Funeral of Mrs. Shields.

One of the largest funerals seen on this side in some time was that of Mrs. Kate Shields, wife of Mathew Shields, who died at her home, 909 Scranton street, on Friday last at noon. The procession moved to St. Patrick's church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 9.30 o'clock. Rev. Father Filan, of Philadelphia, was celebrant, Father McNally deacon, and Father Gerrity, of Blossburg, sub-deacon. In the sanctuary were Fathers Hurst, Walsh, Green, Whelan and Dunne, Father Filan paid a loving tribute to the deceased, who was a most estimable woman, devoted to charity. She was the mother of Rev. Michael Shields, of Towanda.

The handsome casket was covered with many floral designs, the gifts of friends. After the service the remains, followed by a long line of carriages, were taken to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery, where interment was made . The pall-bearers were: Philip Dur-kin, John Barrett, Thomas Kane, P. F. Durkin, P. J. McCann, and M. F. Wymbs. Those who attended from out of town were: Mrs. Edward Golden, of Parsons; Mrs. John Glynn, Bernard Durkin and son, Timothy, of Pittston, and Rev. Michael Shields, of Towarda.

An Embezzler Captured.

Charles Fisk, who is wanted in Shamokin for the embezzlement of $175 from the firm of Bennett & Co., meat dealers, was arrested on Jackson street yesterday afternoon by Constable John Davis, of the Fourth ward. Word had been received in the city that Fisk had come north and would probably visit Scranton. He is a collector for the firm and when he had raised the above amount of money he left that town. He is in the West Side station awaiting the arrival of the Shamokin con-

The club formerly occupied two rooms, but now the partition has been to n out and two posts put in to brace the ceiling. This will make it more commodious. Fuller and Son, of North Main avenue, are renovating the rooms with paper and paint. When this portion of the work is done new curtains, tables, chairs and pic-tures will be put in. The floor will be covered with linoleum.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

New South Scranton Building Association Is Thriving.

LARGE LOANS ARE ASKED FOR

Lackawanna Township Supervisors File Their Bonds-S. G. Kerr Will Deliver His Lecture on Ireland-South Side Board of Trade Meeting.

The South Scranton Building and Loan association, which was but recently organized, is firmly established flourishing basis. At the last meeting held Monday night applications for $2,500 in loans were received by the secretary. This insures that the building season will be opened with a boom on the South Side, because it is an instance of what the other associations will do in loaning money to their stockholders when a new one just begun is patronized so liberally.

They Were Sworn in. Monday evening the newly-elected officers of Lackawanna township were sworn in and assumed the duties of their offices. Patrick Coyne, as supervisor, furnished a bond in the sum of $10,000, signed by Martin McDonough and Thomas P. Joyce; Michael Gibbons, as supervisor, furnished a bond of $4,500, with John Gibbons and Patrick Gibbons, his brothers, as bondsmen

Board of Trade Meeting. Next Friday evening there will be a secting of the South Side board of trade at Storr's hall, on Alder street It is hoped that enough of interest will be taken in the meeting to attract a quorum of the members. Since last summer there has not been a meeting held at which any important business was transacted. A report from the manufacturing and sewers and streets committees is expected Friday night.

Lecture on Ireland.

On April 2 S. G. Kerr will deliver his lecture on "A Trip Through Ireland" at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. An entertainment will be given at the church that evening, but the programme, aside from the lecture, will be a short one. Mr. Kerr has the rappy faculty of relating the incidents of his travels through the Emerald Isle in a manner that is instructive and interesting. His humor is rich and his power of expressing it eloquent. The church will be taxed to its utmost capacity to hear Mr. Kerr.

Dull at the Axle Works. For the first time since its erection nd equipment the plant of the Scranton Axle works is running on short time. Although America has nine times as much road Eng-lish companies carry more passengers. America has the fastest locomotives in the world, but in trains averaging over fifty miles an hour England has eleven and the United States ten. BEGINNING THE WORK.

Committees Appointed to Take Charge of the Armory Benefit. Last night at the office of Colonel E. H. Ripple in the Third National bank building a meeting was held of those interested in the coming military entertainments at the Frothingham during the week beginning Monday, April 22. These entertainments are being arranged by Scranton citizens interested in the building of a new armory for the Thirteenth regiment.

The meeting last night was attended by many enthusiastic gentlemen whose wish and aim is to make a success of the approaching events. The most part of the evening was spent in informally discussing the best plans to adopt so that they may be successfully carried out. It is the intention to provide magnificent programmes, varied each evening, in which thrifling features of military character will form the most prominent part and which will be participated in by nearly all of the boys of the regiment.

Committees were appointed last night The next meeting will be held at the parlors of the Central Republican club rooms on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.
