CLARK'S GREEN.

The Misses Hattie and Carrie Smith pleasantly entertained a large company of friends at their home Friday evening. Among the guests were Misses Bessie Pyle, Mabel DeWitt, Florence Cannon, Sarah Decker, and Messrs. Dorrance Fuller, Harry Christy, George Dalrymple, Amasa Hortree, Jacob Pyle, William Pyle, of Moscow; Miss Blanche Smith, of New York, and the Misses Lucia Brigham, Angie Brigham and Mina Wells, of Clark's Green. Music, games and dancing were enjoyed until refreshments were served, after which the young people from Moscow enjoyed a morning sleighride to their homes.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TUNKHANNOCK.

Miss Marie Eldredge, a young lady in the neighborhood of 20 years of age, living with her uncle, Theodore Rymer, at Mill City, committed suicide Sunday morning by taking morphine. She left a letter stating that the deed was done because of her having been disappointed in love. The funeral was held at the Mill City church on Tuesday. She was an orphan girl, and is well spoken of.

The remains of the 3-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Devine, of Falls township, were about of train No. 13 yesterday, enroute for Meshoppen for burial. The funeral services were held at Bethel church, near the parents' home.

L. B. Smith, of Meshoppen, was here yesterday. Miss Zula B. Gule, of Catawissa, a classmate of Miss Addie McKown, of this place, is anxious to come here and form a class in elocution. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church, has invited her to come and render some selections at their entertainment on Friday evening next, and it is probable that she will accept. Her elocutionary powers are well spoken of. Miss Mary Tannev has returned to Wilkes-Barre.

Samuel Decker and Jonathan Swartwood, of Falls, were here on business yesterday. Andy Wall and Miss Laura Harding were married by Esquire Kutz Saturday evening.

The rumor that Jack Baker, of Briar Ridge, was from death was false, and started by some of his friends in order to make game of him. Nobody rejoices over the falsity of it more than Jack himself.

J. E. Swartwood died at his home near Falls on Monday, aged 49 years. The funeral was held at Falls Methodist Episcopal church at 2 p. m. yesterday, and interment made in Roberts' cemetery. He was an ex-soldier, serving eleven months in Company G, Two Hundred and Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and was honorably discharged at the close of the war. He has been an invalid ever since. Was a respected citizen and a member of the Methodist church.

The Susquehanna Transcript states that Hon. George A. Post was sent to Congress from this district when only 25 years of age. This discounts Jordan somewhat, in that respect, and makes Mr. Post the youngest man receiving that honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Titus Dersheimer, of Flatbush, will bury their infant child at Newton today.

J. M. Phinney, of Mill City, has rented the Packer House and will take possession April 1. It is hinted that Foster Hewitt, the present proprietor, has his eye on a better situation at Van Ettenville, N. Y.

C. B. Fussett, of Forkston, and D. M. Gay, of Mehoopany, were business callers here yesterday.

A large concourse of people gathered at the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon to pay the last and final tribute of respect to Daniel J. Bardwell, who died suddenly Saturday morning of heart failure. He had been in a precarious state of health for a long time, and yet his death was a shock to his family and friends. He arose as usual, dressed himself, and attempted to go across the room to seat himself in a chair, when the members of the family in an adjoining room heard him fall. They hastened in, picked him up and laid him on the couch, but he gasped only once or twice. Mr. Bardwell was a son of the late Colonel Daniel Bardwell, and was born on the farm where he died. The old homestead--and where he had spent all his life, with the exception of two or three years. He was a hard-working, practical farmer, a consistent Christian man, and one whom his neighbors held in highest esteem. He was a kind, loving husband and father, and leaves a wife and eight children, six of whom are boys, to mourn his departure. He will be sadly missed from the community. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. William M. Hiller, assisted by Revs. S. C. Dodge and George Hine. Interment was made at Gravel Hill.

While Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Ames, of Mehoopany, were traveling to Forkston Saturday afternoon with horse and cutter the animal became frightened just as they were upon the approach of the Forkston bridge, near Spaulding's hotel, and whirled about suddenly. The road is very narrow, and the cutter was backed off the embankment and the occupants plunged to the ground, a distance of ten or twelve feet. Mrs. Ames was internally injured and hopes of her recovery are said to be slight. Mr. Ames was more fortunate and escaped with a few bruises.

Mary S., relict of the late ex-Judge Gordon Pike, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Mills, on Sunday morning. The funeral will occur at the residence on Warren street at 2 p. m. today. Rev. S. C. Dodge officiating. Hon. Charles Landon, of Herkelle, Bradford county, has also been invited, and will make some remarks, if present. Mr. Pike died in 1891, and shortly afterward the deceased came here from Centerville, their home, to live with her daughter. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church, a hospital, kindly soul, whom everybody loved, and her end was peace. The disease which terminated her life was locomotor ataxia, or creeping paralysis. She was nearly 77 years of age, and was a native of Wyoming Valley.

Harry J. Bardwell, of Chicago, is here, having been summoned east by the death of his father.

Thomas H. Ryan is home from Philadelphia to vote.

The funeral of Anna May, the 5-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Giles H. Ross, will occur at their home at 3:30 p. m. today.

As M. V. Wandall, who was awarded the contract for building the bridge abutments, failed to bind the contract, the commissioners are advertising for a re-letting. Sealed proposals will be received up to 2 p. m. Saturday next.

Lewis P. Silken and Vima Jagers, of Lynn, have been granted a marriage license.

"After suffering from dyspepsia for three years, I decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters. Two bottles cured me entirely." Mrs. G. C. White, Taberg, Oneida county, New York.

HONESDALE.

Morris Samuels, familiarly known as "Uncle Sam," died at his home on Main street at the age of 82 years. For nearly a half a century he, with his two brothers, Abraham and Jacob, have conducted a clothing store on Main street. Mr. Samuels was born in Maryland, Prussia, and after journeying in England for a number of years, came to Hawley, and from that town to Honesdale. He was a member of the Hawley branch of Odd Fellows. For some time past he had been failing. A short time ago one of Samuel Bros.' faithful tailors, Mrs. Furry, died suddenly. This so affected Mr. Samuels that he grew weaker and passed away Saturday afternoon. He is survived by two brothers and a sister. Funeral at 3 o'clock this afternoon in charge of Mr. Milhauser.

The banks will be closed at noon today, it being election day.

The funeral services of the late Jacob Storms took place from his home, in Tracteville, Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. William H. Schmidt, and members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Grace church was crowded with people last evening, who had gathered to listen to the organ recital by Mr. William S. Chester, of New York, and Charles Meehan, soprano soloist, New York.

Dyspepsia Causes Much Suffering.

Pains and Distress After Eating Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'I must praise Hood's Sarsaparilla for the good it has done me. I was troubled with dyspepsia. I had severe pains in my heart, and the swelling of my stomach and distress after eating caused me much suffering. I tried different remedies without getting relief. Finally I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial, and the first one in town to take it. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, I feel perfectly well and have enjoyed good health ever since. Many of the townspeople have asked me about the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have cheerfully recommended it feeling indeed grateful for the good it has done me. Friends and relatives have also taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results. MILLARD A. STRINE, Strinestown, Pa.'"
