

Bound to Return.

The housewife may be persuaded to try another kind, but if she has used Cleveland's Baking Powder once, she remembers how light and flaky her biscuits were; how her cake kept moist and fresh and she will return to Cleveland's and stick to it.

Remember No baking powder costs so much to make as Cleveland's. No other gives such value.

WILLIAMS AND CARRETS M'ANULTY 27 WYOMING AVENUE $5 REWARD!

So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing the Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

There will be music this afternoon and evening at the Driving park skating rink. The local institute which was to have been held at Daleville today has been postponed until further notice. A social evening was held by the Young Women's Christian association rooms by the general secretary, Miss Maccarty. All young women are invited.

The will of Theresa Burger, late of the city of Scranton, was yesterday admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Theodor Burger and Peter Bolling, jr. The will of Katherine Zorn, late of Scranton, was also admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Christina Teichman.

The members of Calvary Reformed church will please note the fact that the pastor, Rev. W. H. Stubbins, will preach in the chapel Sunday morning and evening in place of Rev. Aaron Soli. Morning subject, "The Triumph of Grace"; evening, "A Valuable Lamp." Strangers welcome.

The first meeting of the incorporators of the Memorial Hall association was held at the office of Colonel Ripple Thursday evening. The following officers were elected: President, E. H. Ripple; vice president, John T. Howe; secretary, Fred J. Amundson; treasurer, F. W. Martin. The board of directors consists of twenty-five members.

Wood Gains 103. The record made by Wood's Business College this year is phenomenal. From Aug. 7, '94, to the present time 103 more students have entered the college than during the corresponding dates last year.

Mr. Palmer Qualifies. He is now empowered to act as one of the Handley Executors. Ex-Attorney General Henry W. Palmer, of Wilkes-Barre, who was appointed one of the executors of the will of the late John Handley, appeared before Register of Wills Hopkins yesterday and took the oath to administer the trust with which he has been intrusted.

SCRANTON AHEAD AS USUAL.

Steam Heat Company to Operate in Philadelphia.

PROJECT WAS KEPT SECRET.

Charter Only a Day Old When on Thursday a Bill Granting the Use of Streets Was Introduced in Philadelphia Councils—Company's Plans.

Three well known Scranton business men in conjunction with two men from other cities have been incorporated into a company and propose establishing in Philadelphia an enterprise of magnitude which will cost about half a million dollars of capital.

DEATH OF MRS. SCRANTON.

Ends a Life Filled with Beauty and Good Deeds.

Mrs. Cornelia W. Scranton, relict of the late Joseph H. Scranton, died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. It was her seventy-second birthday. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the house, and private interment by her relatives and near friends will be made in the family burial chapel in the Dunmore cemetery.

Mrs. Cornelia Walker Scranton came from an old and well-known western Massachusetts family. Her paternal grandfather, Judge William Walker, was an ardent republican patriot and officer in the Continental army. He fought in the battle of Bunker Hill and was with Montgomery and Arnold in the attack on Quebec, and was with the army at the disastrous retreat from Canada. He fought alongside Stark at Bennington, and afterward assisted in Burgoyne's capture at Saratoga. He joined Washington's forces in New Jersey and took part in the battle of Trenton, Brandywine and other actions.

After the war Judge Walker, like many other men of his time, invested largely in the then wild lands of western New York. He was elected county judge of Berkshire county and served about thirty years in that capacity. The son, William P. Walker, father of Mrs. Scranton, succeeded to his father's various interests and was also a judge of Berkshire county.

Mrs. Scranton was born Feb. 22, 1823, and spent her childhood in beautiful Berkshire county, Mass. She was married to Joseph H. Scranton July 12, 1842. After a two years' residence in Georgia she came to Scranton in 1847 and lived here ever since. Joseph H. Scranton died in 1872. They had six children, five of whom are living. W. W. Scranton, of this city, president of the Scranton Gas and Water company; Walter Scranton, of Brick Church, N. J., president of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company; Mrs. Alice Adams, of New York; and Mrs. Nellie Showmaker, wife of Dr. Showmaker, of Wilkes-Barre, and Arthur Scranton, who is in Germany. One daughter, Mrs. Frances LeRoy, is dead.

Mrs. Scranton's early married life and later years especially exemplified the peculiar New England training received in her girlhood. These ideas of New England and home she applied in her special devotion to children and friends—these being to her a first thought and a first interest. For the last fifteen years she had been an invalid and unable to leave the city or go further away from home than the distance included in drives of a few miles. She made no complaint and even bore with smiles a martyrdom of suffering, of which but little idea can be formed. She took a lively interest in affairs generally, had a keen sense of humor and kept well posted on the best literature of the day.

The general meeting for young women will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Young Women's Christian association rooms by the general secretary, Miss Maccarty. All young women are invited.

Messengers Brothers are distributing a unique but very handy little souvenir among their customers and friends. It is a card, fashioned after the ordinary playing card, which contains a list of all the five alarm boxes in the city.

Amos Robinson was held by United States Commissioner Colburn in jail on Thursday to answer at court for selling liquor without an internal revenue license. He will be arraigned at the March term of the United States district court in this city.

On Monday morning, Feb. 23, at 20:30 o'clock, Professor Horace M. Eckman, son of President Elder Eckman, will read a paper on church music in the weekly meeting in Elm Park church. All the pastors in the city and vicinity are invited to attend.

The will of Theresa Burger, late of the city of Scranton, was yesterday admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Theodor Burger and Peter Bolling, jr. The will of Katherine Zorn, late of Scranton, was also admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Christina Teichman.

Additional testimony was yesterday taken before Deputy Register of Wills Hopkins in the proceedings to set aside the testamentary letters in the will of the late Isaac W. Cobb, of Jefferson township. Three witnesses were sworn yesterday and then the hearing was adjourned until Tuesday, March 5.

The members of Calvary Reformed church will please note the fact that the pastor, Rev. W. H. Stubbins, will preach in the chapel Sunday morning and evening in place of Rev. Aaron Soli. Morning subject, "The Triumph of Grace"; evening, "A Valuable Lamp." Strangers welcome.

The first meeting of the incorporators of the Memorial Hall association was held at the office of Colonel Ripple Thursday evening. The following officers were elected: President, E. H. MR. DICKSON'S LETTER.

He Sends $10 for the Finishing and Furnishing Fund, and Says Some Things Reside—Why Another Business Man Thought He Owed the Association $0 Cents.

A. W. Dickson, of the Weston Mill company, and for a long time identified with the management of the Young Men's Christian association, enclosed $10 in the following characteristic letter to the Tribune yesterday:

"That I have not before this time manifested interest in your useful and unselfish effort to interest our people in the needs of the Young Men's Christian association, is no evidence that I have not, in common with other directors and workers, been greatly pleased with and grateful for your assistance. Your work has been maintained during past years by comparatively few, and if you are permitted to enlist a larger number of our citizens in the good cause you will be rewarded by the happy consciousness of having given aid to a worthy institution, and comfort to those who are actively and self-interestedly in the welfare of young men."

Please accept the enclosed with my warmest wish for the success of your undertaking. A. W. Dickson. Scranton, Pa., Feb. 22, 1895.

Whether Mr. Dickson's position on the Finishing and Furnishing fund question will be appreciated by hundreds of other business men able to give toward a good cause remains to be seen. An opinion with a check accompanying it is worth just the amount of the check more than words of praise alone.

Who is the next business man to go on record? Amount received yesterday. The itemized statement of the fund shows $16.10 received yesterday, a grand total of $268.34, as follows:

Table with columns for Name and Amount. Includes entries for A. W. Dickson ($10.00), S. D. Lester ($2.00), W. L. Wilkes ($1.00), A. Friend ($1.00), Cash ($2.00), B. T. Clark ($1.00), Green Ridge ($2.00), P. S. Clay ($2.00), George ($2.00), C. A. Evans ($1.00), "Bub" ($1.00), Eighth Ward ($1.00), Harry Clark ($1.00), David Klutz ($1.00), Oscar ($1.00). Total $26.10.

If you desire, cut this out and send with your contribution to the Tribune. FOR THE Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

It does Great Good. A young business man said yesterday: "Yes, the Young Men's Christian association is an institution which does a great deal of good."

"Do you think that 'good' is felt in the community?" asked a friend. "Certainly."

"Well, if that is so it has helped you indirectly, of course. Now if you are half a man you'll pay the Young Men's Christian association something for the indirect good it has done you. Come now, don't hide from your argument; how much will you give?"

The young business man looked puzzled for a second, then smiled and said, "Guess you're right; put me down for 50 cents. Mark it 'cash.'"

His 50 cents is acknowledged above. For plumbing and electric bells telephone 222 to W. G. Dowd & Co., 509 Lackawanna Ave.

THE NATIONAL CREDIT IS ABOVE PAR. Bonds sell at a high premium, but Groceries, where are they? Never so low, and the fact that FINE GOODS Are so low, most people are buying the best. Buy where you can do the best always, but there is certainly some good reason for our increase in trade, and we attribute it to the very low prices on our entire stock. New customers every day. E. G. The sub-committee of the appropriations committee of the state house of representatives, which arrived here Thursday night, spent yesterday in examining charitable institutions and their requests for state aid. The sub-committee is composed of John H. Fow, chairman, of Philadelphia; Mr. Dambly, of Norristown; Montgomery county, and Mr. Mansfield, of Beaver county. In company with Representatives Connell and O'Malley, of this county, they received many callers at the Hotel Terrace in the interest of the Lackawanna hospital would be granted. Out of respect to the whole committee, however, neither Mr. Fow nor the other members could reveal their intentions personally or otherwise.
