable Fair Attended by Over a Hundred Persons—Many Guests from Out of the City.

The annual banquet and ball of the Amos Lodge, Independent Order of Bnai Brith, was held last night in Excelsior hall, on Wyoming avenue, and in elaborateness and enjoyment equalled, if it did not surpass, and Jewish social event held this season. The 110 persons present included a number of guests from out of the city.

The Bnai Brith society and benevolent Jewish order whose charity is conducted along most practical lines, The district including Scranton, for instance, supports a manual training school in Philadelphia. Each district has its distinct charitable object.

Last night's banquet, although an annual local affair eagerly anticipated in Jewish social circles, also commemorates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the order. The arrangements were made by a committee consisting of S. Morris, Jr., F. L. Wormser, Levi Kramer, M. Brown, W. Stern, Amos Schwartzkopf and W. Krotosky.

After two hours substantially spent over a delicious feast served by Caterer Handley, a period of speech making was conducted by Toastmaster F. L. Wormser. Remarks were made by J. D. Coombs and S. J. Strauss, of Wilkes-Barre, and S. Morris, of this city. Dancing began at midnight. Music was furnished by Baues.

Those present from out of town included Mr. Sadick, of Cincinnati; S. Japha, of New York; Miss Fourth and D. Katz, of Honesdale; Miss Weisman, of Brookly; Miss Weil, of Altoona; Frederick Moses, of Carbondale; Miss Lena Cohn and Eder Brown, of Pittston.

IS WORTH SEEING.

Entertainment by the Temple Quartette This Evening.

The noted Temple quartette, of Boston, assisted by Miss Genevieve Pugh, reader, will entertain a large audience in the Young Men's Christian Association hall this evening. Only a small number of seats were unsold last night. The Temple quartette has created enthusiasm and favorable comment wherever it has appeared, and Miss Pugh is recognized as a leading candidate for platform honors.

MR. TALMAGE TONIGHT.

He Will Deliver His Address at the Frothingham.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage will deliver his lecture at the Frothingham tonight on "My Journey Around the World."

There are few more fascinating orators than Mr. Talmage. He has the power of investing his subject with great interest and holds the wrapt attention of his audience as he paints beautiful word pictures of the topic he would bring home to his hearers.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

Special arrangements are being made by the station men for their entertainment on Tuesday.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association will be held this evening at 7 o'clock.

At yesterday's meeting at the machine shops Superintendent Sandborn delivered an address in which he dwelt on four things which a man, who is not a Christian, is without, namely, hope, peace, strength and excuse.

An order has been issued by Paymaster Drake, of the Ontario and Western, stating that after Feb. 1 no assignments or orders of pay of employees will be honored by the company or paid by the paymaster. In case of absence or sickness the paymaster will, upon receipt of a notice from the employee, send the money by check to the post-office address or to the nearest station agent.

Yesterday the new gongs at the Delaware and Hudson station were made ready for use. They will prove a great acquisition to the working arrangements. The conductor of each train will ring when his train is ready to depart and the officials at the depot door of the depot will, if all passengers and baggage have left the building, give the signal of a larger gong. The company officials will not delay the departure of the train after the larger gong has been sounded.

Engineer Copeland, who runs engine No. 22, has had a varied career, although he is the youngest engineer on the section. He has carried tools for the section hands and passed through all kinds of railway work until 1874, when he boarded the cab. It will be recalled that he was the engineer who, by his promptness of mind, saved many passengers from a premature death when his engine and train ran on to the turntable at the foot of Wyoming avenue. It was subsequently proved that a flagman had erred in turning the switch, and Mr. Copeland was highly commended for his readiness in preventing a catastrophe.

A series of lectures on the use of air-brakes is being arranged for the instruction of local railroads. The lectures will be delivered at the association rooms and will be open for the employees of the railroads, and cordial invitations will be saved many passengers from a premature death when his engine and train ran on to the turntable at the foot of Wyoming avenue. It was subsequently proved that a flagman had erred in turning the switch, and Mr. Copeland was highly commended for his readiness in preventing a catastrophe.
