CITY NOTES.

The public night schools closed last night. Mayor Connell yesterday affixed his signature to the new Seventeenth district sewer ordinance. Special Purim service will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Linden Street temple. All are welcome. August Wahlers, of the Third ward of Danmore, returned his assessment book to the county commissioners yesterday. The Lackawanna paid yesterday at the machine shops and the Cayuga and Bribin mines. Trainmen will be paid today and Monday. William P. Moran, who died Tuesday at his home in Olyphant, was buried yesterday. He was at one time the leader of the Forest band of this city. The Tribune has received from H. Howard Bellman, of the Commonwealth News depot, a sample copy of the bookman, recently noticed in our department of book reviews. The arbitrators yesterday filed their award in the trespass case of Michael Coghlan against James Eiley. They allowed the plaintiff $150 for the injuries he sustained at Eiley's hands. Rev. Father Hoban, of Ashley, spoke of his journey through Europe and the Holy Land before the St. Cecilia Reading circle in St. Cecilia's academy last night. His discourse was instructive and interesting. General Secretary Mahy has just returned from the manufacturing committee of the board of trade was held yesterday and propositions were considered from firms desirous of locating in this city. A special report will be presented at the regular meeting of the board. Judge Savidge will be in court at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of March 12 to hear arguments on rules granted in cases tried before him while apparently presiding here. Judge Albright will be in court on March 12 at 11 a. m. for a similar purpose. A Woman's Relief corps will be organized in connection with the Grand Army of the Republic post at Moosic this afternoon. An invitation to attend has been extended. Relief corps, No. 25, of this city. The Jersey Central train leaves here at 1:45 p. m. The food inspector has spotted the milk of a number of farmers who have watered the product and who will be arrested and severely punished for a second offense. The contents of several cans from Newton township were dumped in the gutter yesterday morning. Rev. George W. Powell has been in New York state for two weeks, assisting in a series of meetings. He will preach in Corland, N. Y., next Sunday. Rev. W. Carr, of that place, filling his pulpit in All Souls' Universalist church, on Pine street, both morning and evening. The 1865 committee of the board of control will be appointed Monday night by George Carson, the newly elected president. The meeting will receive the report of Superintendent Phillips and Controller Worman, who recently sought the services of a Poughkeepsie training school teacher. A meeting of the representative of local Odd Fellows lodges was held at 209 Wyoming avenue last night to make arrangements for an excursion train to Philadelphia upon the dedication of the new temple in May, next. After some routine business was transacted it was decided to convene a meeting of all the county lodges on Friday next to arrive at a decision in the matter. The annual meeting of the Central Republican club will be held at the club room in the Price building, on Washington avenue, Monday, March 11, at 8 p. m. The president will submit his annual report and the secretary and treasurer will present detailed reports showing the financial condition of the club, after which the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. In the Junior basketball game that was played this afternoon in Wilkes-Barre the Young Men's Christian association of Scranton will be represented by the following team: Koch, left forward; Pranz, right forward; Clark, home; Surdam, left center; Russ, right center; Fellows, center; Foster, left guard; Battin, right guard; Morris, goal; Pierson and Vail, substitutes; Koch, captain; Russ, manager. A regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Lackawanna hospital was held yesterday. James P. Dickson president, there being also present ex-Judge Hand, John F. Snyder, C. W. Roessler and Secretary Leslie. Satisfactory reports were presented as to the work of the past month and an application by the members of the medical staff for a new set of surgical instruments, estimated to cost $250, was granted. There may be a few worse shows on the road at present than "The Danger Signal," which was seen at the Academy of Music last night, but fortunately they keep away from Scranton. The company is abominable and the only redeeming feature of the performance are the scenery and the costumes. It is fortunate that Playwright DeMille, whose name will not go echoing down the corridors of time simply as the author of "The Danger Signal." The wonder is that he ever wrote it.

STILL IN THE HOLE.

City Expenditures for 1895 Brought Only $1,808 Nearer the Estimated Revenue. Over $8,000 Remains to Be Cast Aside. Probably the most unsatisfactory of the many adjourned meetings of the estimates committee of councils yet held, was that of last night. During the four previous sessions the estimated expenditures for 1895 had been brought from about $75,000 to within $19,460.39 of the available receipts, estimated at $75,899 by the city controllers. During the early part of last night's meeting the committee went about $1,500 deeper in the hole, and then, as if to even things up, jumped off $2,800 at one fell swoop from the estimate for Nay Aug park. When the meeting adjourned, the estimated expenditures had been brought only $1,808 closer to the estimated receipts, still leaving $8,652.39 to be cast aside, not including $200 extra for the purchase of Excelsior hose company, $400 keep of three extra horses, $420. Reductions were made as follows: Light and heat for the city hall from $1,500 to $1,200; cleaning asphalt pave, from $12,500 to $11,500; repairing Mountain road, $400; light and heat for Excelsior, four street repairs, Seventeenth ward, from $1,800 to $666; repairs to police patrol wagon and harness, from $150 to $80; expenses for Nay Aug park, from a total of $5,400 to $2,000, the present estimate including only $600 for a policeman and $2,000 for labor and fuel. An adjournment was made until Monday night.

WIRE'S BODY TAKEN HOME.

Will Be Buried in the Family Plot at Taylor's Point, N. Y. Miss Luanna Wire, a sister to Atwood W. Wire, who was killed on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad on Wednesday last, arrived in the city yesterday and gave orders to Undertaker A. B. Rau to prepare the remains for transportation to Taylor, near Erieville, where the Wire family have a private cemetery known as the "Wire private cemetery." Miss Wire was deeply affected at the tragic end of her brother's life and was consoled by a large number of ladies of the city, who had been interested in the matter. Her body was taken on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train, which left for Syracuse at 2:35 o'clock this morning, en route for Whitefish Point, from which place the funeral party will drive to Taylor. At 9 o'clock last evening Rev. E. L. Miller, of the Holy Trinity church, conducted a prayer meeting at Mr. Rau's establishment, which was attended by Mrs. Franc T. Vail, Miss Raub and others. The Wire family are well-known in the neighborhood of Erieville, New York state.

DEATH OF MRS. PRICE.

She Was the Mother of the Late Colonel J. A. Price. Mrs. Samuel Price, mother of the late Colonel J. A. Price, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Howarth, at 10:30 last night. Mrs. Price was 81 years of age and had been for the greater part of her life a resident of Pittston. For the past four years she had resided with her daughter, Mrs. Howarth, at 1545 Jefferson avenue. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

AN UNLUCKY TRIAL.

New Lackawanna Engine Gets Beyond Control and Causes Damage. While a new Lackawanna engine, fresh from the shops, was being given a trial yesterday on the main line near the Cayuga shaft, the engineer, Jerry McFadden, lost control of it and a collision followed with engine No. 12. Each locomotive was badly damaged, but nobody was injured. Put ginger in your business by advertising in The Tribune. MR. RODERICK'S REPORT

Shows the Amount of Coal Mined in First District in 1894.

LESS THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS

While Less Coal Was Mined a Greater Number of Men Were Employed—Figures for Year in Detail—Number of Persons Killed and Injured.

Mine Inspector Roderick, of the First anthracite district, has completed his report for the past year, and it is replete with information of great practical value to all interested in the coal industry of this valley. There are seventy-one openings in the district under his supervision and coal was taken out of sixty-six during the year; the number of openings closed up, eight, and eight shafts, to slopes, eight drifts, and fifteen tunnels. The total production of coal from the sixty-six openings during the year was 5,967,251 tons as compared with 6,292,131 tons in the year 1893, showing a decrease of 324,880 tons. The total shipments for 1894 were 5,282,644 tons, compared with 5,943,623 in the previous year, a decrease of 660,979 tons. In the number of persons employed in and around the mines a slight increase is shown, there being 16,014 employed in 1894, as against 15,639 in 1893, an increase of 374.

HE TOOK HIS OWN LIFE.

That Was the Verdict of Coroner's Jury in Newton Case. Coroner J. A. Kelley yesterday visited the house at 219 North Bromley avenue, West Side, where Danford H. Newton committed suicide Thursday and empaneled a jury to make an investigation. The testimony of Ira D. Newton, a son of the dead man; Mrs. Newton, the widow, and A. W. Musgrave, of the drug firm of Jenkins & Musgrave, was the most important. The members of the jury told about the deceased's habits, but he resolved on Jan. 31 of the present year to quit liquor and arrangements were being made for a reconciliation. He came to the house about 3 o'clock and spoke pleasantly with Mrs. Newton and went to the kitchen three times and took a drink of water each time. His wife heard him take a bottle from his pocket and place it on the iron sink. She thought he was taking liquor. The last time he went for a drink he raised the bottle to his lips and took a long draught. He staggered to the front room after taking the drug and expired in a half hour. Dr. Lindberg was sent for, but Newton was beyond recovery. Mrs. Newton prepared a cup of mustard water as an emetic. Ira D. Newton, the son, swore that his father used acetic acid as a sedative for his heart. He often heard him say he would kill his wife if any other matter ever troubled him. Other witnesses testified to the same thing. The verdict of the jury was to the effect that Newton's death was the result of drinking acetic acid, a poison, in quantity sufficient to produce death.

ARE AGAIN ARRAIGNED.

Proprietors of Night Lunch Wagons Summoned Before Alderman Fitzsimmons. Aaron Goldberg and J. Burros were again summoned for violating the city ordinance in placing their lunch wagons on the banks and Lackawanna avenue, and appeared before Alderman Fitzsimmons last evening in answer to the charge. The information was sworn by Charles L. Van Valin, of Linden street, who acts as agent for Mrs. Moore, the owner of property on the northwest corner of Lackawanna and Franklin avenues.

FOR A GOOD CAUSE.

Board of Associated Charities Will Receive $300 from Davis' Theater. Davis' theater was crowded yesterday at both of the benefit performances for the Board of Associated Charities. Manager Davis announced last night that $300 would be handed over to the board for the relief of the deserving poor. He thanked his patrons for their attendance, and remarked that he intended to make the benefit performance an annual event.

ANOTHER LABEL SUIT.

Brought Against the Editors of the Carbondale Leader. The Lackawanna Rapid Transit company, through Attorney J. E. Burr, began an action yesterday to recover damages from Edward D. Lathrop and William M. Lathrop, editors of the Carbondale Leader. It is alleged by the company that the Leader has, for some time past, persistently misrepresented and libeled it and action is therefore brought to recover damages.

THE APPROACHING FIGHT.

Candidates Who Are Mentioned in the Sixteenth Ward. There are in the Sixteenth ward plenty of candidates willing to serve in select council until 1898 and fill the vacancy caused by the death of Captain Keow. Among the Democrats are a dark horse already saddled, the Republicans have five available candidates, to the other party's one. On the Republican calendar are Adam Schroeder, J. H. Danner, Frank Hallstead, John Kemmerer and Thomas Moore. Mr. Moore, Mr. Kemmerer

SERMON ON SOCIAL EVILS

Delivered by Father Bucholz at St. Peter's Cathedral.

PLAIN, STRAIGHTFORWARD TALK

The Speaker in Forceful Language Urged His Auditors to Avoid the Sins That Are Undermining the Foundations of Society—Will Close Monday.

At the cathedral last night Rev. Father Bucholz delivered a most interesting sermon on the social evils of the day. In graphic language he described the bellish work of those human cormorants who prey upon virtue and honor. They do the work of the devil, the speaker said; they wreck lives, send souls to perdition, break the hearts of loving parents and send many beautiful but fragile girls to early and dishonored graves.

Examples Are Numerous. "Look about you and you will find many examples of what intemperance has brought men to and then tell me if you wish to follow their example. St. Paul tells us that the drunkard shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. Be sober and you will be chaste; if you are not, it will be impossible for you to lead pure lives. There is no honor in being a bachelor, for he is usually a sinful man. He must be either one of two things—a saint or a very wicked sinner."

Mixed Marriages Condemned. Mixed marriages were severely condemned, as was the practice of reading immoral books and attending theatrical performances that poison the mind and destroy respect for morals.

There will be no sermon tonight, the missionaries declining to devote the entire time to hearing confessions. Father Bucholz will deliver the sermons on 10:30 Sunday morning and on Sunday evening. Monday night the mission will close, when Father Bucholz will deliver the final sermon. Next Sunday he will open a mission at St. Stephen's church, Buffalo. Rev. Father DeHaza left yesterday for Logansport, Ind., where he will open a mission to-day.

Father Bucholz announced last night that a society of young men would be organized tomorrow morning at 7:30 in the chapel of St. Thomas' college that needs to be implanted during the mission period to be nourished and made to bear fruit.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Michael Flynn, of Jackson Street, Suddenly Called Across the Dark River. At 7:15 o'clock yesterday morning Michael Flynn, of Jackson street, was found dead in bed by his daughter, Miss Eleanor Flynn. He is supposed to have died of apoplexy.

He went to bed the evening before in apparently good health. He had not complained of being ill and was at work on Thursday as usual. Mr. Flynn slept peacefully during the night and was awake at 6:30 o'clock, when his daughter called to him. He remained in bed undisturbed until 7:15 o'clock, when his daughter, who went into the room, found him lifeless.

The family are at a loss to rightly explain the mysterious affair, as Mr. Flynn possessed a rugged constitution and, so far as was known, no heart trouble or other ailment which might have caused sudden death. The coroner will not arrive until today.

Mr. Flynn was born in Ireland and was 56 years of age. He came with his family to this country six years ago, going first to Marlby and from thence to this city. He was employed in the breaker at the Cayuga colliery and was a member of St. Patrick's church. Deceased leaves a wife and eight children. They are: James, Patrick, Mary, Thomas, Michael, John, Eleanor and Bridget Flynn. The funeral will probably occur on Monday.
