NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TAYLOR.

Tonight will occur the grand ball for which the Taylor Athletic club has been making arrangements during the past few months.

The regular business meeting of the Price Library association will be held this, instead of tomorrow evening.

David J. Davis, of the Archbold, is confined to his home with illness.

Glendale breakers No. 1 and 2 will be paid on Saturday.

A chicken supper will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow night.

Professor D. E. Jones, formerly of this place, has been elected councilman of Laflin borough.

Edward E. Davis is visiting friends in Nanticoke.

The election held in this borough on Tuesday was void of any interest or excitement, with the exception of the councilman's fight in the fifth ward.

The Republican candidates were unopposed in the other wards. The following is a list of the officers: First ward--School directors, Richard Griffiths and James Powell; council, William Morris and John E. Davis.

Second ward--School director, John B. Daniels; council, Gomer E. Jones; constable, Edmund Carter; assessor, Griff Owens; judge of election, Joseph J. Jones; inspector of election, Thomas Francis.

Third ward--School director, Anthony Edwards; council, John R. Price; constable, Ed-Edwin Allen; judge of election, W. J. Hoskins; assessor, David T. Evans.

Fourth ward--School director, James Price; council, Robert J. Jones, John P. Fabus, 27; Robert Alley, 72; John Yates, 35; school director, J. B. Reese (three years); H. J. The Hillside Coal and Iron company has just received a new locomotive for use on its small coal railroad between No. 2 shaft and the Clifford breaker.

The wife of Joseph Boschino was in town Monday and Tuesday collecting money to be used in carrying the Lackawanna county murder case to the supreme court.

The correspondent of The Tribune was somewhat surprised that Brother Mooney devoted a half column of his very valuable paper to him and the Forest City school board Tuesday.

Brother Mooney is a good "bluffer" and he adopts his old-time tactics and says the "authorities at Harrisburg must be notified." Why doesn't he go ahead and notify them? We can prove to his entire satisfaction that the report of the Forest City school board was made in 1890 and 1891 and publicly advertised, and can show him copies of the advertisement. We can also prove to him that reports have been made by the board in some public manner every year since, and that the books of the board were placed in the hands of one of the auditors at the proper time in 1894, so that the auditors could make a report if they chose to. Editor Mooney, the champion of almost everything, should go right on and do as he has threatened. There people will believe there is something to him besides a caustic pen and a pugnacious disposition.

At the election held Tuesday the total Republican ticket was elected in the borough by majorities ranging from 8 to 22. The Second ward elected Republican officers also, but the First ward chose a Democratic assessor, judge of election and majority inspector. The borough officers elected were as follows: Auditor, H. W. Brown; school directors, one year, M. D. Evans; two years, Dr. C. R. Knapp; three years, F. J. Pentecost and J. M. Brown; postmaster, W. H. Bates; high constable, W. L. Bates. The First ward elected F. J. Hood assessor, James McAndrew judge of election, George C. Westgate and J. C. Walters inspectors. In the Second ward W. A. Watts and John R. Baid were elected councilmen; A. L. Morgan, assessor; W. E. Brundage, judge of election; Samuel Jennings and Thomas Cavanaugh, inspectors. One hundred and ninety-four votes were cast in the Second ward and 147 in the First ward. For congress in the borough, Jordan, R., received, for short term, 167 votes;

PECKVILLE.

The hose company did its first service last night. Since the new hose carriage has been received a week ago the boys have been anxious to give it a "run." The opportunity came last night. A fire was discovered on Jail street, and an alarm sounded. The fire ladders responded and although the hose house is fully a half mile from the scene of the fire, fourteen minutes after the alarm was sounded a stream was on the blazing pile. It afterwards transpired that the fire was started in a pile of boxes by mischievous boys, but it served as an opportunity to show what creditable work the boys can do.

Last evening at 6 o'clock an exceedingly pretty wedding took place in St. Patrick's church, which was witnessed by many friends of the contracting parties. It was the union of two popular young people--Miss Margaret O'Hara and William Fallon--both of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Murphy. The best man was James Vail, of Archbold, and Miss Alice Kelly, of Archbold, maid. The bride and her maid were attended in very becoming gowns. That of the bride was white silk in train and bridal veil, while the maid wore cream silk. Both carried white roses. After the ceremony the bridal party were driven to the residence of the bride's parents, where a reception was held. They left on the midnight train for an extended tour.

In the borough elections there was never a time when the officers were more unanimously elected in the borough parties than this year. Party lines were out of sight, and no candidate could say whether his election or defeat was due to his own party or not. The result, however, is generally satisfactory.

Harry J. Bardwell, president of the Susquehanna Steamship company, of Chicago, returned to that place today, having been called here to attend the funeral of his father.

Jordan's majority in the county is highly complimentary, considering the light vote cast. The roads were bad, and in consequence many in the back districts did not get out to the polls. Notwithstanding this the county gave him a majority of 632. Coddie's majority is 590. Bradford gives Jordan 4,000 and Coddie 5,000. Wayne gives Jordan 209 each, and Susquehanna is yet to hear from, but will probably add another thousand, or more, for each man. Congratulations are now in order.

S. S. Breese is still in a serious condition. His disease has developed into bronchitis, with strong tendencies to pneumonia.

Scrofula Humer and Distress in the Stomach Cured.

The following testimonial comes from Mr. D. Sterling Mitchell of Wintertown, Pa., who conducts a printing office and collecting agency and is the youngest justice of the peace in the state: "G. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:"

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful health restorer, nerve strengthener and blood purifier. For the last four or five years I have been troubled with humer and scrofula in the blood, breaking out all over my body, which caused itching and kept me from rest at night. I was also, at the same time, troubled with a Sour Stomach, which was anything but pleasant. I could not even take a swallow of water but what I suffered from distress and acidity. I did not get a good meal until after I commenced to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did not see the good effects after the first few doses. I continued to use the medicine until now I have taken five bottles and feel entirely cured." D. STERLING MITCHELL, Justice of Peace, Wintertown, Pa.
