

HOLY LAND ART PORTFOLIOS.

Earthly Footsteps
OF THE Man of GalileeMost carefully and plausibly traced with note-book and camera, fromBethlehem to Calvary And the Mount of Olives,Being a geographical and historical account in narrative and pictures of the places where Christ and the Apostles lived, toiled and triumphed, showing where Jesus was born, reared, baptized, tempted, transfigured and crucified, reviewing in chronological order the scenes of his prayers, tears, sermons, miracles and religious sufferings, which brought to humanity the dawn of a new day.A Superb Religio-Educational, FINE ART PUBLICATION.Which is the joint production of Rev. John H. Vincent, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the M.
E. Church; Rev. James W. Lee, D.D., and E. M. Bain, the Celebrated Landscape and Scene Photographer. This wholly unique and thoroughly "Up-to-Date" publication contains the results of months of travel and observation, involving three separate tours of the Holy Land.Two by Bishop Vincent, and one lately concluded by DR. LEE, upon which he was accompanied at every stage of the journey by MR. BAIN, with the finest photographic equipment procurable in America, these scenions being under special commission to present pictorially and descriptively the LAND OF THE SAVIOR. His very footsteps have therefore been followed with note-book and camera, and the journeyings of His Apostles have also been traced, as shown on the EIGHT COLORED MAP in all portfolios. This work is the final expression of a beautiful enterprise, and is an incomparable historical and religious Faint Art Offering. An opportunity is thus given to make a delightful tour through Palestine without leaving home. This magnificent collection of over three hundred and eighty-four photographs, the finest that ever came from the East, all according to the year and published at an expense of fifty thousand dollars—should be in every home.The firm whose name is appended will make it possible for every family to obtain these portfolios on easy terms.HOW TO SECURE THESE SPLENDID PORTFOLIOS.For every purchaser and 10 cents additional you will be given one of these beautiful

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TUNKHANNOCK.

Rev. W. M. Miller has gone to Carbondale to attend the funeral of a family friend, Mrs. Andrews.The following concerning one of our town boys is clipped from the Brain-trim Messenger: "We are sorry to learn that J. W. DeWitt has accepted the offer of the Van Etten band and will locate in that place. Mr. DeWitt is an excellent band instructor and will be sadly missed by our band. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with him."The friends of Rev. and Mrs. G. O.

Reers will be pained to learn of the death of their daughter, Mary, who died at her home, at Candor, N. Y., Feb. 19.C. L. Kresky is advertising his house and lot, on Court House square, for sale. It is desirable property.Miss E. M. Phillips is recovering from a severe bilious attack.D. C. DeWitt, of Towanda, will speak on finance at the court house on Wednesday evening, March 13. As he is well informed on the subject and his talk will be entirely non-partisan, he will doubtless draw a good house.
Pomona Grange will be in session on that day.Monroe township people are busy inventing names for the new township they have voted to create.The commissioners will hold a court of appeals for contested lands Friday and Saturday, March 23 and 24, at the court house.The farmers' institute closed with yesterday afternoon's session. The house was packed all day, and the people listened with a good deal of interest to the papers and discussions. A.
C. Sisson talked on fruit and potato culture; Professor H. J. Waters, of the state board of agriculture, on building up a dairy herd; W. L. Avery on farm gardening for profit, etc. Tuberculosis and its remedies were discussed, and C. S. Sizer thinks that there is a good deal of absurdity in being frightened over the tuberculosis scare and slaughtering herds of cattle upon the slightest symptoms, as many cattle, if left alone, would live for years, dangering no one who uses the milk.The recitations by Miss Bertha DeWitt and the singing led by J. R. Hungerford, were also enlightening features of the meeting.Mrs. Grace Welser Davis, the evangelist, writes that she will be here March 8, instead of March 19, as previously arranged.

bondale, N. Y., from an extended visit in this city as guests at the home of J. B.
Van Gorder, on Terrace street.Announcement is made of the marriage of Thomas H. Rowley, a former Carbonada boy, to Miss Minnie Brandt, of Binghamton, N. Y. The event will occur in the Parlor City on Tuesday, March 12.Miss Louise Durkin has resigned her position in the glove store.Miss Belle Bowers gave a progressive euchre party at her home on Canaan street on Tuesday evening. Those who were present are Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbard, Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Jenkins, Misses Anna Barry, Belle Vannan and Messrs. Charles Grehand, G. P. Rogers and H. Torrence, Jr.Rev. Mrs. E. J. Balesley entertained her Sunday school class at the Trinity rectory on Tuesday evening.Much interest is being manifested at the special meetings which are now being held in the Beran Baptist church, Rev. T. J. Collins, of Scranton, preached an able sermon on Tuesday evening to a large audience. His subject was, "For the Battle is the Lord's." Rev. Collins preached again last evening.Miss Mamie Hennigan, of Honesdale, street, West Avoca.

TAYLOR.

One of the most pleasant social events ever held in this place occurred last Tuesday evening at the Taylor hall. The affair was given in honor of a number of Avoca people, and a refreshment for the one given at Avoca about two weeks ago. Pleasant intercourse and fun-making and dancing reigned supreme until the early morning hours. Every conceivable idea was made by the Taylor people to make their guests enjoy the evening, and they succeeded admirably. About 12:30 o'clock all present retired to A. Boyd's bakery store, where refreshments were served. The following were present: The Misses
