TUNKHANNOCK.

Miss Lucy Sheple is out again, after a three weeks' sickness. Late Barlow was down to Wilkes-Barre the latter part of the week to be treated for ulcers on the eyelids.

Wild ducks congregated very thickly upon the open places along the river, being but few places where they can find water. One man reports seeing forty in one small opening and another thirteen.

The Ladies' Aid supper and entertainment Friday evening was a complete success in every particular. The house was filled and the program was all that any palate might desire. After supper was out of the way, Miss Zula B. Gule recited "Abou Ben Adam" and "The Raggedy Man." She is a smooth, easy speaker, articulates very distinctly and has a pleasing way. There was a marked absence of that extreme agony of expression so often affected by elocutionists, a point that counted materially in her favor in the minds of her auditors. She was followed by Miss Ada Sturdevant, of Wilkes-Barre, who beautifully sang "Rockabye," with accompaniment by Miss Edith Puckey, of the same place. She was enjoyed, and responded with another selection, Miss Gule again recited, rendering "Mary's Night Ride," in a way that brought her a hearty encore, and Miss Sturdevant also sang two or three more selections, closing with "Ben Holt." Miss Eulalie Platt was home from Wyoming seminary and also responded to a call, reciting "Baby at the Circus" in a way that brought her many complimentary remarks. The affair was very enjoyable throughout, and the society was well pleased with the financial results.

It is intimated that G. B. Owens, of Towanda, will fill the position of roadmaster for the Lehigh Valley, made vacant by the resignation of J. M. Rahm.

Thomas Calahan, traveling salesman for Southernland & McMillan, of Pittston, spends his Sundays at home.

The friends of Miss Lizzie Reigal, who formerly lived with her uncle, Thomas Gurn, will be interested to hear of her marriage to Milton Stuber, of Martins Creek, Pa., near Easton. The event occurred Feb. 5.

Irvin Harding, son of Frank S. Harding, is convalescing from an attack of grip.

The Lehigh Valley section men have been cut down to eight hours per day. Their wages are 12 cents per hour.

A watch recently lost in the snowbanks at Dark Hollow by Miss Winnie Lenox was found a day or two since by Almon Stonier and restored to its rightful owner.

The team of Bertha Clutes, landlady of the LaGrange House, ran away Friday night, and, going upon the railroad track, were struck by a coal train and ground into bologna.

At the bridge letting Saturday there were five or six bidders anxious for the job. There appearing to be some complications beneath the surface, the commissioners rejected all the bids, and will let the contract privately.

Dr. W. A. Sprout will remove his dental office to Athens April 1.

Mrs. B. W. Lewis gave a tea party to several of her lady friends Saturday evening.

A special meeting of Tunkhannock Grange was held Saturday afternoon, at which seven candidates were initiated into the rites and mysteries of the order. The society is prosperous and growing. The members are making preparations for a session of Pomona Grange, which is to be held here March 12. The out-of-town guests will doubtless be fed by the home society at the hotel.

James L. Ruppel, of Russell Hill, has registered as a student at law with James E. Frear.

A Patrons of Industry convention will be held at Springville on Wednesday next. Some of the members from this section will attend.

The following marriage licenses were issued Saturday: Ellis Dunlap, of Auburn and Ella Conrad, of Lynn; David H. Traver, of Beaumont, and Florence E. Potter, of Bowman's Creek. Professor F. H. Jarvis was down from Meshoppen Saturday.

Mrs. N. A. McKown, son, Charles, and daughter, Jae, were visitors at Pittston Saturday.

HONESDALE.

The annual ball of the Ancient Order of Hibernians occurred at the Opera house Friday evening and proved a very enjoyable affair. The ball was opened with a grand march, led by F. M. Monaghan and Miss Marcella Harman, after which followed twenty-three dances. Charles A. McCarty was manager, and was assisted by William F. Kallighan. The executive committee consisted of Charles A. McCarty, chairman; John Haffey, secretary; Thomas F. Bracey, Thomas F. Carroll, Philip Monaghan, M. J. Howley and A. W. Murtha. The reception committee, Patrick Duamgan, chairman; John J. McKenna, James H. Kallighan, Michael O'Neill, John H. Carroll, M. J. Hanlon, Floor committee, Thomas F. Bracey, manager; James Buckley, Thomas F. Delaney, William Shanley, John Kallighan, Thomas McGinnis and Matthew S. Murray. Refreshments were served at White's restaurant. Metzgar's orchestra furnished excellent music. Among the out-of-town guests were: Thomas J. Burns, New York; Joseph O'Connor, Michael Fannon and J. E. Bergen, Carbondale.

Miss Alice Tilton will be united in marriage to Harry Rockwell at the home of the bride's parents on Sixteenth street, at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday, March 5.

Charles Ross, of Scranton, was the guest of his brother, Superintendent L. O. Ross, Saturday.

Are you suffering from rheumatism? Thomas' Electric Oil has cured thousands of the worst cases of this terrible disease. It only costs 25 cents to try it.

OLYPHANT.

Mrs. A. B. McCormick died at her home on Dunmore street, about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, after a painful illness of two weeks' duration. Mrs. McCormick was well known in this place and was beloved and respected by a large circle of friends, who deeply deplore her sad demise. Besides her husband and child, she is survived by her father,

STROUDSBURG.

The ball given by Professor Herman Weber's Dancing class at the Burnetts house on the eve of Washington's Birthday, at 8 o'clock, was a very successful one. The hall room was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and potted plants, ferns and cut flowers made the room appear as a fairy land. When Professor Oldford's orchestra started the music at 9:30 the ball room was crowded and the handsomely attired of the pretty young ladies made a scene not to be forgotten. The grand march was led by Professor Herman Weber and Miss Alice Oldford. Supper was served at 12 o'clock. The following were present: Misses May Hofner, Washington, N. J.; Phoebe Hofner, Lizzie Dunn, Mammie Dunn, Sarah Edinger, Lizzie Pyle, Tillie Albert, M. Alice Walton, Nellie Bossard, Agnes Daily, Philadelphia; Nellie Bush, Nellie Bazzard, Essie Miller, Amy Brown, Jennie Fable, Blanche Engler, Katie Bossard, M. Reimer, Alice Oldford, M. Raisley, Hattie Singer, Miss Young, Lena Beers, Lida Altomus, Blanche Johnson, Dolores Dixon, Mrs. Dr. Leish, Mrs. Vincent Loder, Mrs. A. R. Stone, Mrs. Sydney Walton, Mrs. Frederick Oldford, Mrs. Thomas Dunn, Mrs. Stewart Dreher, Mrs. William Reimer, Mrs. Thomas Cullather, Mrs. Charles Raisley, Mrs. Harvey Bush, Mrs. Albert Abrams, and Messrs. Thomas Kitson, Jr., John Oldford, Frederick Oldford, Scranton; Allen Musselman, Frank Miller, William Miller, Robert Ruth, H. J. Vasseur, A. K. While Mrs. C. W. Stone, of Marshall's Creek, was crossing the iron bridge between the two boroughs, the runner of her sleigh caught in a crack in the bridge, upsetting the sleigh and throwing the occupant out. Mrs. Stone's face was badly cut and it is thought her nose is broken. The horse started off at a rapid pace but was caught after going a short distance by Messrs. Schloch and Huddleson. The lady was attended by Dr. Walters, of East Stroudsburg, who dressed her wounds and she was then conveyed to her home, where she is resting comfortably.

Harry Smith, the liveryman of East Stroudsburg met with a serious loss on Thursday morning by the death of his trotter. The animal was a valuable one and had attained phenomenal speed for her age and gave great promise of being one of the fastest horses in the country.

A sleighing party from East Stroudsburg sleighed it to Portland on Thursday. The party was a merry one and all enjoyed themselves. The following were present and enjoyed the hospitality of William Weidman, where the party stopped: Mrs. Samuel Van Gorp, Mrs. Charles Binkler, Mrs. Fred Hoffecker, Mrs. E. D. Binkler, Mrs. Margaret Burt, Lulu Kennedy, Mabel Dunn, Nellie Lattar, S. Risher, Josie Dunn, Lizzie Voss, Maggie Nye, Lizzie Morgan, Mary Hoffman, Cora Jacoby and Mary Hart.

American Cheese Exports. American cheeses are to be sold abroad by the thousand pounds twenty years ago and returned by the same steamship line properly labeled as English. It is perfectly well known that most of the popular foreign cheeses are more or less successively counterfeited in this country and it would be interesting to know what proportion of the large exportations of American cheeses return as foreign.

WEEKLY. William Teachman, of Honesdale, is the guest of Charles Hunter.

Miss Lizzie Clayton has left for New York city, where she will reside permanently.

Business William P. Griffiths of Taylor, was the guest of Martin Bold last Tuesday.

The Worst Case the Doctors Ever Saw

Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Dear Sirs—I wish to testify to the great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For some time I had been troubled with scrofula, which early last winter assumed a very bad form."

Sores Appeared on My Face and hands and gradually increased in number until they reached to my shoulder. The doctors said it was the worst case of scrofula they ever saw and also went so far as to say it was incurable. I tried ointments and other remedies but to no avail. A friend recommended Hood's

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures Sarsaparilla, and although I was completely discouraged, as a last chance I resolved to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I noticed the sores had commenced to heal. After the sixth bottle

They Were All Healed. I continued to take it, however, until I had used 12 bottles, and now I am perfectly well."
