FINE BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT

Funeral of George Phillips Held on Saturday from His Residence on North Rebecca Avevnue - Culm Washer at the Oxford Breaker.

The entertainment given for the benefit of Henry Baston on Saturday evening brought out a large number of peo ple who were charitably inclined and contributed to the benefit fund. The entertainment was given in Co-opera tive hall, where Professor George Howell presided, and opened the programme with an eloquent address. A selection was given by William Evans and party and a solo by William Morgan. Miss Hattie Hughes recited, and the young comedians, Evans and McNulty, rendered a duett. A piano solo by Miss Annie Sullivan was well rendered. Messrs. Richards and Morgan then rendered a duett in a pleasing manner. A banjo solo by John Clark followed. and Samuel Davis gave a vocal solo. Miss Annie Richards recited. Eddie and Edith Davies, of Bellevue, gave one of their character duetts and were loudly applauded. Miss Mabel Spencer recited. David Stephens rendered a solo, and Messrs. Evans and Abraham gave a duett. The closing feature was a selection by Evans and party. The accompanist was Lewis Watkins. The sum netted for the afflicted family was

George Phillips Buried:

Funeral services over the remains of the late George Phillips were conducted on Saturday afternoon at 2.50 o'clock from the family residence on North Recca avenue. A large number attended the services, which were conducted by Rev. T. J. Collins, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church. Memhers of Navajo tribe, No. 105, Improved Order of Red Men, and Hyde Park castle, Knights of the Mystic Chain, attended the services. The remains were taken to the Washburn Street cometery, where interment was made. A handsome pillow was presented by Ladies' lodge, No. 28, Knights of the Mystic Chain. The pall-bearers from the latter order were W. W. Haywood, W. L. Steenback and Edward R. Jones. The remainder were selected from the Red Men's lodge.

Operating the Culm Washer.

At 8 o'clock on Saturday morning the new culm washer which has just been completed at the Oxford mine was put into operation. It is used for the purpose of filling up we led out chambers in the mines with culm, which props it up and rids the city of its ugly culm dumps. Messrs. A. H. Storrs, W. H. Storrs, James Eaton, Foreman Thornton and other well known Delaware Lackawanna and Western officials were present, and they closely examined the machinery. The trial was found to be a very satisfactory one. The machine will be kept continually in motion until further notice. The workings are be ing inspected by a large number of peo-

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading short letters of in-terest will be published when accompa-nied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held re-sponsible for opinions here expressed.)

GEN. SCHOFIELD'S MODESTY

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The Army of the Ohlo was com-posed of troops largely from Ohlo, In-diana, Michigan, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee. It had three commanders, Major Generals A. E. Burnside, John G. Foster and J. M. Schofield. Its campaigns were the ones into East Tennessee, the Atanta, the Hood and into North Carolina. General Schofield assumed command du ing the cold winter of 1863-64, at Knox-ville, East Tennessee, Its sufferings and deprivations were only equalled but not excelled by those of Washington's army at Valley Forge in the memorable campaign of 1777-78. Its greatest and most desperate conflict was that of Franklin, Tennes-ses, Nov. 39, 1864, when less than 15,990 men withstood and repulsed the continued and unparalleled onsets of Hood's entire army of more than 40,000 tried and cour-ageous veterans. This buttle was the beinning of the end of rebellion in the

On Washington's birthday a committee of soldiers representing the Army of the Ohlo in this city sent a letter of congratulation to their old-commander relative t his recent promotion to a rank and posi-tion occupied by such military spirits as Washington, Scott, Grant, Sherman and Sheridan. It emphasized the stronger fact that while prominent generals in the late war were contending for position the duty of assigning him a just and hon rable position in the ranks of the na-ion's heroic defenders in the hour of exreme peril. His reply, characteristic the medest and unissuming commander of the nation's army, is submitted here-with. It has a heart in it. Sincerely,

J. Fraise Richard. Washington, D. C., March 1. General Schofield's Letter.

Hendquarters of the Army, Washington, D. C., Feb. 23, 1895. Messrs, Stanton Weaver, President; J. Fraise Richard, Secretary; R. A. Ra-gan, J. F. Stewart, W. J. Herbert Hogan and Aven Pearson, Committee of the Army of the Ohio, Washington, D. C. My Dear Old Comrades:

With all my heart I thank you for your kind letter of Feb. 22, extending to me your generous and hearty congratulations upon my recent promotion to the rank of leutenant general. During the most important part of my military career the old Army of the Ohio, and especially the Twenty-third army rps, and I were one. All honor that can possibly come to me for success during those arduous campaigns of the last year of the war are due no less to those brave soldiers than to ne. The greatest sutisfaction I enjoy in the honor which the country has been pleased to bestow upon me consists in the fact that my old comrades share that honor, and that they, of all in our now happy land are most generous in their ongratulations.

beg you to convey to all my old comrades, as opportunities offer, the fact that I appreciate most sincerely their kind remembrance of the days when we served together in defense of the old flag and the Union. Sincerely and fraternally yours, J. M. Schofield.

This evening a meeting of the congregation of the Hickory Street Presbyshall be adopted for the new parsonage. The members of the parish are unaniposing structure for their pastor's residence. The site has been prepared for the foundation walls and all are anxious to push the work of building. Besides dealing with this matter there will be heard reports from the different committees of the church. It will be an interesting meeting.

Chicken Thieves at Work. Whoever has a desire to continue owning his chickens and geese will make sure and see that his roosts are securely locked at night, because chicken thieves are abroad. A few nights ago every resident of Palm street in the block between Pittston and Prospect avenues, was robbed of every chicken he possessed. The police are on the lookout and many citizens are waiting up nights with loaded revolvers. But the robbers will likely cease until the storm blows over.

Frank Kranyik Buried No one came to claim the body of the Polander who was killed on Thursday at noon on the Delaware and Hudson railroad near the National breaker. Several of the deceased's countrymen viewed the remains at T. F. McDonough's undertaking establishment; but none of them seemed disposed to save the body from a pauper's burial. Finally Mr. McDonough was compelled to get an order from Poor Director John Gibbons. The hapless Polander was consigned to his narrow house in Forest

Undertaker E. H. Jordan's Building. By the latter end of this week Edward H. Jordan expects to be domiciled in his new building at the corner of Cherry street and Prospect avenue, Until recently Mr. Jordan had been in partnership with Thomas F. ROOF TINNING AND SOLDERING-

All done away with by the use of HART-MAN'S PATENT PAINT, which consists of ingredients well-known to all. It can be applied to tin, galvanized tin, sheet iron roofs, also to brick dwellings, which will prevent absolutely any caumbling, cracking or breaking of the beck. It will outlast tinning of any kind by many years, and it's cost does not exceed one-fifth that of the cost of tinning. Is sold by the job or pound. Contracts taken by ANTONIO HARTMAL'N.
