CITY NOTES. Select council will meet tonight. Third chamber concert tonight at 8 o'clock. A fine programme. The prohibitionists of the city will hold forth this evening at Conservatory hall.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage will deliver his famous lecture, "My Journey Around the World," at the Frothingham tonight. There is an immensely large advance sale of seats and the theater will undoubtedly be crowded.

Washington's birthday will be celebrated at the Rescue mission by special services, when musical selection will be given by the quartette and chorus choir. Rev. Charles E. Robinson, D.D., and others will deliver brief addresses.

Plans for the proposed silk mill to be erected on the South Side are now prepared and will be delivered at the board of trade office today. The plans show buildings of massive appearance, which will form a handsome addition to the edifices on the South Side.

The regular meeting of the Homeopathic Medical society of northeastern Pennsylvania will be held this evening at the office of Dr. H. B. Ware. Essays will be read by Dr. Brewster and Roberts, and the discussion with regard to their will be led by Drs. Helmer, Young and Leehom.

A well attended entertainment was held at the Excelsior hall, on Wyoming avenue, last night, when a considerable amount was netted for the benefit of the Ladies' General Relief society. Tableau, music and dancing were interspersed in the amusements of the evening.

REV. JOHN J. MANGAN DEAD

Illness Which Attacked Him Sunday Morning Proved Fatal.

DEATH DUE TO HEART FAILURE

He Was One of the Best Known Young Priests of This Diocese—President of St. Thomas' College—Funeral Tomorrow Morning.

Rev. John J. Mangan, president of St. Thomas' college, after an illness of but a few days, died yesterday morning at the residence of Right Reverend Bishop O'Hara, on Wyoming avenue. An account of the sudden attack of illness that affected Father Mangan, while celebrating the late mass last Sunday was given in Monday's Tribune. Death occurred at 10:20 o'clock yesterday morning.

After the attack on Sunday Father Mangan was taken to his room and Dr. P. H. Kearney waited upon him. The patient was not then in a dangerous condition, and it was believed that his recovery would be a matter of only a few days.

The community was pained beyond measure at the sad news, for Father Mangan was a dearly beloved priest. He was born in Cuba, N. Y., on Nov. 30, 1862, and was ordained to the priesthood at St. Peter's cathedral in Bishop O'Hara on July 25, 1888. He was appointed assistant at the cathedral, and when St. Thomas' college opened he assumed charge of it. He was of a high degree of intelligence, and possessed a wonderful range of knowledge. His deep knowledge of philosophy and the sciences, in him were combined all of the characteristics of a good man and good priest.

Possessed a kindly nature. Few men possessed the nature prominently noticed in Father Mangan. In his dealings with the material world he had the reputation of being solicitous and watchful, and it is said of him that he never offered a single person.

Whereas we have heard with sorrow of the death of Rev. Father Mangan our holy mother, the church, has lost an able, zealous and devoted priest. Be it resolved, by the Ancient Order of Hibernians of America, of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, that they do hereby express their sincere sympathy with the relatives in their sad bereavement.

Members of all the Catholic societies of the city are invited to the funeral of Rev. J. J. Mangan, by order of Rev. J. A. O'Reilly.

Assets of the Olyphant Trust Company Set Forth. Ex-District Attorney John P. Kelly, assignee of the Olyphant Trust company, filed yesterday with Prothonotary Pryor an inventory of the effects and assets of the defunct bank made by the appraisers, Joseph H. Gunster and A. H. Christy.

WILL ASK ASSISTANCE.

Poor Board Thinks Legislature Should Assist It.

A special meeting of the poor board was held last evening when Director Gibbons introduced the question of making an application to the legislature for an appropriation for assistance in the maintenance of the insane patients at the Hillside Home. He explained that the state contributed the sum of $2.25 per week per patient at the state institutions, and $1.75 per week was contributed by the poor district from which the patient was sent, making $4 per week the sum allowed for the maintenance of each patient.

The Scranton poor district had 150 insane patients at the Hillside Home and the state made no contribution toward their maintenance, inasmuch as it was not a state institution. Mr. Gibbons had interviewed the local members of the legislature, who were strongly impressed with the claim presented on behalf of the district, and suggested that a committee of the board should be appointed to meet the sub-committee on appropriations, which would visit Scranton on Friday.

Peculiar Physical Traits Which May Bring Vissiskie, the Young Polish Murderer, to Justice—What Came of a Photograph.

Unless Vissiskie, the young Polish murderer, has down the country or keeps in hiding in some far away city the probabilities are that he will be captured. A consideration of his probable apprehension offers considerable interest for several reasons.

Vissiskie is young, handsome and intelligent looking, differing in most respects in a marked degree from his countrymen. He has certain peculiar physical marks which cannot possibly be effaced or altered by chemicals, disguise or other means.

Netted Ten Cents and Papa Made Up the Balance—Finishing and Furnishing Fund Is a Lusty Infant.

Someone who forgot to sign his or her name sent a two-cent postage stamp for the Finishing and Furnishing fund to The Tribune. Previously the smallest amount contributed had been five cents.

These small sums are not considered from solely a value standpoint. If any person sends only two cents and that is all that he can afford, the sum is as much entitled to recognition as a check for $5 from a business man.

TALMAGE LECTURE TONIGHT.

My Journey Around the World at the Frothingham. "My Journey Around the World" the lecture that Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage was to have delivered last week, but which was postponed, will be given at the Frothingham this evening. The unusually large sale of seats gives promise of a crowded house. The tickets purchased for last week will, of course, be good for tonight.

Rev. Charles E. Robinson, of the Second Presbyterian church, will introduce Dr. Talmage, and there will be representative Scranton clergymen upon the stage with the famous Brooklyn divine. Tickets for the lecture can Tea. SUPPER. Cold Turkey. Cold Ham. Chicken Salad. Baked Beans. Saratoga Chips. Dressed Cabbage. Pickles. Bread. Cakes. Canned Peaches. Coffee. Tea.

Will Wait a Few Days Longer. A letter has been received from L. K. Torbet concerning withdrawal for a few days the letter read at the meeting of the board of trade on Monday. Mr. Torbet has been in communication with the board of trade for some time with regard to forming a tin plate industry, and made a proposition, which was thought to be an admirable one, but owing to the length of time which has since elapsed, he withdrew his proposition and subscription of $20.00 on Monday, and intended to make investigations with a view of organizing a company in Indiana. The committee of the board will make another effort to raise the necessary subscriptions.

Request for an Injunction Refused. Judge Archibald in an opinion handed down yesterday refused to grant the preliminary injunction asked for by Mrs. Henrietta Alney to restrain Eliza Brown from leaving on her property on an execution obtained against Mrs. Alney's husband. As the writ was issued out of the courts of Susquehanna county, Judge Archibald says "it is doubtful if this court has jurisdiction." He thought it advisable to refuse the request for the injunction.

Salvatori Released on Bail. Rocco Salvatori, one of the important witnesses for the commonwealth in the case of Joseph Boschina, was taken before the court yesterday and the amount of his bail reduced from $2,000 to $500. Vedo Gerardi became his bondsman in the latter amount.

"WE'RE RIGHT IN THE PUSH."

When the advertising atmosphere is so heavily charged with exaggeration, it is well to remember who the honest advertisers are. Windy assertions about GREAT reductions--advertising goods at impossible prices, find no lodging place in the minds of intelligent people. Dull trade throughout the legitimate business season may make necessary, wild statements from some clothiers to attract trade, but the schemers will have to scheme harder and find new disguises for their lame excuses before they can stop the people from coming to this store for honest values.

The triumph of this store is the triumph of intelligence, and you have made it so. Trade has been up to the mark here, yet there's a touch of attractiveness in the styles and assortments. We've added another and more taking attraction--REDUCED PRICES, natural order of things here at this season; LOWER PRICES than you find ELSEWHERE.
