

HOLY LAND ART PORTFOLIOS.

Ethiopian Footsteps OF THE Man of Galilee

Most carefully and piously traced with note-book and camera, from

Bethlehem to Calvary And the Mount of Olives,

Being a geographical and historical account in narrative and pictures of the places where Christ and the Apostles lived, toiled and triumphed, showing how Jesus was born, reared, baptized, tempted, transfigured and crucified, reviewing in chronological order the scenes of his prayers, tears, sermons, miracles, and religious achievements, which brought to humanity the dawn of a new day.

A Superb Religious-Educational, FINE ART PUBLICATION

Which is the joint production of Rev. John H. Vincent, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the M. E. Church; Rev. James W. Lee, D. D., and E. E. M. Barn, the celebrated Landscape and Scenic Photographer. This wholly unique and thoroughly up-to-date and beautiful color picture series, the result of months of travel and observation, involving three separate tours of the Holy Land.

Two by Bishop Vincent, and one lately concluded by DR. LEE, upon which he was accompanied at every stage of the journey by MR. BARN, with the finest photographic outfit procurable in America; these gentlemen being under special commission to present pictorial and descriptive views of the LAND OF THE SAVIOR. His very footsteps have therefore been followed, and the scenes of his life have been traced, as shown on the EXHIBIT OF THE LATEST MAP in all Portfolios. This work is the final expression of a beautiful enterprise, and is an incomparable Historical and Religious Fine Art Offering. An opportunity is thus given to make a delightful tour through Palestine without leaving home. This magnificent collection of over three hundred and eighty-four photographs--the finest that ever came from the East, all secured this year and published at an expense of fifty thousand dollars--should be in every home.

HOW TO SECURE THESE SPLENDID PORTFOLIOS

For every purchaser and 10 cents additional you will be given one of these beautiful Art Portfolios, and thus continue until you have secured the entire series of 24 numbers. There are 10 beautiful views in each Part of Number. We guarantee to furnish our customers with the entire series as wanted. We wish to distinctly understand that in connection with this enterprise we guarantee the VERY BEST QUALITY OF GOODS in every department at the lowest prices. Come and be convinced. We feel assured that you will be more than pleased with the Portfolios, and will be as anxious to purchase them as we are to enable you to do so. Very truly yours,

J. Scott Inglis

429 LACKAWANNA AVENUE. Looked Too Pleasant. From Tid-Bits. A drill sergeant of a volunteer regiment in drilling a squad whom he was instructing in the funeral exercise said: Now, lads, I want to see how well you can do it. I'm going to walk through the ranks, and I wish you to suppose I'm the corpse. He ordered the squad to rest on their arms reversed and stand at ease. Then he walked through the ranks and addressed them as follows: "Your arms are all right and your feet are all right, but there is one thing wanting, my lads; you hadn't that look of regret on your face that you ought to have when a corpse walks past."

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TUNKHANNOCK.

Abram Haas, of Iowa, is visiting old acquaintances here. Rumor has it that Miss Mae Cryden, daughter of Rev. H. M. Cryden, presiding elder of Chenango district, and Walter Wagner, son of Rev. J. R. Wagner, are to be married in May. A telegram to W. E. Little from Laporte, yesterday, announced that the judicial contest has been adjourned to May 20.

Miss Kate Gilmartin, who is teaching school in Eaton township, has been sick for several days with diphtheria, and Thursday night it was announced that she had taken an overdose of medicine and her life was despaired of. Yesterday she was reported better.

Henry Leppam, of Russell Hill, who has been ill for a long time, died Thursday evening. The funeral will be held at the Baptist church at that place on Sunday at 11 a. m. He was 69 years of age, and owned a farm near Russell Hill corners, on which he had lived for many years, rearing a family. Last fall he abandoned the farm and went to the hamlet to live.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Atkinson, who went to North Carolina to spend the cold winter, will return next week. Carl Rithelbert is said to be considerably improved in health. People who purchased oranges at knock-down prices of a couple of cents who have been voyaging around this section with a horse and wagon this week would like no better than to make the said oranges out their own cargo. The fruit had been frozen and was miserable, worthless stuff.

A tramp who gave his name as Joseph Cool and his home as Deposit, N. Y., but later claimed to hail from somewhere in the south, applied for and received some work about the Wall House barn Thursday. He was allowed to sleep in the barn at night, and taking a lot of horse blankets, crawled up in the loft. Sometime during the night he arose, and in walking about he pitched headlong down through an opening, alighting on his head and shoulders on the floor twelve feet below. He was found by the hostler in the morning and Dr. J. W. Denison called, who found his right collar bone broken, blood issuing from the ear, and probably severe internal injuries. An order of relief from the poor authorities was obtained and he was taken to Mrs. Ann Gillespie's where he will be cared for. His recovery is a matter of doubt.

D. C. DeWitt, who lectures on "Finance" at the court house next Wednesday evening, extends a special invitation to the ladies to come, as he has something of interest to them to say.

The relatives of ex-Sheriff George W. Stark, of Lake Carey, were summoned to his bedside yesterday morning. He died later in the day. Mrs. Avery, widow of the late Frank C. B. Avery, is here to spend some time with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Avery. Her home is at "Charleston, S. C., but she has been spending the winter in New York city. Charlie McKown has a new Envoy bicycle.

The commission of R. J. Bardwell as notary public arrived yesterday. John B. Jennings, of Mehoopany, is dynamiting the ice along the river bank in order to clear away a channel so that the ferry boats can be started. The ice is piled thirty feet high in some places.

The Presbyterian people will hold a meeting next Wednesday evening to elect additional deacons for their church. Drs. F. J. Bardwell, of this place; E. H. Wells, of Meshoppen, and C. W. Freest, of Wilkes-Barre, went to Russell Hill yesterday to hold an autopsy on the body of Henry Leppam.

C. J. Reed writes from Florida that he has purchased for his son, Spencer D., a thousand acres of pine timber. The latter will start south next week. We understand the board of health is preparing for a vigorous campaign this season. There is need enough for official supervision in that line.

A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Tunkhannock to attend the services at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sabbath, and each evening during the week, except Saturday. Mrs. Grace Weiser Davis, of Jersey City, will preach and sing on each occasion. All regular services, such as class meetings, Sunday school, Epworth league, men's prayer meeting will be held at usual time and place.

FACTORYVILLE

There will be a reception and supper held in the lecture room of the First Baptist church at this place on March 13 in the evening, for the pastor of the church, Rev. M. J. Watkins. Rev. M. J. Watkins presented his daughter, Sarah, with a fine new piano this week.

Miss Mabel Reynolds returned Monday afternoon from a two weeks' visit with friends at Montrose, Brooklyn and Lathrop. Miss Frelora Reynolds, who has been a sufferer for several weeks from pneumonia, died on Sunday evening and was buried on Tuesday afternoon from the family residence on High street. Very impressive services were held by Rev. M. J. Watkins, of the First Baptist church. The loved little form was encased in a white casket surrounded by beautiful flowers. She was aged 11 years.

Forrest Reynolds, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending a couple of weeks with his parents on Church street. Mrs. Llewellyn Capwell and little son have returned home from a visit to Mrs. Capwell's parents in Dakota. The Ladies Circle of Grand Army of the Republic will hold a meeting at the G. A. R. hall March 9. Every member is requested to be present. Mrs. Newton, of Nicholson, spent Sunday in town. The little daughter of George Ellenberger, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is reported better. Misses Lena Clark and Nellie De Graw, of Scranton, visited friends for a few days in town this week.

HALLSTEAD.

Mrs. M. J. Colligan, of Scranton, is visiting friends and relatives in this place. The Odd Fellows had a banquet in Rossa's hall in Great Bend on Tuesday evening. A large delegation were present from Binghamton. John Mallone, sr., is visiting his daughter in New York city. Edward O'Brien is making improvements on his house, on William street, occupied by John Condon. Arthur Banker is ill. Dr. Johnson, of Hopbottom, called on Dr. Lamb yesterday afternoon. A class in algebra has been formed at the high school, and it is composed of the eighth and ninth grades. Owing to the large number of classes the class recites after school. Mrs. Timothy Connors is ill at her home on Main street. Mrs. H. Dedrick, of Hackettstown, N. J., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Currier, in this place, has returned home.

The Junior Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will be led by Miss Eva Oswald on Saturday afternoon. The society now numbers eighty-two members. Mrs. E. Sands is ill. The next entertainment on the Railroad Young Men's Christian association's entertainment course will be given on Thursday evening, March 11. Mrs. Shaw, who has been visiting her son, Edward, in Buffalo, has returned home.

Dr. Doll Herkimer was called to Cleveland the first of the week by the serious illness of a brother. W. R. Tinker will open a restaurant in the Major block in the near future. Dr. A. B. Longshore, the dentist who is to locate here about March 10, graduated at the Philadelphia College of Dentistry and Surgery on Wednesday.

PECKVILLE.

Leyshon Davis died at the home of Thomas W. Morgans last Wednesday evening of heart failure, aged 47 years. He leaves five children, four daughters and one son: Mrs. Thomas Powell, of Peckville; Mrs. W. R. Williams, of Miners Mills; Mrs. Jenkyr Pugh, of Parsons; Arthur W. Davis, of Midville. The funeral will be under the supervision of Wahnetah tribe, 267. Improved Order of Red Men, of which the deceased was a member. A short service will be held at the house this morning at 11:30 by Rev. W. J. Glast, after which the remains will leave on the 1 p. m. train on the Delaware and Hudson for Wilkes-Barre for interment.

Mrs. Sarah Bertram, of South Canaan, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Spangenberg. William Opdyke has been indisposed for the week and a half. Rev. M. D. Fuller, of Providence, and Rev. F. P. Doty will exchange pulpits next Sunday morning and evening. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church wish to take this means of thanking E. H. Ritter, who so kindly assisted them in getting up the memorial card on the death of one of their members, Mrs. Jacob Dewey.

Frank W. Day, of Wilkes-Barre, was a caller in town yesterday. Mrs. George F. Cool and daughter, Myrtle, are visiting her mother, at Carbondale. Albert Chapman is suffering from rheumatism. Evangelist Scoville will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday evening. Joseph Croup made a business trip to Scranton yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Schrader, who has been very sick, is improving. Found, last Wednesday evening, between the Delaware and Hudson depot and the Ontario depot, a large pocket book containing valuable papers. The owner can have the same by proving property and paying for this advertisement, by calling on William Page, Main street.

An excellent banquet was served at Lydard hall on Wednesday evening when the members of the United American Mechanics lodge celebrated their anniversary. The tables were spread at 8:30 p. m., with all the delicacies of the season, and after ample justice had been done to the dainties provided a social evening was spent, the principal feature being a powerful address by Rev. J. R. Sweet, of Ashby, upon the principles of the order. The address was replete with vital points to the members, who deeply appreciated the commendable remarks of the reverend gentleman. During the evening Mrs. White and Miss Savage gave a piano-forte duet which was well received and vocal solos were rendered by the following: Miss Keckell, Miss Sicker, Mrs. Jennie Frear and W. W. Watkins. All of these were loudly applauded. Recitations were given by Miss Maud Doud, Miss Agnes Hull, and Mr. Benjamin and Mrs. William also contributed materially to the success of the evening. Over 200 guests were present during the evening and all enjoyed it in the most complete manner in which the banquet had been arranged, and in admiring the well-thought decorations. The committee of arrangements were: M. E. Wademan, F. R. Greiner, H. A. Frear, H. W. Peck, and R. H. Barnes. The duties of the reception committee were courteously undertaken by Frank Benjamin, George A. Bell and Frederick Benjamin.

OLYPHANT.

The many friends of the late Professor Moran, of Dunmore street, who died on Tuesday last, attended the funeral services which were held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in St. Patrick's church. The services, given in part by the complete manner in which the banquet had been arranged, and in admiring the well-thought decorations. The committee of arrangements were: M. E. Wademan, F. R. Greiner, H. A. Frear, H. W. Peck, and R. H. Barnes. The duties of the reception committee were courteously undertaken by Frank Benjamin, George A. Bell and Frederick Benjamin.

TORTURED THIRTY YEARS.

The Agoales of the I quillon Endured by Rheumatic Sufferers. An Octogenarian Tells a Wonderful Story of His Remarkable Cure. John L. Gill, residing at 24 North Grant avenue, Columbus, O., aged 88 years, says: "I suffered from rheumatism for over thirty years. The pains were very severe and often I was unable to move around. I have doctored with many physicians and taken all kinds of patent medicine, but never received any relief until I began using Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. Within twelve hours after taking the first dose I was free from pain and am now completely cured."
