THE REV. A. P. DOYLE'S LECTURE

St. Patrick's Church Crowded to the Doors by an Immeuse Andience-Banquet of Robert Morris Lodge of Ivorites This Evening.

Rev. A. .P Doyle's lecture on total abstinence in St. Patrick's church, on Jackson street, last evening, was largely attended. The audience was comosed of the Hyde Park Father Mathew society, St. Leo's Battalion, St. Paul's Pioneer corps, St. Cecelia's Ladies' Total Abstinence and Benefit society, ministers of various churches besides a host of others. The immense throng was shown to seats by Ushers Timothy McCoy, Thomas Flemming, Michael Jennings, Thomas P. McHale, John H. McNulty, M. S. Lavelle, Mar-tin: Sheridan, Thomas Tierney, and Thomas Culkin. A prayer was offered by Rev. Father Dunne, which was followed by Father Doyle's address.

He made an earnest plea for signers to the temperance pledge, and dwelt strongly upon the evils of intoxicating liquors. The address had a marked effect upon his hearers, as was seen by the earnest attention which was given him. In closing he said: "We must do something and it must be to take the pledge of total abstinence. When the Lord was upon earth He found the Jews hardened to their vices and gave them this pledge. He told them to give up their sins and follow Him. If we are to overcome this great evil we must go to the other extreme, and that is taste not, touch not. If the people of this generation could only be persuaded for a few years, we would not have any more to fear from the demon drink. If I could only touch your hearts and make you realize what pleasure it is to be total abstainers? In the bringing up of your children, see that they do not get into bad company and, worst of all, become drinkers. What a nice thing it is to be able to say in your to scandalizers where the Bible says 'It were better that a milistone were tion is one of the most pretentious and humphrey's pharmacy, on Pittston hung to your neck and you cast into the best he has had. The first part was avenue, is being beautified by a thorsea.' And this I say to a father who

There is peace; there is happiness in your homes, and through this grand pledge. Make it your business to increase your society membership. There will be a banner offered to the society will be presented at the next New York convention. Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to present this to a Hyde Park society."

These remarks, accompanied by an earnest blessing, closed the lecture.

Will Banquet This Evening. Robert Morris lodge, No. 58, Order of American True Ivorites, will ban-quet this evening in Mears' hall, with their ladies. Attorney David J. Davies will be toastmaster. After falling from the sixth floor down through the network of Iron beams and planks on the new Hotel Jermyn, a distance of about 70 feet, Wednessday, there is a probability that "Sallor" Jordan, who was taken apparently in a dying condition to the Lackawanna hospital, will recover. Bleeding from the ears and mouth and with his right arm and left leg broken, Jordan was picked up for dead.

The injured man has only been con scious a brief period since the accident. He spoke rationally to the doctors yesterday morning. At first he was supposed to have received a fractured skull and severe internal injuries. Late last night the hospital officials were of the opinion that he might recover.

BOUTH SCHANTON, Pa., Nov. 10, 1894.

Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magie-Worm Sugar and Tea. and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 55 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bettle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

Yours'very respectfully.
