$5 REWARD!

So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

Contributions for the Finishing and Furnishing fund of the Young Men's Christian association will, owing to lack of space, be acknowledged weekly.

The board of health will meet this afternoon.

City officials and department employees were paid yesterday.

The "Bohemian Girl" chorus will meet for rehearsal over Powell's at 8 o'clock to-night.

The new chorus music sight-reading class will be organized at the Conservatory hall this evening.

By a fall of rock in the Jermyn shaft at Priebe's Wednesday Frank Mehouk was badly injured.

A marriage license was yesterday granted to Alexander M. Dickson, of Peckville, and Allen J. Roberts, of Winton.

An additional mail route has been created in the central city by Postmaster Vandenberg. Substitute George Gerber has been appointed to it.

Rev. Dr. Hawhurst will deliver his illustrated lecture on the World's fair at the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church Monday evening.

In the estate of Rachel Nicholas, late of Olyphant, the last will of the deceased was admitted to probate yesterday and letters testamentary granted to Dr. William E. Lloyd.

Aggie, the 4-year-old child of John Mulroy, of Throop, slipped and fell yesterday breaking both bones of her forearm. She was met with a similar accident in October last. She was attended by Dr. Thompson, of the North End.

John Genter, a tramp, went to the court house on Wednesday night and demanded lodgings. He annoyed the watchman and was arrested by Officer Sloat. As he was anxious to be entertained by the county, Alderman Fitzsimmons sent him to the county jail for thirty days.

The Elm Park Zenith Missionary society will hold their regular monthly meeting Friday evening, March 1, at 7:30 o'clock in Young Men's Christian association parlors. Rev. F. A. Dony will speak. The following program will be rendered: Devotional, Luther Russell; reading, William Brandman; "How to Make Brooms," paper by Theodore Myers; reading of monthly paper, G. A. Wallace; address, Rev. F. A. Dony.

FOR RELIEF OF FIREMEN.

Bill That Recently Passed the House of Representatives at Harrisburg.

An interesting meeting of the Volunteer Firemen's association was held at the May-Aug House company rooms last evening. J. Goodman presiding, and A. E. Vorhis, secretary. Considerable business relative to the welfare of the association was transacted, and a committee appointed to attend a meeting of representatives of every company in the city and Dunmore to urge all members to join the association. The following were appointed on the committee: George Pasold, H. P. Forber, A. E. Vorhis, H. Kingsley, Frank Whitman, James Stewart, H. A. Altman, T. F. Noon and August Schimpf.

The meeting discussed a bill which passed third reading in the house of representatives on Feb. 25, having for its object to amend the twenty-fourth section of the act of 1889 relating to the premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to regularly incorporated firemen's relief associations. The section, when amended, will read as follows:

"That on and after Jan. 1, 1896, and annually thereafter there shall be paid by the state treasurer to regularly incorporated firemen's relief associations in the several cities and boroughs, one-half of the two per centum tax paid by foreign fire insurance companies, the amount to be paid to each regularly incorporated firemen's relief association to be based upon the return of said two per cent tax from foreign fire insurance companies received from the city or borough where such firemen's relief association exists as shown by the insurance commissioner's report."

A proviso is inserted that such firemen's relief associations shall have been specified by the legislature for the relief of firemen disabled or worn out by reason of a long service in the performance of their duties, and for the relief of the families of firemen killed in the service.

By section four of the bill, not more than one fireman's relief association for firemen now in active service, shall be incorporated in any city or borough in the state. Regulations are also made for the arrangement of the associations and elections of officers.

Section five of the bill gives any explanation of the objects of the bill which may be desired by local firemen.

KREYNIK COURTED DEATH.

Thought the Locomotive Would Leave the Track for Him, but It Didn't.

While running at a rate of forty miles an hour the Delaware and Hudson passenger train due here at noon from Wilkes-Barre, yesterday, killed a Poland near the National breaker, below Yorkville, where the body was tossed almost directly upward, and higher than the smokestack of the engine and fell in the ditch alongside the rails.

It was ascertained that the man's name was Frank Krenik, of Gouldsboro, a section hand on the Delaware and Hudson, and that he was a native of Poland. The top of the forehead was cut completely away and a portion of the brain torn out.

Engineer Alexander Copeland and Fireman Corrigan on the return trip of the train from Carbondale at 2:30 o'clock explained the circumstances of the accident to Coroner Kelley and a jury. They said that the Poland was walking south and toward the train and paid no attention, further than raising his arm before his eyes, to the signals of bell and whistle. Other evidence heard by the jury near the scene of the accident tended to show that the Poland was intoxicated.

The verdict of the jury revealed in a general way how the accident occurred and contained this clause: "The evidence going to show that the engineer saw and recognized the Poland as having been understood by the deceased and afterward disregarded. We suggest the reducing of speed within the city limits."

The remains were, during the afternoon, taken in charge by Undertaker McDonough.

SERMON ON MARRIAGE.

Rev. Father Bucholz Discourses on One of the Most Important Sacraments.

Disagreeable weather last night did not deter the men of the cathedral parish from attending the sermon of the mission, and the very large audience present, many of whom were non-Catholics, was rewarded with a brilliant and practical dissertation from Father Bucholz on the subject of the marriage sacrament.

This week only married men are attending the mission, and it was to the fathers of families that the speaker addressed his words. God sanctified matrimony and made it a sacrament of his church and gives grace to all who enter this state that they may bring up their families to serve and adore God. When a man takes unto himself a wife to become the mother of his children, he must love and cherish her and make her home happy. He must provide for her and care for her all ways. Some men marry for a position in this world and if they are not blessed with a happy home life, it does not excite much wonder.

The duty of a married couple is to live happily together and raise their children in a Christian manner; educate them to become useful citizens. The best way for a father to bring up a good family is to set his children a good example. Coming into the house at late hours will be noticed by the boys, and when they grow up they will do likewise. God will exact on the last day from every parent an account of how he raised his family. The Almighty will hold every man responsible. When a man fails to care for his spiritual welfare.

Father Bucholz implored his hearers to attend regularly to church, frequent the sacraments and show a good Christian example to the children.

THE BELLEVUE STABBING.

Two Young Men Arrested as Accessories to the Crime.

Michael Hiland and Martin Lavelle were yesterday arraigned before Alderman Wright upon the charge of being accessories to the stabbing of Lewis Moon at Bellevue on Monday night.

Officers Dyer and Roche brought the prisoners to the alderman's office and introduced them to the prosecutor, Moon, who was confined to his bed and was unable to appear. They had ample evidence of identification which they would present at an adjourned hearing. The alderman remanded the prisoners until the prosecutor would be able to appear.

Patrick O'Brien, who was arrested Wednesday for stabbing Moon, appeared before Judge Edwards yesterday and furnished bail for his appearance at court.

A RAINBOW TEA.

It Was Given at the Penn Avenue Baptist Church Last Night.

A pleasant event was arranged by the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Penn Avenue Baptist church last evening, when over 200 guests were entertained at "rainbow tea" or "feast of six tables."

Six tables were arranged in the parlors, the menu at each differing as follows: First table, brown bread, baked beans, beef loaf and coffee; second, potato salad, wafers and cottage cheese; third, lettuce, sandwiches, pickles and olives; fourth, tarts, neudum cheese and jelly; fifth, cake and lemonade; sixth, ice cream and cake.

Orchestra music was rendered while the guests were being entertained.

THAT SOUTH SIDE SEWER

Passed First and Second Reading in Common Council.

RAP AGAINST ALIEN LABOR

Foreigners Must Make Declarations Before Being Allowed to Work on City Contracts—Trying to Prodig Railways Committee Along.

Common council met last evening and acted upon several measures of importance. The proceedings were witnessed by the following new members: Mr. Gilroy, of the Seventh; Mr. Loftus, of the First; Mr. Scamans, of the Thirteenth; and Mr. Oliver, of the Fifteenth.

Lorenz P. Zoller, the newly-elected Democratic member from the Sixteenth ward, vice Charles Schadt, Democrat, resigned, took the oath of office after the certificate of his election had been read. He will occupy the desk and chair of his predecessor.

The streets and bridges committee reported adversely on an ordinance for narrowing Mulberry street, between Arthur and Clay avenues, and reported favorably on a resolution providing for the widening of Linden street between Monroe and Clay avenues.

The committee decided not to favor the narrowing of Mulberry street because that thoroughfare will be a prominent approach to Navy Yard park and the Elmhurst boulevard.

Is It a Kid Glove Measure?

The sewers and drains committee reported favorably on the ordinance creating sewer district No. 17, involving a district on the South Side. The ordinance involves an estimated expenditure of $10,000, and was opposed by Mr. Hickey, of the Nineteenth ward, a large portion of which is affected.

Mr. Hickey argued that many poor property owners would find it difficult to meet the assessment and said that the ordinance would be a "kid glove" measure.

Mr. Robathan's motion to have the Scranton and North End railway ordinance taken from committee was lost.

Mayor Connell's veto of the resolution directing the city clerk to advertise for bids to light the city hall and engine houses was sustained by an unanimous vote. The measure conflicted with a similar resolution now on its passage and mentioned below.

An unsuccessful effort was made by Mr. Robathan to have the public market ordinance referred to committee with instructions to report forthwith, and the ordinance took the usual committee course.

Aimed Against Foreigners.

The common council's alien labor ordinance aimed against the employment of foreigners by contractors, but amended in select council not to apply to persons who have taken out their first naturalization papers, was sustained in its amended form.

The select council ordinance placing a tax on street cars was referred to committee.

Mr. Howe's resolution exonerating the German Cemetery association from a sewer assessment of $102.62 against its property on Washington avenue, near the jail, was adopted, although an effort was made to have the matter referred to committee.

Only after a lengthy and ardent discussion was action taken favorably on a resolution particularly concerning the Scranton Illuminating Heat and Power company. The company was in 1885 granted its street franchise and obligated itself to supply the city with twenty-two lights. Since that time the city hall was built and new fire quarters were engaged and the number of electric lights increased to the present number of 600.

The company complains of the burden in view of the fact that two competing companies have been granted franchises without exactions, and that the pole tax should of itself release the Scranton Illuminating Heat and Power company from its agreement. These facts were contained in a letter from the company accompanied by a resolution, which has passed select council, that the city clerk be directed to advertise for bids for lighting the city buildings. The resolution was adopted.

If the street railways committee is not ready to report on the Scranton and North End railway ordinance by next Thursday night, to which time an adjournment was made, another effort will be made to bring it before the body.

ATTENTION.

Goods Offered Very Low.

Attention is called to the list of The Scranton Cash Store on this page of The Tribune. The figures quoted there are the lowest that are being offered in these lines by any house in this valley and are a sample of the rates at which the Scranton Cash Store are selling groceries and fresh meats. This establishment is bound to be the lowest on strictly first class goods.

AT DAVIS' THEATER.

Fay Foster Burlesque Company Gave Two Good Performances.

Pretty women and clever comedians who constitute the Fay Foster Burlesque company entertained two large audiences at Davis' theater yesterday with a melange of amusing absurdities.

The programme opened with a scene on a yacht where the members of the Duffie Opera company gave a rollicking. The three Murvels, young women attired in daring and striking costumes of black and gold, with flesh colored tights, gave a dance that was startling in its suggestiveness.

Excellent specialties were introduced by J. J. Fenton, Nelonla, Barton and Camaron, Maimo, transformation dancer, and Gerald and Garland. The Brothers Lameyne, who were on the programme as horizontal bar experts, did not appear, one of them having a wrenched ankle which he sustained at Binghamton Monday.

The performance closed with a burlesque called "The Tondano Chaplains." The company will be at Davis' today and tomorrow afternoons and evenings.

DEATH OF OWEN O'MALLEY.

One of the Best Known Citizens in Southern Part of City.

Owen O'Malley died at his home, 218 River street, yesterday, after an illness of several months' duration. He was 63 years of age and one of the best known and most respected citizens in the southern part of the city.

He is survived by a wife and four children, Owen, Michael, Edward and Miss Lizzie O'Malley. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Saturday morning. A requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Peter's church at 10 o'clock. The interment will be in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

WANTED TO RUN THE HOTEL.

Steve O'Donnell Fined $15 for Disorderly Conduct at the Westminster Hotel.

Steve O'Donnell, a professional pugilist traveling with James J. Corbett's company, was arrested at the Westminster hotel at 3 o'clock yesterday morning for disorderly conduct. He was fined $15 by Alderman Fitzsimmons in police court a few hours later, the money being promptly paid.

At the conclusion of the performance on Wednesday night O'Donnell and his companions went around the city and indulged pretty freely in beverages stronger than water and returned at 3 o'clock in the morning to the Westminster hotel, where he was assisted by two police officers to his room, and soon after their departure Pugilist O'Donnell rushed into the barroom and vowed vengeance on the person who had caused him of $150 and a diamond stud. He commenced operations on two or three men, who were in the vicinity, and "cutting" and "cutting" them took part in a pugilistic encounter. After sending them to sleep he started on harder material and picked some of the furniture into pieces.

Officers Sloat and Walsh arrived on the scene at this juncture and displayed their staffs, urging at the same time that two police officers' mistake in taking part in a pugilistic encounter. After sending them to sleep he started on harder material and picked some of the furniture into pieces.

At the hearing, yesterday morning, Mayor Connell, but the professional pugilist from New York, who had never met defeat, but Alderman Fitzsimmons intimated that he would be "downed" that morning in the sum of $15. O'Donnell also paid $17, being the amount of damages committed by him at the hotel. The "diamond stud" was subsequently found in his pocket.

IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

Polander Who Shot a Fellow Countryman at Richmondale in Custody.

Majk Krotky, who shot and seriously wounded a fellow countryman, Peter Koschniak, at Richmondale, near Carbondale, was surrendered by his bondsman and brought to the county jail yesterday by Constable Moran, of Carbondale. It is announced by the police officials in Carbondale that Koschniak cannot recover.

Krotsky alleges that the other Polander fired at him (Krotsky) before Krotsky fired the shot which seems likely to prove fatal. The shooting seems to have followed the prisoners' mistake in assuming that the other was stealing his goods.

Twilight Recital.

Organist George B. Carter Will Be Ably Assisted on Tuesday Afternoon.

On Tuesday, March 5, Mr. Carter will give one of his pleasing twilight recitals at Elm Park church and will be assisted by Miss Margaret A. Nevin, of Philadelphia, soprano, and Mrs. Boston Williams, contralto. Miss Nevin is a niece of Ethel Bert Nevin, the famous composer.

Mr. Carter will be pleased to see present those wishing to be amused, instructed or rested, but not those expecting to retire before the recital closes or talkers. The last recital was one of the best of the course, and the coming one will interest all.

Bicycle Repairing.

DESPERATE FRANK SCAVO

Brought Back to this County to Stand Trial.

BADLY WOUNDED AN OFFICER

Was Arrested in August 1893, After the Shooting, but Fled to the Vicinity of Hazleton to Avoid Trial for His Crime.

Frank Scavo, a murderous Italian wanted in this county for a crime he committed two years ago at Old Forge, was arrested at Hazleton Monday, as set forth in yesterday's Tribune, but before he was conveyed he almost slashed a constable to death with a knife. Scavo was brought to Scranton yesterday morning and in due form committed to the county jail.

On Aug. 15, 1893, he was one of a crowd of drunken Italians engaged in a street fight at Lackawanna, in Old Forge township, in the southern part of this county. It was on Sunday afternoon and a number of young children were on their way home from Sunday school. Scavo had a revolver and he fired into the group of young girls, the bullet taking effect in the ankle of Miss Harriet Jane Williams. He was arrested on the charge of felonious wounding and arraigned before Justice of the Peace John L. Knight, of Old Forge. Joseph Dolph, ex-county auditor, qualified as his bondsman in the sum of $1,000.

Scavo Not on Hand.

When the case was called for trial in court Scavo was not on hand and a capias was issued for him. His bail was forfeited when he failed to appear. Assistant District Attorney John M. Harris, who was attorney for Miss Williams, kept the matter in mind and heard not long ago that Scavo was living at a mining town near Hazleton, County Detective Thomas Leshon went out a searching for Scavo, and sent it with a description of the man to Constable Reuben Westcott, of Hazleton.

Tuesday afternoon Constable Westcott and Constable Ziegler went to the Honey Brook mine, where Scavo was working and arrested him. He was taken to his boarding house, and when he got to his room he attacked them with a sharp stiletto. They caught hold of and disarmed him, removing from his pockets a loaded revolver and the knife.

No sooner had they let go their grip than he whipped out another knife and savagely leaped toward Constable Ziegler, slashing him across the abdomen. The gash was not serious, but Scavo had to be strapped so hard that it was feared that he had been killed.

Brought to This City.

They brought him to a physician and his wounds were attended to. Yesterday morning they started with him for this city and brought him to the office of District Attorney Jones. The papers of commitment were made out by Assistant District Attorney Harris and Warden Price took the prisoner to the county jail.

He denied that he was the man and claimed to be a brother of Frank Scavo, although a miners' certificate made out in the name of Frank Scavo was found in his pocket.

The bullet which struck Miss Williams did severe injury to her health, as it caused intense pain for a long time and crippled the ankle joint. Scavo has, it is said, the reputation of having committed many crimes in Italy, and his record in that country is not unimaging. The Hazleton officers will prosecute him after the case is over with in this court.

NEW TRIAL FOR ROSTOSKY.

Application for a Rule Before Judge Albright on March 15.

Judge Archibald informed Deputy Prothonotary Myron Kasson yesterday that Judge Albright, of Allentown, will come to this court on Friday, March 15, and hear arguments on rules and applications for rules for new trials in cases he has tried here. The most important one will be the application for a rule for a new trial in the case of John Sylvester Rostovsky, convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of Joseph Clute at the Ridge last September. At that time Stanton and O'Brien are endeavoring to procure a new trial for their client.

Judge Savidge, of Sunbury, will be here on Monday, March 18, until 2 p. m. Attorneys interested are expected to take notice and have their cases prepared.

Summer Boarders.
