TRACTION COMPANY AWAKENED

Gang of Workmen Exploring the Snow-banks—Death of John Price—Installation of Officers of Star of the East Commandary.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, March 3.—The resolution of Councilman Donnelly, which passed at the special meeting of the council on Wednesday evening last relating to the enforcement of the Traction Company in running their cars to the Lehigh and Bloomsburg junction has had the proper effect. The people of Pittston were pleased last evening to note that the cars were again running to William street for the first time in over three weeks. The notice was served on the company Friday afternoon, and Saturday morning Superintendent of Construction John Bound, with a corps of workmen, appeared upon the scene of the blockade and commenced to remove the ice and clear the track.

Death of John Price. The death of John Price occurred Saturday morning at 1 o'clock at the family residence on Mill street after an illness of about three weeks. The deceased was 17 years of age and is survived by his mother, Mrs. P. Price; a sister, Miss Margaret Price, school teacher at the Junction school, and a brother, School Controller James Price. The funeral will take place from the family residence tomorrow (Monday) with mass of requiem at St. John's Catholic church, interment at Market Street cemetery.

Installation of Officers. The following officers of Star of the East commandary, No. 78, Knights of Malta, were installed Friday evening by District Deputy H. H. Harris, of Wilkes-Barre; Sir Knight commander, James Wilson; generalissimo, C. F. Nauman; captain general, Henry Gill; prelate, G. W. Stanback; recorder, George Beidfeld; treasurer, John Booth; sword bearer, Milton Luce; Junior, T. B. Evans; senior warden, Ed Miller; warden, William Williams; first guard, Richard Monk; second guard, Lyman Vanderburg; s. b., J. F. Monk; J. b., T. F. Major; trustees, A. G. Campbell, J. F. Monk, T. B. Evans; representatives, J. F. Monk and E. E. Sax.

His Forty-Seventh Birthday. Our enterprising and congenial dry goods merchant, A. B. Brown, today (Sunday) commemorates the forty-seventh anniversary of his birth. Mr. Brown has been engaged in the dry goods business in this place for a number of years, and is much respected as a man of upright business ability and generous character, always caring for those in need to whom his attention is called. He is one of our numerous business men who have interested themselves in re-organizing the board of trade, and was among the first to place his name on the new membership roll. His numerous friends wish him many more years of merited success.

The hearing of the Cork Lane election board was postponed until Saturday, March 9.

Miscellaneous Notes. The death of Mrs. Mary Buckley, relict of the late Timothy Buckley, occurred Saturday morning at 10:45 o'clock. The deceased was an aged resident of Cork Lane, where she has lived for a number of years. The funeral will take place from the family residence Monday at 2 p. m. The sale of seats for Al G. Field's minstrel and spectacular pantomime of "Aladdin" which will be presented at Music Hall, Friday, March 8, will begin Wednesday morning at Rogler's & Manning's book store. The indication point to a big business and an abundance of wholesome fun. Among the members of the company are a host of famous artists. Several sensational features are announced, and altogether the programme seems one that will be enjoyed by all lovers of minstrelsy in this city.

P. A. Burke, of Scranton, has accepted a situation in the dress goods department of J. J. Mangano's dry goods store. Mr. Burke entered upon the duties of his new position Saturday. He is a young man of congenial manners and will no doubt make many new friends in this vicinity.

Ed. Hitchner has been confined to his home for several days with illness. The many friends of E. A. Rumsey will be surprised to learn of his resignation from his position as superintendent of the Citizens' Electric Illuminating company. He expects to enter into partnership with his brother from Wilmington, Del., in the electrical supply business at Philadelphia. Mr. Rumsey, during his sojourn in this city, has made a great many friends who wish him success in his new enterprise.

Miss Ida Stone, of the West Side, left Saturday for Philadelphia, where she will visit her brother. Before she returns she will visit friends at Washington.

Miss Julia Allen, of Scranton, is the guest of the family of Patrick Battle, on South Main street.

Miss Minnie Anthony, of the West Side, is spending a few days with Miss Minnie Sanders, at Dunmore.

The "Haldwins" will appear at Music Hall three nights, March 13, 14 and 20.

Mrs. John Griffith is the guest of her brother, Daniel H. Jones, Scranton, for a few days.

All regular subscriptions to the Scranton Tribune will be received at our local office, No. 8 South Main street.

All complaints of non-delivery of the Tribune should be reported at our local office, No. 8 South Main street.

The condition of John Powell, of Philadelphia avenue, who was taken ill of the grip nearly two weeks ago, is still very critical.

NOTHING IN IT.

Objector Holman Will Forsake Politics in Future and Till the Soil.

Washington, March 3.—"I would not advise any young man," said the veteran Mr. Holman, of Indiana, addressing a group of congressmen on the floor of the house this morning, "to enter public life. There is nothing in it. I reach this conclusion after an experience covering a period of nearly thirty-five years. From a financial standpoint, at least, it does not pay one. I have lived frugally since I first came to the Thirty-sixth congress, but I have never been able to save a penny out of my salary."

"You leave congress, then, as poor as when you entered it?" interjected one of the group. "Poorer," replied Mr. Holman, with a smile. "My farm of 106 acres, which is a few miles from Lawrenceburg, on the Ohio hills, is not worth as much today as it was when I came here, while I have nothing to show for my long service."

"What are your plans for the future?" inquired another of the judge's auditors. "I shall go back to my farm and try to make a living out of it. I hope I can do that."

As a rule all the members of the house will follow Mr. Holman's example of returning to their homes with little, if any, delay, after the adjournment tomorrow.

HUSBAND UNKIND TO HER.

Mrs. Detheridge Shot Herself on Account of Her Domestic Troubles. Danville, Va., March 3.—Information has just been received of a suicide in Patrick county, which occurred Wednesday night. Mrs. W. H. Detheridge, the wife of an ex-saloon keeper, deliberately shot herself with a pistol, her reason being domestic infelicities. She carefully arranged her household affairs, then everything in order, and placed her baby at a safe distance, so that she might not fall upon it, she deliberately pointed a pistol toward herself and fired. The ball took effect in the abdomen, inflicting a wound from which she died in an hour.

The dying woman crawled to her baby, kissed it, and then told her 7-year-old son to go for Mrs. Gilbert, a neighbor. To Mrs. Gilbert she related the story of her domestic troubles, saying: "My husband never speaks a kind word to me." Those were her last words. The husband reached the house a quarter of an hour after the woman died.

LOCK HAVEN ICE GORGE.

An Ice Jam Delays Passenger Trains at That Point. By the United Press. Lock Haven, Pa., March 3.—Another run of ice from the head of the river last night increased the length of the great ice gorge above this city. The flood of back water at the rear of the jam is reported to be falling this morning, but the ice seems to be no possibility of the gorge breaking on the present flood.

All-day passenger trains which arrived here on the Philadelphia and Erie railroads since yesterday morning were sent over the Beech Creek road last afternoon. The temperature last night was several degrees below the freezing point and the water is falling fast at the head of the river.

DEATH OF E. R. ADAMS.

Superintendent of Philadelphia and Reading Telegraph Company Dies. By the United Press. Reading, Pa., March 3.—E. R. Adams, superintendent of the Philadelphia and Reading Telegraph Company, died suddenly and unexpectedly at his residence in this city today. Mr. Adams was taken ill about four months ago with nervous prostration. Four weeks ago he fell and broke a leg. This complicated matters and he never fully recovered from the effects of the shock. Deceased was known among electricians and was a popular official. He was years of age and a member of the Philadelphia Consistory, Thirty-second degree Mason. A wife and two children survive.
