

M. NORTON, TEMPORARY STORE, 115 WYOMING AVENUE, Corner Center street. New Stock, Attractive Prices, Miscellaneous Books and Bibles, Blank Account Books, all sizes, Staple and Fancy Stationery, Law Blank Forms, large assortment, Leases, Deeds, Contracts, etc., Letter Copying Presses and Books, Artists' and Draughtsmen's Materials, Crepe and Tissue Paper Materials, Window Shades and Fixtures.

A Foe to Dyspepsia

GOOD BREAD USE THE Snow White FLOUR And Always Have Good Bread.

MANUFACTURED AND FOR SALE TO THE TRADE BY The Weston Mill Co.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS THE GENUINE POPULAR Punch Cigars HAVE THE INITIALS G. B. & CO. IMPRINTED ON EACH CIGAR. Garney, Brown & Co. Mfr's Court House Square.

PERSONAL. E. S. Handrick, of Tunkhannock, is at the Wyoming. C. C. Swisher, of Wyoming seminary, was here Saturday.

JOHN H. BROOKS. New York Herald Gives Him Complimentary Notice. Among a number of other articles containing sketches of the prominent college athletic captains, yesterday's New York Herald has this to say of a popular young Scramonian: "John H. Brooks, '95, of Scranton, Pa., who was elected captain of Princeton base ball team at the close of last season, is a member of the senior class in the John C. Green school of sciences, where he was born in Scranton in 1874, where he was prepared for college, first attending the district school and afterward the School of the Lackawanna, near Scranton, where he graduated in the class of '91, and entered Princeton the following fall. At his preparatory school he captained the baseball team and played during the summer with the Young Men's Christian association team. He began his career as a ball player at college by distinguishing himself in the freshman class game against the sophomores. He presented himself as a candidate for the varsity nine the following spring, during the captaincy of Laurier A. Young, and is one of the leading social clubs of the college. He is in the class of '91, and is short in stature, strongly built and very quick. On the field he plays with a dash and brilliancy that makes him at once a favorite with the spectators. At his preparatory school he always played second base, but on entering college he was moved to short, where he has since become famous as one of the best college short stops in the country. During his sophomore year he was injured at Cambridge in the second Harvard game, and was unable to play during the last four weeks of the season. Last year he played in every important game of the season, and showed great steadiness and good judgment in all his work. On the social side of college life Captain Brooks holds a position which is indeed an enviable one. He occupies happily furnished quarters in the new Brown Hall dormitory, and is a general favorite with all of the students. He is also a prominent member of the Tiger Inn, one of the leading social clubs of the college. He was elected captain of the base ball team during his sophomore year.

COMING EVENTS. This evening at Music hall the Lederhann will hold their annual masquerade ball. "A Winter in Florence Prison: His Escape, Capture and Flight" will be the subject of Colonel E. H. Ripple's lecture in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church Thursday evening, March 7. An oyster supper will be held for the benefit of Fred Williams on Thursday evening, Feb. 28, 1895, at his residence, 221 Adams avenue. Mr. Williams has been an invalid for a long time, and his friends have adopted this means of helping him. The price of tickets is 25 cents. The first lecture of the illustrated course on Venice will be given this evening in the Young Men's Christian association hall at 8 o'clock. Both course and single tickets may be had at Powell's this morning with reserved seats. Course tickets, $2.00; single tickets, 50 cents.

Burdock Blood Bitters never fails to cure all impurities of the blood, from a common pimple to the worst scrofula sore.

SUPREME COURT CASES

This Will Be Lackawanna County's Week at State's Highest Tribunal.

NEW TRIAL FOR FRANZ BEZEK

An Effort Will Be Made Today to Convince the Court That It Should Be Granted Notwithstanding Judge Edwards' Decision.

This is the week during which the members of the Lackawanna bar make their annual pilgrimage to the supreme court at Philadelphia, where they will argue before the highest tribunal in the state for and against the reversal of judgment in cases that have already been passed upon in the local courts. When court adjourned Saturday it was decided not to convene it again until March 11, when license court will begin sitting this week the court house will be a somewhat deserted place. Probably the first Lackawanna case that will be heard by the supreme court today will be an appeal in the opinion of Judge Edwards regarding a new trial in the case of He. Commonwealth against Franz Bezek, who is under sentence of death for murder. The supreme court has specially fixed today for this argument. Attorneys George M. Watson, A. J. Colborn, Jr., and George S. Horn will appear for Bezek.

Other cases from Lackawanna, Wayne, Pike and Wyoming counties that are set down for a hearing this week are: That Jones Case. Jones, appellant, against the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad company; H. M. Hannan, Samuel B. Price for plaintiff, and Willard, Warren & Knapp for defendant. Hatfield, appellant, against Hall and others; Jessups & Hand for the appellant, the plaintiff. Simrell against Miller, executor, appellant; Hulshander & Vosburg for plaintiff, and W. Gardner and Watson and Zimmerman for appellant, the defendant. Griffin and others against Mulley and others, appellants; Samuel B. Price for appellant. Cornett, appellant, against Delaware and Hudson Canal company; Samuel B. Price and P. W. Stokes for the plaintiff and Jessups & Hand for the defendant. The grading of Gibson street, J. H. Torrey for the city and I. H. Burns for the property owners. Barrett and others against Neary, Burgess and others, in equity; Samuel B. Price and C. R. Pitcher for appellants. Powell estate Owens' appeal; George W. Beale & C. W. Dawson, and Thomas F. Wells, attorneys. Delaware and Hudson Canal company, appellant, against Jessups & Hand for plaintiffs, and Willard, Warren & Knapp for defendant. Frutkine, appellant, against Lutz and the Scranton Traction company, appellants; C. W. Dawson for plaintiff, and Jessups & Hand for defendant. Chubbuck and others against Schenck, appellant, Wayne county; Homer Greene for defendant, and the city of Scranton, appellant; James H. Torrey for the city; I. H. Burns for property owners. Goodman against the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, appellant, Wayne county; A. T. Seale and F. P. Kemble for plaintiff, and Homer Greene for defendant, against the appellant. Feltz against the B. & W.

Feltz, appellant, against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, with notice to Hopsett and others; A. Kicketts for appellant and Jessups & Hand for defendant. Fellows, appellant, against Loomis and others; C. Smith for plaintiff, and H. M. Hannan, Samuel B. Price and Henry W. Palmer for the defendant. Smith and others (Farmers' Bank of Springfield, N. Y.) appellants, against Sheshey and others; Little, Moore & Sheshey for appellants.

Boyle and others against the Hamburg-Bremen Fire Insurance company, appellant; Willard, Warren & Knapp for plaintiffs, and Jessups & Hand for the defendant. Scranton Gas and Water company against the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company, appellant; I. H. Burns for plaintiff, and M. E. Olmstead for defendant. Brennan, administrator, appellant, against the Prudential Insurance company of America; F. L. Hitchcock for plaintiff and Hulshander & Vosburg for defendant. Kearney, appellant, against the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey; F. L. Hitchcock for plaintiff, and Willard, Warren & Knapp for defendant. Eversly and others against Harrison, appellant, Wayne county; Charles A. Mearns for appellant. Gilbert against the Commonwealth, appellant; Willard, Warren & Knapp for plaintiff, and F. L. Hitchcock for commonwealth.

Phelps against the commonwealth, appellant; Ward & Horn for plaintiff, and F. L. Hitchcock for defendant. Pennsylvania Agricultural society, appellant, against Lerman, T. P. Wells and F. L. Hitchcock for plaintiffs. Wyoming County Case. Farnett and others, appellants, against Davis and others, Wyoming county, E. J. Jordan and Charles E. Terry for plaintiffs, and James W. Platt for defendant. May against the Carbonade Traction company, appellant; I. H. Burns for plaintiff, and James E. Burr and Samuel B. Price for defendant. New York and Ontario Land company against Weldner and wife, appellant, Samuel B. Price for defendant. Burr, appellant, against Kasse and others, Hulshander & Vosburg for plaintiffs. Durr against Koplege, appellant, C. W. Gardner and Charles W. Dawson, attorneys.

AFTER A NEW TRIAL. Reasons Why One Should Be Granted Filed in Boschino Case. Reason for a new trial in the case of Joseph Boschino, convicted of murder in the first degree for the crime of killing Frank Conforti, were filed before Judge Gunster Saturday morning in court by counsel for the defense, Attorneys Ward, Horn, and Wedeman.

Thirty reasons for a new trial were filed, and they covered every conceivable feature in all the proceedings of the trial. The court examined the reasons carefully and Judge Gunster then granted a rule to show why a new trial should not be granted. The rule will be argued at the next term of argument court, which will be held during the week beginning Monday, April 23.

In brief the reasons are that the court erred in charging the jury; the argument of District Attorney Jones is attacked and also his attitude during the trial. It is also alleged that on one or more occasions the jury were separated, and that one of them, Lewis Pollet, strayed away one day while out at meals, entered a place of business and remained there away from the rest a considerable length of time. It is CHARGED THAT SOME OF THE JURORS PROCURED NEWSPAPERS AND READ PARTIAL ACCOUNTS OF THE TRIAL AND COMMENTS THEREON.

The first reason advanced is that the verdict is against the evidence. It is charged that Judge Gunster erred in not quoting the testimony of the defense with the same care and stress as that of the commonwealth. The court is charged with having erred in referring to the evidence of an alibi; in fact, the court, it is alleged, erred through it in not giving the defendant all the benefit of whatever evidence tended to establish his innocence.

The counsel for the defendant objects to the language used by the District Attorney, particularly when he said: "I know that Boschino killed Conforti, by my investigation in the case I learn this, but in such form the court would not admit it in evidence. In so doing the court has erred in quoted expressions used in the trial by the district attorney, which counsel for the defense allege are sufficient to warrant the court in awarding a new trial to Boschino. The hearing will come up before the three judges, the same as the application for a new trial was heard in the Bezek.

IN LOCAL THEATERS. At the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening the attraction will be the champion of the world, James J. Corbett, who will be seen in the excellent comedy drama, "Gentleman Jack." Exact representations of the Madison Square Roof garden, New York, the arena of the Olympic club, New Orleans; the training quarters at Lockport, and the campus of Payne college, are seen in the production. During the roof garden scene a number of entertaining speculations are introduced. Mr. Corbett in the last act will spar three scientific rounds with Steve O'Donnell. This scene is an exact representation of the Olympic club, New Orleans, and is a real sensation. The cast are such noted players as Ben Hendricks, J. W. McConnell, Wilson, John McVeigh, Bert Tuckman, J. A. Wren, Fred Harrison, Andrew Haynes, Miss Nellie Buckler, Miss Henrietta Osborne and Miss B. Howard.

Many of our clever play writers fall in their comedy scene. Milton Nobles, who has for years been very successful as a writer and producer of melodramas, has a happy faculty of introducing good comedy scenes and characters. His success in an act directed towards him encouraged him to write a comedy entirely free of melo-dramatic element. It is called "For Revenue Only" and will be seen at the Academy of Music on Thursday evening, with the author in the leading comedy role. The leading character in Milton Nobles' new comedy, "For Revenue Only," is a newspaper reporter. Mr. Nobles' performance of this "speedy Bohemian" in the "Phenix" brought him fame and fortune. The reporter in his new play is said to be a most modern and respectable style of character.

"A Cracker Jack" will be the attraction at Davis' theater today, tomorrow and Wednesday afternoon and evening. Messrs. Starr and Nicolai, proprietors of "A Cracker Jack," have mounted the play lavishly and cast it with one of the strongest companies preparable. These play embodies a rich fund of comedy, and the best specialty talent to be had has been secured. The services of twenty-two people are required in its production.

"The Derby Winner" pleased another large audience at the Academy of Music Saturday night.

SHE CHANGED HER MIND. Mrs. Barrett-Bromage's Girls Released from House of the Good Shepherd. Smith and others (Farmers' Bank of Springfield, N. Y.) appellants, against Sheshey and others; Little, Moore & Sheshey for appellants.

Boyle and others against the Hamburg-Bremen Fire Insurance company, appellant; Willard, Warren & Knapp for plaintiffs, and Jessups & Hand for the defendant. Scranton Gas and Water company against the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company, appellant; I. H. Burns for plaintiff, and M. E. Olmstead for defendant. Brennan, administrator, appellant, against the Prudential Insurance company of America; F. L. Hitchcock for plaintiff and Hulshander & Vosburg for defendant. Kearney, appellant, against the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey; F. L. Hitchcock for plaintiff, and Willard, Warren & Knapp for defendant. Eversly and others against Harrison, appellant, Wayne county; Charles A. Mearns for appellant. Gilbert against the Commonwealth, appellant; Willard, Warren & Knapp for plaintiff, and F. L. Hitchcock for commonwealth.

Phelps against the commonwealth, appellant; Ward & Horn for plaintiff, and F. L. Hitchcock for defendant. Pennsylvania Agricultural society, appellant, against Lerman, T. P. Wells and F. L. Hitchcock for plaintiffs. Wyoming County Case. Farnett and others, appellants, against Davis and others, Wyoming county, E. J. Jordan and Charles E. Terry for plaintiffs, and James W. Platt for defendant. May against the Carbonade Traction company, appellant; I. H. Burns for plaintiff, and James E. Burr and Samuel B. Price for defendant. New York and Ontario Land company against Weldner and wife, appellant, Samuel B. Price for defendant. Burr, appellant, against Kasse and others, Hulshander & Vosburg for plaintiffs. Durr against Koplege, appellant, C. W. Gardner and Charles W. Dawson, attorneys.

AFTER A NEW TRIAL. Reasons Why One Should Be Granted Filed in Boschino Case. Reason for a new trial in the case of Joseph Boschino, convicted of murder in the first degree for the crime of killing Frank Conforti, were filed before Judge Gunster Saturday morning in court by counsel for the defense, Attorneys Ward, Horn, and Wedeman.

Thirty reasons for a new trial were filed, and they covered every conceivable feature in all the proceedings of the trial. The court examined the reasons carefully and Judge Gunster then granted a rule to show why a new trial should not be granted. The rule will be argued at the next term of argument court, which will be held during the week beginning Monday, April 23.

In brief the reasons are that the court erred in charging the jury; the argument of District Attorney Jones is attacked and also his attitude during the trial. It is also alleged that on one or more occasions the jury were separated, and that one of them, Lewis Pollet, strayed away one day while out at meals, entered a place of business and remained there away from the rest a considerable length of time. It is

DOINGS OF STATE GUARD

Compiled by Enterprising Sergeant Katie for Tribune Readers.

GOVERNOR HASTINGS' STAFF

It Made Its First Public Appearance at the Washington's Birthday Celebration in Philadelphia—A Plan to Start the New Armory Fund.

Local military doings of last week consisted only of the regular routine of drills, with the exception of Captain Kello's company, which added military ball to the programme. It was a happy affair, too. Not only was it a success socially, but financially as well, and very deserving is the object—Company A's treasury, because its funds are always properly distributed.

The company room received a complete renovating last year—now it is the pleasantest in our armory. Company A boys talk of re-decorating their company room, and others need not fear. One's officers and men don't feel that it would be advisable to expend much money in this way, because a new armory may be built before long, but a little new paint does much to brighten things up, and our company rooms should always be the most inviting spot in the building.

of a local nature. The drill of Company D was not postponed last Friday, although a holiday, and many of the boys attended Company E's ball after drill.

The innocent recruit has always been a shining mark for the pranks of oldsters. One of the awkward squad in Company A was tricked and was again being told that the regiment was going to Homestead on the 6 p. m. train Friday, and would leave the armory some time before 6. He asked his employer to excuse him at 5, and hurried home. His employer, however, had been seen at the proper hour, standing before the tightly closed doors of the Adams avenue entrance.

Tomorrow night, at the Frothinghame, the Wilkes-Barre Kirmess will be produced. The old soldiers will not clear very much, but the amount from their effort in Wilkes-Barre, and to hope to add to what they already have by the patronage of this city on Tuesday. We should not forget that a new armory is about to be built in Scranton, and in April we expect to ask Wilkes-Barre to send a good delegation here to aid us with the benefit that is now being planned. Scranton should fill the house tomorrow night if only to criticize the work of our rival amateurs.

State News. Governor Hastings' staff made its first public appearance on Friday at exercises in Philadelphia in commemoration of Washington's birthday, conducted by the University of Pennsylvania in the Academy of Music. The Philadelphia City troop held its annual dinner in the armory one night last week. Preceding the dinner was an inspection in full dress uniform.

March 6 is the date for holding an election in the third regiment to choose a successor to Colonel Morrill. Lieutenant Robert Balston is the one agreed upon. A farewell dinner was given Colonel Morrill last week.

The state camp grounds for 1895 are not yet decided upon. It is not probable that Valley Forge will be used for several years, as full title is not yet acquired of all the ground.

Sergeant Katie. GAY YOUNG COOPER. Clever Sharper Will Go to Jail for Six Months. Elmer Edward Cooper, an all-round sharper, with many aliases, was sentenced by Judge Edwards Saturday to pay a fine of $100 and go to jail for six months. Late last autumn Cooper secured desk room in the insurance office of Monies & Jackson and announced his intention of going into the insurance business. He disappeared in a day or so with a new typewriter machine and a desk set, and left behind him an unpaid board bill at the Wyoming hotel. He was captured by Binghamton officers. Cooper told the court that he had intended no wrong and was sorry if he had been guilty of criminality.

William Reedy and John Brogan were sentenced by Judge Edwards for larceny of $100 and go to jail for six months. Late last autumn Cooper secured desk room in the insurance office of Monies & Jackson and announced his intention of going into the insurance business. He disappeared in a day or so with a new typewriter machine and a desk set, and left behind him an unpaid board bill at the Wyoming hotel. He was captured by Binghamton officers. Cooper told the court that he had intended no wrong and was sorry if he had been guilty of criminality.

J. S. Miller, George S. Feori and Charles White were sentenced to pay costs in their cases.

KELLY ON A TEAR. Breaks Furniture, Beats His Mother and Then Goes to Jail. James Kelly, of Fifth street, got crazy drunk Friday night and proceeded to drink himself by breaking up the furniture and dishes in his home and beating his mother.

Someone yelled "police," and when Patrolman Moir and Roche responded Kelly wanted to use a revolver. The weapon was taken from him and several charges were made against him in Saturday's police court. Alderman Fuller committed him to jail in default of $500 bail to answer the charges in court.

LOOKING INTO AFFAIRS. Government Officer Inspecting the workings of the Revenue Office. The management and accounts of the internal revenue office in this city are undergoing examination by General revenue Agent D. D. Spaulding, of Detroit.

Mr. Spaulding will devote the balance of the week to the Scranton office and other offices in Collector Herring's district. His investigations thus far have not revealed cause for criticism.

HIS LIBERTY AT STAKE. Penitentiary May Again Receive Hollister for an Old Offense. After serving a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary H. H. Hollister, concerned in the robbery of the Spencer pay office in Dunmore, may MARRIED. SWINK—EDGINGTON.—At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Feb. 22, 1895, by Rev. Richard Horne, Orrin R. Swink, of Dunmore, and Miss Elizabeth Edginton, of Scranton.

DIED. ARTHUR.—In Scranton, Feb. 22, 1895, Patrick Arthur, aged 88 years. Funeral Monday morning from his late residence, 716 Hampton street, High mass at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's church. Interment in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

BRYDEN.—In Dunmore, Feb. 22, 1895, James Bryden, aged 29 years. Funeral Monday at 2 o'clock from his late residence on New street. Interment in Dunmore cemetery.

SCRANTON.—At her home in this city, Friday morning, Feb. 22, 1895, Mrs. W. Scanton, relict of the late Joseph A. Scanton, aged 72 years. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the house, and private interment by her relatives and near friends will be made in the family burial chapel in the Dunmore cemetery.

Picture Frames. Made at short notice. High Class in every respect. Inside Decorating in all its branches.

PRATT'S, Lackawanna Avenue.

have to return to serve over a year, a period equivalent to the time he was free while appeals were being made in his case two years ago.

On Saturday District Attorney Jones called up the case, and George S. Horn, counsel for Hollister, protested against the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE.

Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

THE QUAKER'S CURSE. Legend of the "Crab-Fingered Folks" in New York State. From the Buffalo Express. During the days of Quaker persecutions in New England, according to a legend related here, there was one persecutor who was particularly fond of the singling out of his client in such a proceeding while so many other men are at liberty or have been at liberty under the same conditions. Judge Archbald did not give a final decision and the case will have another day in court.

SIX DOLLARS

For this nominal amount you can buy a heavy, extra long, comfortable and durable Ulster.

Come in and See Them

AT MARTIN & DELANY'S.

HAIR CHAINS FROM YOUR OWN HAIR.

Something nice for a gift. Chains made out of your own or some dear friend's hair. Leave orders as early as possible.

E. M. HETZEL, 230 Lacka. Ave.

Third National Bank OF SCRANTON.

CAPITAL $200,000 SURPLUS $260,000 UNDIVIDED PROFITS $50,000

WILLIAM CONNELL, President. GEO. H. CATTIN, Vice-President. WILLIAM H. PECK, Cashier.

Directors: William Connell, James Archbald, Alfred Hand, George H. Cattin, Henry Kelly, Jr., William T. Smith, Luther Keller.

The management of this bank points with pride to its record during the panic of 1893, and previous panics, when special facilities were extended to its business accounts.

THE TRADERS HELLO, CENTRAL!

National Bank of Scranton. ORGANIZED 1890.

CAPITAL 250,000 SURPLUS, $35,000

SAMUEL HINES, President. W. W. WATSON, Vice-President. A. E. WILLIAMS, Cashier.

Directors: Samuel Hines, James M. Everhart, Irving A. Finch, Pierce B. Finley, Joseph J. Jermyn, M. S. Kemerer, Charles P. Matthews, John T. Porter, W. W. Watson.

PROMPT, ENERGETIC, CONSERVATIVE and LIBERAL. This bank invites the patronage of business men and firms generally.

SCHANK The SHOE MAN

Will sell Footwear at greatly reduced prices during the month of February.

To Make Room For Spring Stock Rubber Goods of every description at lowest prices to be had at SCHANK'S 410 SPRUCE STREET.

AYLESWORTH'S MEAT MARKET The Finest in the City.

The latest improved furnishings and apparatus for keeping meat, butter and eggs. 223 Wyoming Ave.

ROOF TYPING AND SOLDERING. ALL done away with by the use of HARTFORD'S PATENT PAINT, which consists of ingredients well-known to all. It can be applied to tin, galvanized tin, sheet iron, roofs, and any kind of metal, and prevent absolutely any rusting, cracking or breaking of the brick. It will outlast any kind of