In the First ward William McNally was elected school director and Patrick Dempsey councilman. In the Second ward R. J. Gallagher was elected to the council. Mr. Gallagher was a school director a number of terms and afterward served as burgess. He was the Democratic nominee for recorder of deeds several years ago, and is well known throughout the county. Mr. Gallagher overcame a Republican majority of about fifty, and this is very flattering to him, when it is considered that his opponent, Mr. Brown, is one of the most popular men in town. In the Third ward Thomas Curran was elected councilman.

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many paterons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before gridling. mature before grinding. This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other
