$5 REWARD!
So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.
Common council will meet this evening.
The attraction billed for the Academy of Music on Tuesday, March 1, is Sousa's Marine band.
Remonstrances against petitions for liquor licenses cannot be filed later than next Monday.
Regular meeting of the board of managers of the Home for the Friendless will occur Friday morning at 9:30.
A marriage license was granted yesterday by Clerk of the Courts Thomas to Thomas E. Savage and Marie Russell, of this city.
There will be a regular meeting of the board of health in their room in the municipal building at 3 o'clock Friday, March 1, 1895.
The Keystone Social club, of Providence, will entertain their friends from 8 to 11 o'clock on Friday evening at the Providence armory.
The Clerks' association will hold a meeting this evening at their hall on Spruce street at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.
Rev. W. H. Stubblebine will deliver his illustrated lecture on "Greenland's Ice Mountains" in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church this evening.
On Sunday evening, March 3, the one hundred and seventeenth anniversary of the birth of Robert Emmet will be celebrated by the John Mitchell club with an entertainment in Music hall.
An arbitration suit was heard yesterday before Attorneys W. R. Lewis, George D. Taylor and Fred W. Pleitz. It is a suit to recover $4 on a M. A. Perotto to the plaintiff and Anna Haslam the defendant.
Mary Bennett and Teopel Bennett, through Attorney W. H. Stanton, began actions yesterday against John Klein to compel him to show by what right he has levied on their effects as the property of Joseph Bennett.
"Good Citizenship" will be the subject of the meeting of the Prohibitionists at Conservatory hall this evening. Among the speakers will be E. S. Williams, C. H. Chandler, Harry Lathrop, D. A. Stone and others. All people are welcome at these meetings and to take part in the discussions.
The following wills were admitted to probate yesterday by Register of Willis Hopkins: William Merritt, late of Jersey, letters testamentary to his son, William H. Merritt; Patrick Arthur, late of the city of Scranton, letters testamentary to James C. Arthur; Mrs. Margaret Gardner, late of Ransom, letters testamentary to Floyd P. Richards.
The new chorus class formed at the Scranton School of Music will be continued tomorrow evening. The admission will be only 10 cents in order to meet the running expenses. Mr. Morgan, the teacher, is giving his services free of charge, and hundreds of our young people should take advantage of this opportunity of knowing how to read music and sing correctly.
Residents in various parts of the city were busily engaged yesterday in cleaning the gutters in front of their premises to prevent the flooding of cellars. On Penn avenue, between Motherly and Linden streets, the water is three feet deep in several cellars, the result of carelessness on the part of a few residents who have neglected to clear the waterway in front of their stores.
The county jail is increasing in popularity. Thirteen prisoners being received yesterday. Aleck Yankowski, a witness in the South Side murder case, was yesterday liberated from the county jail, having entered bail before Judge Edwards in the sum of $500. Mrs. Yankowski, his wife, who was committed as an accessory after the fact, was also discharged, having entered bail in the sum of $1,000.
