The remains of Maggie, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans, of Wilson Creek, were interred in Maplewood cemetery Sunday afternoon.

On Saturday morning the remains of Miss Myrtle Burns were taken to her home on Spring street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Auger have returned from a brief stay in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kilpatrick, of Dartmouth, spent the Sabbath with relatives in Windsor.

The remains of Henry Campbell, who died at his home in Scranton, Friday, will be brought to this city today.

Miss Mattie Harris, of Lincoln avenue, spent Sunday with friends in Scranton.

A meeting of the property owners on Belmont street was held on Saturday evening at the office of Contractor Robinson, when the subject of paving Belmont street was discussed.

The second story of the Odd Fellows' building, on Salem avenue, is to be fitted up for a dwelling, and when finished will be occupied by Mr. Purple and family.

Mrs. M. E. Bird, of Scranton, is the guest of Mrs. J. S. Berry, of Canaan street.

WAVERLY.

Irving Green, of Clifford, is the guest of his cousin, Walter H. White.

The funeral of the late Peter Gromer, who died last Tuesday, after a lingering illness, took place on Thursday from the Methodist Episcopal church.

Three beautiful hymns, "We Never Say Good-Bye in Heaven," "Go Hurry Thy Sorrow," and "We Shall Sleep, But Not Forever," were well rendered by the following quartette: Mrs. F. H. Parson, Mrs. Martin Bold, Miss Lizzie Hinkle and John Mershon.

The deceased was 46 years of age, and is survived by his widow and two children, Miss Mammie, of Albany, and Peter Gromer, Jr., of Scranton.

The funeral of the late Jeremiah C. Hall, who died Thursday at the age of 84 years, took place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Baptist church.

The deceased was highly respected by all who knew him. He is survived by his widow and five children, George W. Hall, of Wilkes-Barre; Charles W. Hall, of Emma Hall, of Waverly; and Mrs. James Stone, of North Abington.

"Squire E. J. Feehley, who has been confined to the house by his old enemy, asthma, is able to be around again.

"I was troubled with quinsy for five years. Thomas' Electric Oil cured me. My wife and child had diphtheria. Thomas' Electric Oil cured them. I would not be without it in the house for anything." Rev. E. P. C. D., Danville, N. Y.

FOREST CITY.

No further clue has been found in the highway robbery case at Richmond, although several officers are at work.

H. E. Randall, foreman at the "Chief" breaker, is suffering from an attack of measles.

The little daughter of Wilfred Eichenberg is quite ill with scarlet fever.

The correspondent who writes the Forest City news up for the Carbondale Herald says: "There is a peeping Thomas in our midst." Whether he refers to a Thomas cat, or a man whose name is Thomas, or whether the word is used as a generic term for any man who peeps, we do not know.

Next Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Michael Clark, of Vandling, will celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage.

The employees of the Delaware and Hudson company, at Vandling, were paid yesterday.

The correspondent of the Carbondale Anthracite, in Saturday morning's paper, reiterates his statement that not in five years has the school board made a report as to its financial standing.

This is a deliberate falsehood, and the correspondent knows it. Last spring the books of the board were placed at the disposal of the auditors, but for some reason these gentlemen did not make a report therefrom.

The Mayfield House has been appointed the League hotel for Mayfield by the League of American Wheelmen.

The "Bon Ton" dancing class will give one of their enjoyable socials at Enterprise hall, Jermyn, Feb. 25.

PRESIDENT DOLE'S CRUELTY.

Revolted Barbarity Reported at the Hawaiian Trials.

THE WITNESSES ARE TORTURED.

An American Strung Up by the Thumbs. Another Placed in a Tank of Ice Water Until Almost Frozen to Death.

By the United Press.

San Francisco, Feb. 17.—The Call prints the following from Honolulu: "The success of the government of Hawaii in conducting its treason cases was due to the incriminating evidence given by Captain William Davies, of the steamer Waimanalo.

The manner in which the sworn statements were wrung from Davies is interesting, as showing the peculiar process at present existing in the Hawaiian Islands.

Davies and his mate, Knudson, were arrested on the morning of Jan. 5. Knudson made a confession, telling what little he knew.

Davies, who is an American citizen, refused any information, and while protesting his innocence demanded an interview with the United States minister.

This was refused. Davies was then taken into the prison yard, where he was shown two thin bolts in a wall above his head. The unformed inquisitors of the government then gave the captain to understand that if a complete confession was not forthcoming he would be strung up by the thumbs.

Davies did not flinch, but determined that if the American minister could not come the consul general should be informed that he was an American citizen and wished to see him.

His legs were bound below the knees and his thumbs were lashed with a whip cord to the bolts. A cord was placed below him so that the unfortunate man's toes just touched the ground.

Davies was stripped to the waist, while Marshal Hitchcock, Attorney General Smith and Surgeon Cooper, with a stenographer, awaited the statement which they believed would be forthcoming.

They were mistaken. Davies did not weaken. Sweat oozed from every pore. The strong man in his agony begged for a drop of water to cool the thirst that consumed him.

The tendons of the victim's limbs stood out like straws of rope; blood vessels knotted on his arms and legs. His tormentors urged him to implicate all known to be politically opposed to their methods, without avail.

Davies refused to surrender the secret he had sworn to protect. At last, when it was apparent by his respiration that it would be impossible to hold out longer, nature succumbed, and Davies, cursing the fiends who were torturing him, fainted.

Forced to Confess. Dr. Cooper used salts of ammonia to revive the captain, who had passed into the painless realms of unconsciousness.

As soon as he revived two negro constables seized him again by the thumbs. This inhuman operation was begun at noon, and it was 6 o'clock in the evening before Davies, more dead than alive, made the statement that resented him from the inhuman barbarity of his persecutors.

Another case of torture was brought to light in the military inquiry. A young native, who was known to be intimate with Carl Wiedman, was handcuffed at the wrists. Then, with a refinement of cruelty which would shock a Persian satrap, he was placed in a tank of ice cold water.

He was kept there until circulation of the blood in his extremities had almost ceased, and Dr. Cooper, who appears in the unenviable light of an arch-inquisitor, declared that action of the heart was almost suspended.

The chief of police, Marshal Hitchcock, had the young Kanaka taken from the tank, and after being restored from his condition of semi-consciousness, the torture was again administered. Flesh and blood could stand such inhumanity no longer, and the much needed confession was given.

"After suffering from dyspepsia for three years, I decided to try Burdock Blood Purifier. Two bottles cured me entirely." Mrs. G. C. White, Tarry, Onondaga county, New York.

VANDLING.

This evening the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will hold a basket social in the church.

A party of young folks enjoyed a sleighride to Jermyn Saturday evening.

The Congregational church will be dedicated on Washington's birthday.

Tomorrow is election day and every voter should make it a point to turn out and vote. George Young, who is the Republican nominee for supervisor, is well qualified for the position and would make a faithful officer if elected.

Vote for him. Mrs. William Bartholomay was at Carbondale Saturday.

Weak Nerves

Numb Spells, Dyspepsia, Poor Blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures!

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen:—I feel that I must say a few words about Hood's Sarsaparilla, as I think it the best medicine I have ever taken. I had dyspepsia, and my nerves were weak, my blood also in bad condition, and I was troubled with numb spells when I would sit or lie down.

I Was So Weak that I could hardly walk across the house when I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have now used seven bottles of this medicine and have gained in strength, can do all my work, and do not get tired, and I was troubled with numb spells when I would sit or lie down.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures! Hood's Pills not easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels.
