

Unlike the Fashions Or other baking powders

Cleveland's Baking Powder Never Varies. You can always depend on it.

Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE, 120 Wyoming Ave.

LACKAWANNA THE LAUNDRY.

WILLIAMS AND CARPETS M'ANULTY 27 WYOMING AVENUE.

$5 REWARD! So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

The estimates committee of councils will meet tonight. Over 200 people enjoyed an unusually good supper at the Elm Park Methodist church last evening. The Delaware and Hudson company paid at Laurel Run and Baltimore shops yesterday. A young man having $500 can find a good safe place to invest it and also secure a good position. See special notice, second page. A marriage license was granted yesterday by the clerk of the courts to Henry Sebolt and Catharine Richards, of Olyphant. L. C. Coon will succeed Captain Kellow as foreman of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops. Mr. Coon is car inspector. David Pugh was discharged from the county jail yesterday, having served a month's term of imprisonment for larceny and receiving. The man who tried to rob the Jones hotel on Jackson street, which was reported in yesterday's Tribune, was not James Mulhern, of Bromley avenue. The meeting of the grammar and intermediate grade school principals with Superintendent Phillips, called for yesterday, was postponed until next week. Edward Maher, of Oak Hill, denies that he went with Mrs. Simon Belles when she left her home. He says he did not see that lady while she was away from her husband's house. Matthias Sowka, through ex-Judge W. H. Stanton, began an action in ejectment yesterday to obtain possession of a lot of land on Stone avenue, this city, now held by Marcelia Snyder. It was the employees of the eight-wheel shop and not the foremen, as incorrectly announced, who presented the floral clock as a tribute of esteem for the late Captain William Kellow. Michael Piepol was released from the county jail yesterday. On Feb. 5, 1895, he was sentenced to a two years' term of imprisonment in the penitentiary for a burglary committed in Olyphant. John Connor, 16 years old, fell from a high wall on Robinson street yesterday and fractured his arm. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital and was reported to be resting comfortably last evening. A little daughter of T. Williams, of Irving avenue, and another youngster, Irene Kadz, of 127 Vine street, were missed yesterday noon and after several hours search were found on Washington avenue near Gibson street. The Women's Christian Temperance union societies of central city, West Side and Providence are invited to meet with the Green Ridge Woman's Christian Temperance union on Tuesday, March 12, at 2:30 p. m. at 65 Green Ridge street. The funeral of John, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Howley, of Gordon street, took place yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. He was a bright and interesting child and died Wednesday after a few days' illness. The Green Ridge Iron company has a very large stock of spikes on hand, which they anticipate will be disposed of when the spring work on railroads begins. There has for some time been no demand in the market for spikes, owing to the recent blizzard, which made railroad repairs impossible. A military entertainment was given in the parlors of the Penn Avenue church last evening by the Boy's brigade under the command of Captain F. M. Kohler. A military drill was also given by the young ladies of the banner class. The members of the Boy's brigade of the Green Ridge Baptist church were present

TOOK ACONITE AND DIED

Danford H. Newton of West Side Had No Desire to Live Any Longer.

THE DEED WAS PREMEDITATED

Mr. Newton Told His Wife and Marvin Decker That He Would Destroy Himself—Had Been a Sufferer from Heart Trouble for Some Time.

Danford H. Newton, a blacksmith, residing in the name of Wilhelm Decker, where he was employed, committed suicide at the home of his wife on North Bromley avenue at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by taking a large dose of poison.

Shortly before the hour mentioned Mr. Newton arrived at his wife's house and proceeded upstairs, where he swallowed about two ounces of aconite. He then went to the kitchen and acquainted his wife with what he had done. Mrs. Newton did not believe him and to prove his statement he threw the empty bottle at her. He then began to evince signs of pain, and a few moments later was in agony.

His wife prepared antidotes, but they availed nothing. Dr. A. A. Lindabay was called for, but before he arrived the unfortunate was expired. In his last moments he told a passer-by who had been called in that he had no desire to live any longer.

Mr. Newton was an eccentric man, and of late often told the members of Mr. Decker's family that he would soon kill himself. He met Marvin Decker, of Price street, yesterday morning and told him that he would kill himself that afternoon. His wife received the same information from him a little later.

Mr. Newton had not been living with his wife of late, but a reconciliation had just been brought about. He was in the habit of carrying a bottle of aconite in his pocket, as he was a sufferer from heart trouble and used it for medicinal purposes.

Previously to this suicide, there had been no trouble which could account for the act, although he had been rather despondent for the past few days.

Mr. Newton was born in Dimick, Susquehanna county, and had been employed by Wilhelm Decker for the past ten years. Twelve years ago he went to Illinois, where his mother, who is 85 years of age, now resides. Mr. Newton was 62 years old, and was a volunteer in Company B, Seventeenth regiment, Pennsylvania cavalry, during the late war. He was a member of Post 133, Grand Army of the Republic, and the ex-prisoners of war association, and the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. He was a man of genial disposition.

Mr. Newton is survived by a wife and one son, Ira Newton, of North Rebecca avenue. Owing to the illness of the wife, Mrs. Newton is unable to attend to the funeral, and the inquest will be held today.

The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon, and interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

FINE VARIETY COMPANY.

It is Now Filling an Engagement at Davis' Theater.

The All Star Specialty company opened a three days' engagement at Davis' theater yesterday afternoon. They give one of the best vaudeville entertainments ever seen at that house and greatly pleased those who saw them yesterday afternoon and evening. The Baileys do some wonderful work on roller skates and Minnie Ardell proved herself a more than ordinarily good contortionist. One of the features of the performance was the aquatic work of Eddie O'Dell, attired as a tramp. The Lovengrub sisters are very clever in their songs and dances. These are only a few of the many performers who appear.

Today the receipts of the house will go to the treasurer of the board of Associated Charities.

ONE NEW BUILDING.

Norton's New Store on Lackawanna Avenue a Handsome Structure.

A new building destined to be recognized as one of the city's most complete and imposing business structures is the four-story building of M. Norton at 322 Lackawanna avenue. It is Norton's Bulletin.

Some of the new and late books, the Halston, by Crawford. The Golden House, by C. D. Warner. Beyond Dreams of Avarice, by Bessant. Things Will Take a Turn, by the Author of 'The Ship that Passes in the Night,' 'The Alices of North of Jones,' by Curran, Madame Sans Gen, by Soudan (an Historical Romance of Napoleon's time)

The Rickett Minister, by Crockett, The Honry Brer Bush, by Jane McClaren an excellent Scotch story praised by critics everywhere and selling well. 'Chimney's Religion,' by the N. Y. Sun, by Townsend, very popular. Books on Venice and Venetian Life, the Chautauque Course series of books, The Bookman, a new Literary Monthly, 15 cents.

At Norton's Temporary store, Wyoming avenue.

Notice, Taxpayers. The Board of Appeals elected by City Councils to hear appeals from city assessments for the year 1895, will hear appeals in the office of the City Clerk, Municipal Building, from the 7th, 9th and 10th wards on Monday, March 11th, 1895. Hours of meeting 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m.

By order of Board of Appeals, M. T. LAVELLE, Clerk. Scranton, Pa., March 1, 1895.

Home Seekers' Excursions, via the Nickel Plate Road, to points in the south, at one fare for the round trip, March 5 to April 2 and 20. Ask your city ticket agent for detailed information, or address F. J. Moore, general agent, No. 23 Exchange street, Buffalo, N. Y.

109 by 25 feet and was built by E. S. Williams from the plans of Architect E. L. Walter. The front is of Indiana stone. Work on the interior will soon begin, and by April 1 it will be ready for occupancy.

Mr. Norton succeeded Blake & Co. in the old building on the site April 1, 1871. The fire of September 15, 1894, damaged the building beyond repair and it had to be torn down.

ENGLISH LITERATURE. Mrs. M. T. Richards Delivers the First Lecture of the Series.

Mrs. M. T. Richards, of Providence, R. I., delivered the first of a series of lectures on English literature at the Albright Library last evening. As a preliminary to the course, the lectures made the following four divisions: The Roman period, the Anglo-Saxon, the Norman and the English period.

The lecture of last evening was upon the age of Queen Anne, with comments upon Addison, Swift and Pope. This epoch was noted for its critical and mocking spirit in literature, but the prose of the age was unexampled in its versatility. In reviewing the works of Addison Mrs. Richards claimed that he was a sincere Christian, and had

WAS BELLES POISONED?

Sudden and Mysterious Death of a Resident of Oak Hill.

HIS LIFE INSURED BY HIS WIFE

They Had Not Lived Happily Together. Interview with His Brother—What Dr. Stevens Says—Coroner is Notified and Will Act Today.

Not until Coroner J. A. Kelley makes a post-mortem examination of the body this morning can there be anything definite known of the cause of the death of Silas Belles, of Oak Hill, Lackawanna township, who expired at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning under mysterious and suspicious circumstances.

The deceased was the same man whose wife deserted him a week ago last Tuesday. Indications of foul play seem strong.

Belles was 47 years of age and had been married about twenty years. His wife is considerably younger, being about 26 years old. One child was born to them, a son Edward, who is now about 17 years of age. The deceased was a stone mason by trade and of a rugged constitution; but less than a year ago he began to feel unwell.

The last inspector he was engaged at was as inspector of coal at the Hill-side colliery in Moosic. He sustained an attack of illness two months ago and was ill for a week; but he did not return to his former position until he had been about ten years ago his wife left him for the first time. She went to Wilkes-Barre and remained away three weeks. He brought her back and in two years she deserted him again. The last occasion on which she went away is said to be the fourth time she left home. The neighbors say that she was justified in quitting his home, that he was not careful about providing for her.

What His Brother Has to Say. Simon Belles, a brother of the dead man, was interviewed yesterday afternoon by a Tribune reporter. He had the following statements: Silas Belles, his brother, had often said that he did not like to drink beverages that were set before him by his wife, afraid that he might be poisoned. And he warned him to make sure and have a post-mortem examination held upon him when he died. He further stated that the deceased confided to him that his wife had taken out insurance on his life against his will. The policies were in the Metropolitan Life Insurance company and amounted to $400. On account of this insurance the deceased had fears for his safety. The first policy was taken out about thirteen years ago.

The brother then went on and told the following story: On Tuesday, Feb. 25, when the deceased came home in the evening he found his wife missing and her clothes and the insurance policies gone too. Edward, the son, went to Levi Belles' house in Moosic to board and the deceased came to board with him. He was in good health and remarked that he never felt better in his life. Last Tuesday he went to Moosic to see his wife and ask her to return to live with him. She was stopping with her stepfather, Hugh Sheridan. She did not come back with him, but Wednesday morning when he went to his house, he found her present. He went away and had his dinner at Simon's house, and left before supper time to go back to his wife.

He Was Praying. She greeted him pleasantly and prepared his supper, after which he went to Moosic to get his son, Edward, to return to live with her. The day after he came back and the deceased started home. It was about 7 o'clock and he was seen on the streets of Moosic in apparently sound and healthy condition. He got home at 7:30 and began to prepare for retiring. He knelt down to pray and sank exhausted on the floor. She, with the assistance of a young man named Lockhard, living next door, carried him to bed. He was conscious until 11 o'clock, when his feeling left him.

Dr. Stevens, of Moosic, was sent for and he arrived at 12 o'clock and remained two hours. Belles lingered without regaining consciousness until 8:30 yesterday morning, when he died. Coroner Kelley will hold a post-mortem examination this morning.

Dr. Stevens was seen yesterday and he would make no statements further than that it was a puzzling and mysterious death, and the cause of it would be known when the result of the autopsy was ascertained. He said that when he reached the Belles house he glanced at the man and was sure that he was dead. The skin was colorless, the eyes sunken and the jaws relaxed. But he was thunderstruck to find the pulse beating strongly.

Dr. Stevens' opinion. There was no respiration noticeable and the doctor injected hypodermically a drug to stimulate the respiratory organs. The doctor's individual opinion was that there was something very suspicious about the death. He was positive that death was not caused by heart failure or apoplexy.

No arrangements for the funeral will be made until after the coroner orders the body to be interred.

DO NOT LET Your watch run forever without having it cleaned and repaired. Take it to BERRY, THE JEWELER. Who has repaired watches and clocks for over 25 years. 417 Lackawanna Ave., SCRANTON CITY.

BEST SETS OF TEETH, $8.00. Including the painless extracting of teeth by an entirely new process. S. C. SNYDER, D. D. S., 321 SPRUCE STREET.

ROYAL ARCANUM MEETINGS. Series Has Been Arranged by Officers of Lackawanna Council.

An unique series of meetings is being arranged by the officers of Lackawanna council, No. 1123, Royal Arcanum. A number of brief addresses on a variety of subjects are to be delivered during the next six months as follows: "Liberty," by Howell Harris, March 15; "Genesis and Geology, or the Story of Creation," by John Proud, April 5; "The Moon," by George Howell, April 19; "United States Mail Service," by Victor H. Lauer, May 3; "Everyday Chemistry," by John J. Davies, May 17.

Norton's Bulletin. Some of the new and late books, the Halston, by Crawford. The Golden House, by C. D. Warner. Beyond Dreams of Avarice, by Bessant. Things Will Take a Turn, by the Author of 'The Ship that Passes in the Night,' 'The Alices of North of Jones,' by Curran, Madame Sans Gen, by Soudan (an Historical Romance of Napoleon's time)

The Rickett Minister, by Crockett, The Honry Brer Bush, by Jane McClaren an excellent Scotch story praised by critics everywhere and selling well. 'Chimney's Religion,' by the N. Y. Sun, by Townsend, very popular. Books on Venice and Venetian Life, the Chautauque Course series of books, The Bookman, a new Literary Monthly, 15 cents.

At Norton's Temporary store, Wyoming avenue.

Notice, Taxpayers. The Board of Appeals elected by City Councils to hear appeals from city assessments for the year 1895, will hear appeals in the office of the City Clerk, Municipal Building, from the 7th, 9th and 10th wards on Monday, March 11th, 1895. Hours of meeting 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m.

By order of Board of Appeals, M. T. LAVELLE, Clerk. Scranton, Pa., March 1, 1895.

Home Seekers' Excursions, via the Nickel Plate Road, to points in the south, at one fare for the round trip, March 5 to April 2 and 20. Ask your city ticket agent for detailed information, or address F. J. Moore, general agent, No. 23 Exchange street, Buffalo, N. Y.

109 by 25 feet and was built by E. S. Williams from the plans of Architect E. L. Walter. The front is of Indiana stone. Work on the interior will soon begin, and by April 1 it will be ready for occupancy.

Mr. Norton succeeded Blake & Co. in the old building on the site April 1, 1871. The fire of September 15, 1894, damaged the building beyond repair and it had to be torn down.

ENGLISH LITERATURE. Mrs. M. T. Richards Delivers the First Lecture of the Series.

Mrs. M. T. Richards, of Providence, R. I., delivered the first of a series of lectures on English literature at the Albright Library last evening. As a preliminary to the course, the lectures made the following four divisions: The Roman period, the Anglo-Saxon, the Norman and the English period.

The lecture of last evening was upon the age of Queen Anne, with comments upon Addison, Swift and Pope. This epoch was noted for its critical and mocking spirit in literature, but the prose of the age was unexampled in its versatility. In reviewing the works of Addison Mrs. Richards claimed that he was a sincere Christian, and had OLIVES 39c. Per Bottle, Worth 50c. 44c. Per Bottle, Worth 60c.

OLIVE OIL Highest grade, guaranteed pure, 75c. per bottle; $7.50 per dozen; $2.25 per gallon; 3-gallon tins $6.00.

LOWEST PRICES Our own importation of French Mushrooms, Peas and Stringless Beans and German Peas and Beans.

E. G. Coursen

WAS BELLES POISONED?

Sudden and Mysterious Death of a Resident of Oak Hill.

HIS LIFE INSURED BY HIS WIFE

They Had Not Lived Happily Together. Interview with His Brother—What Dr. Stevens Says—Coroner is Notified and Will Act Today.

Not until Coroner J. A. Kelley makes a post-mortem examination of the body this morning can there be anything definite known of the cause of the death of Silas Belles, of Oak Hill, Lackawanna township, who expired at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning under mysterious and suspicious circumstances.

The deceased was the same man whose wife deserted him a week ago last Tuesday. Indications of foul play seem strong.

Belles was 47 years of age and had been married about twenty years. His wife is considerably younger, being about 26 years old. One child was born to them, a son Edward, who is now about 17 years of age. The deceased was a stone mason by trade and of a rugged constitution; but less than a year ago he began to feel unwell.

The last inspector he was engaged at was as inspector of coal at the Hill-side colliery in Moosic. He sustained an attack of illness two months ago and was ill for a week; but he did not return to his former position until he had been about ten years ago his wife left him for the first time. She went to Wilkes-Barre and remained away three weeks. He brought her back and in two years she deserted him again. The last occasion on which she went away is said to be the fourth time she left home. The neighbors say that she was justified in quitting his home, that he was not careful about providing for her.

What His Brother Has to Say. Simon Belles, a brother of the dead man, was interviewed yesterday afternoon by a Tribune reporter. He had the following statements: Silas Belles, his brother, had often said that he did not like to drink beverages that were set before him by his wife, afraid that he might be poisoned. And he warned him to make sure and have a post-mortem examination held upon him when he died. He further stated that the deceased confided to him that his wife had taken out insurance on his life against his will. The policies were in the Metropolitan Life Insurance company and amounted to $400. On account of this insurance the deceased had fears for his safety. The first policy was taken out about thirteen years ago.

The brother then went on and told the following story: On Tuesday, Feb. 25, when the deceased came home in the evening he found his wife missing and her clothes and the insurance policies gone too. Edward, the son, went to Levi Belles' house in Moosic to board and the deceased came to board with him. He was in good health and remarked that he never felt better in his life. Last Tuesday he went to Moosic to see his wife and ask her to return to live with him. She was stopping with her stepfather, Hugh Sheridan. She did not come back with him, but Wednesday morning when he went to his house, he found her present. He went away and had his dinner at Simon's house, and left before supper time to go back to his wife.

He Was Praying. She greeted him pleasantly and prepared his supper, after which he went to Moosic to get his son, Edward, to return to live with her. The day after he came back and the deceased started home. It was about 7 o'clock and he was seen on the streets of Moosic in apparently sound and healthy condition. He got home at 7:30 and began to prepare for retiring. He knelt down to pray and sank exhausted on the floor. She, with the assistance of a young man named Lockhard, living next door, carried him to bed. He was conscious until 11 o'clock, when his feeling left him.

Dr. Stevens, of Moosic, was sent for and he arrived at 12 o'clock and remained two hours. Belles lingered without regaining consciousness until 8:30 yesterday morning, when he died. Coroner Kelley will hold a post-mortem examination this morning.

Dr. Stevens was seen yesterday and he would make no statements further than that it was a puzzling and mysterious death, and the cause of it would be known when the result of the autopsy was ascertained. He said that when he reached the Belles house he glanced at the man and was sure that he was dead. The skin was colorless, the eyes sunken and the jaws relaxed. But he was thunderstruck to find the pulse beating strongly.

Dr. Stevens' opinion. There was no respiration noticeable and the doctor injected hypodermically a drug to stimulate the respiratory organs. The doctor's individual opinion was that there was something very suspicious about the death. He was positive that death was not caused by heart failure or apoplexy.

No arrangements for the funeral will be made until after the coroner orders the body to be interred.

READ BIG FAILURE

In Large New York Fur House.

I have bought the entire stock and will offer it to the public at 35c. on the dollar. Now is your time to buy a Fur Cape.

200 French Cooney $5.49 Capes, 30-in. long, 200 French Jeanette $6.98 Capes, 30-in. long, 150 Electric Seal $11.49 Capes, 30-in. long, 120 Electric Seal $13.49 Capes, with Marten collar and edge

Come early and make your selections.

J. BOLZ 138 Wyoming Ave.

Have your Furs repaired by the only Practical Furrier in the city.

BE

One of the first to wear the New Derby. Spring Shapes are now ready in both Derby and Soft Hats and they are beauties, too; very becoming to most men.

OUR $3.00 HAT

Is guaranteed to be the equal of the exclusive hatters' $4 and $5 ones; in fact, the only difference is that ours have our name instead of the maker's in the crown, but that is a sufficient guarantee that they are satisfactory.

We also have at $2.00 the best Derby ever offered at that price. All the leading shapes and colors.

HERE IS SOMETHING NEW IN CROCKERY AT WOOLWORTH'S

DINNER SETS. Dainty Dinner Set, 112 pieces, $9.75 Gold Band " 100 pieces, 9.75 Wild Flower " 112 pieces, 10.00 May Flower " 112 pieces, 11.50 German China Dinner Sets, Violet Decoration, 102 pieces, Linoges China Dinner Sets, extra fine, several different decorations, 35.00

TEA SETS. Dainty Tea Set, very neat decoration in blue or brown, 50 pieces, $3.95

CHAMBER SETS. Plain White Chamber Sets, 10 pieces, $1.75 Chamber Set, Morning Glory decoration, 6 pieces, 1.75 Autumn Leaf Decoration, 10-piece Chamber Set, 2.75 Tulp Decorated Chamber Set, 10 pieces, 3.75

C. S. WOOLWORTH 818 LACKAWANNA AVENUE. Green and Gold Store Front.

THE CELEBRATED SOMMER PIANOS are at Present the Most Popular and Preferred by Leading Artists. Warehouses: Opposite Columbus Monument, 206 Washington Av., Scranton, Pa.

BI HATS AT DUNN'S

WHEN YOU BUY SHOES BUY THE BEST.

It's a well known fact that Banister keeps the best and they won't cost you any more than poorer shoes.

BANISTER is selling a good quality Over Gaiter for 40c. and a Ladies' Rubber for 20c.

BANISTER'S Removal Sale

J. LAWRENCE STELLE, 134 WYOMING AVENUE, SCRANTON, PA.

SHEET MUSIC AND SMALL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS At Almost Your Own Prices Before Moving.

SECOND-HAND PIANOS AND ORGANS

NO REASONABLE OFFER REFUSED.