ARCHBALD.

Tomorrow evening the great bazaar of the Presbyterian congregation will be opened for three nights. It will be conducted by the ladies of the congregation who are widely known as energetic workers. They have been very busy for the past few weeks making and soliciting articles to be placed on exhibition. The hall has been very beautifully decorated and each evening there will be a highly interesting programme observed. The admission has been placed at the low rate of 10 cents. The proceeds of the bazaar will go to the parsonage building fund. The congregation is worthy of patronage.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TUNKHANNOCK.

While Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kelly, who live about a mile up the Montrose turnpike, were driving into town the sleigh upset and Mrs. Kelly sustained a dislocation of her arm. Her husband set it immediately, before it had time to swell, and she now merely wears her arm in a sling.

Many of the young people are interested in the patriotic entertainment to be given at the opera house next Monday evening for the benefit of J. W. Reynolds post, and active preparations for the affair are going on. The living pictures, produced by aid of mechanical effects and exhibited under the glow of powerful calcium lights, will be an attractive feature of the programme. Burck's orchestra will furnish music. The price of tickets has been placed at 25 and 35 cents.

Mrs. Grace Welser Davis, the lady evangelist, who is expected here March 19, is now in Massachusetts. She has an engagement at Sudbuhanna for next week.

C. L. Kresky was over to Scranton Monday.

George Mansfield, of Meshoppen, was pigeon-holed at the bastille Monday night for making an assault. He was sent up by Justice Harley in default of $100 bail.

Jenkins Brungos was home from Wyoming Territory to attend the funeral of his uncle, D. J. Bardwell.

Conrad Menger, of Post Hill, was a guest of Sheriff Knapp yesterday.

The B and C supper in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church Friday evening promises to be a very enjoyable affair. Beans, chicken, pie, brown bread, cake, coffee and a lot of other dishes that are spelled with the second and third letters of the alphabet will make up an ample bill of fare.

In addition to this Miss Zua Guile will be present and render a number of edifying selections. The price of admission to the whole thing is only 25 cents.

Should anything like a general break-up in the weather occur with the present heavy snow on the ground the people living along the river flats will have to flee to the mountains. The snow is quite rapidly melting away with the sunshiny weather, and it is hoped that it will be greatly diminished before a rain comes. The snow would be a matter of small consequence if the river was not filled with ice.

N. H. Mack and son, Albert, will leave for Bethlehem this morning. Mrs. Mack and the rest of the family will follow a day or two later.

Lute Barlow is housed up with a serious eye trouble.

The large barn on the farm of Hendrick B. Keener, a short distance below Falls, was burned Monday night. The origin of the fire and the loss was not reported. There was insurance of $200 with Orr Brothers agency.

The following telegram from S. Y. Harrington, of Riverside, Ill., was received by Dr. E. F. Avery yesterday afternoon: "Katie's death hourly expected. Unconscious the past two days; no hope." The message refers to Mrs. Harrington, who was Miss Katie Vantuly, a native of this county. She has been in poor health for a long time.

At the funeral services of Mrs. Pike yesterday Rev. Hodge made brief, but very appropriate remarks, and a quartet consisting of Mrs. F. F. Drake, J. R. Hungerford and E. Lyman, of this place, and George Layell, of Pittston, rendered music that was very highly complimented. Mr. Layell has an exceptionally fine tenor voice, and his assistance added much. Hon. George Landon failed to get here, which was a disappointment to the people, and no doubt to himself, as he was a personal friend of the deceased.

The programme for the two days' session of the Farmers' Institute, commencing Feb. 26, includes some very pertinent topics among its essays and addresses, and no doubt will be of unusual interest. The address of welcome will be made by Major H. W. Bardwell, and the response by H. P. Loomis. Mrs. Norma Sterling will read a paper entitled, "The Farm, the Home and the Grange." Colonel R. S. Searle will speak on "Agriculture, Its Importance and Future Prospects." Cyrus Shays will talk about "Spraying." A. C. Sisson on "Fruit and Potato Culture." W. I. Avery on "Farm Gardening for Profit," and Professor H. J. Waters, of the State College of Agriculture, on "Building up a Dairy Herd." Thomas J. Udey, secretary of the state board of Agriculture, will also give a general address; Miss Bertha DeWitt will recite, and the usual opportunity for questions and discussions will be given. J. R. Hungerford will lead the singing.

"After suffering from dyspepsia for three years, I decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters. Two bottles cured me entirely." Mrs. G. C. White, Taberg, Oneida county, New York.

HONESDALE.

Grace church probably held the largest body of people Monday night that it ever contained, and many were turned away at its doors. The organ recital by William S. Chester drew this large assemblage. The music which this gentleman brought out of the organ was very sweet and classical. Charles Mehan rendered three soprano solos that completely captivated the audience and were splendid evidences of the wonderful voice that has given him so large a reputation as a sweet singer. Mr. Chester and Master Mehan are from St. George's, New York.

Cured of Catarrh

Feels Like A New Woman Since Taking Hood's Indigestion and Sick Headaches Also Relieved.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla since last December for indigestion, catarrh and sick headache, and it has made me feel like a new woman. When I commenced taking it I did not have any appetite and for years I had to be very careful about my diet. Now I can eat any kind of food without any distress afterwards. I had a severe case of catarrh, and this with my indigestion brought on frequent attacks of sick headache. They bothered me very much. But since taking several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla

All is Changed. It has cured me of catarrh and my other troubles. I hope every one similarly afflicted will try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of its merit." Miss ELLA JOHNSON, 1215 Alder Street, Philadelphia, Penn.
